Thaddeus Lowe Mary Duprey Hoehling,1958 Story of Thaddeus Lowe who was instrumental in developing hot air balloons for use in the Civil War Colorado's Daring Ivy Baldwin Jack Stokes Ballard,2020-07-13 At the beginning of the twentieth century aerialist Ivy Baldwin had achieved celebrity status as a premier tightrope walker aeronaut and aviation pioneer He executed astonishing and perilous performances across America and internationally including Mexico and the Far East First by flying balloons he went on to pilot dirigibles and finally aircraft In his later years in Colorado he became famous for crossing canyons on a tightrope Historian Jack Stokes Ballard deftly captures Baldwin s colorful and hazardous life from childhood runaway to aviation record holder Birth of a Legend LtCol Leon E. Braxton USAF,CAPT Arthur H. Wagner USCG,2012-01-27 Competition for Army acquisition funding in the between wars depression years was fierce The opposing camps of Fighter Supremacy versus Strategic Bombing played out at the Air Corps Tactical School ACTS at GHQ before Congress and in the media Military exercises pitted the Navy and the Air Corps in operations with real cloak and dagger background gambits each trying to gain the upper hand When leaders such as Benjamin Foulois Billy Mitchell and Frank Andrews eventually were able to foster a bomber competition to replace the Martin B 10 Boeing s four engined Model 299

was a clear winner but then it crashed at Dayton and the Army opted for the Douglas B 18 Somehow Frank Andrews had enough faith in his convictions and managed to have 13 Y1B 17s produced and sent to the 2nd Bombardment Group at Langley Field VA There Robert Olds and his three squadrons enthralled the country with long range goodwill flights transcontinental speed runs with an obscure 1st Lt Curtis leMay navigating the way and a thrilling movie Test Pilot starring Clark Gable Myrna Loy and Spencer Tracy Fortunately for the trials of WWII these daring young men of the Army Air Corps put their careers on the line and made the B 17 one of the iconic weapons of that conflict This is the untold story of the aircraft development and the men who made it happen

The Civil War in the Age of Nationalism Duncan A. Campbell, Niels Eichhorn, 2024-04-10 While historians have acknowledged that the issues of race slavery and emancipation were not unique to the American Civil War they have less frequently recognized the conflict's similarities to other global events As renowned historian Carl Degler pointed out the Civil War was one among many such conflicts during the mid nineteenth century Understanding the Civil War's place in world history requires placing it within a global context of other mid nineteenth century political social and cultural issues and events In The Civil War in the Age of Nationalism Niels Eichhorn and Duncan A Campbell explore the conflict from this perspective taking a transnational and comparative approach with a particular focus on the period from the 1830s to the 1870s Eichhorn and Campbell examine the development of nationalism and its frequent manifestation secession by comparing the American experience with that of several other nations including Germany Hungary and Brazil They compare the Civil War to the Crimean and Franco German wars to determine whether the American conflict was the first modern war To gauge the potential of foreign intervention in the Civil War they look to the time's developing international debate on the legality of intercession and mediation in other nations insurgencies Using the experiences of Indigenous peoples in the Americas Africa and the Antipodes Eichhorn and Campbell suggest the extent to which the United States was an imperial project To examine realpolitik they study four vastly different practitioners Otto von Bismarck Louis Napoleon Count Cavour and Abraham Lincoln Finally they compare emancipation in the United States to that in Peru and the end of forced servitude in Russia closing with a comparison of the memorialization of the Civil War with the experiences of other post emancipation societies and an examination of how other nations mythologized their past conflicts and ignored uncomfortable truths in the pursuit of reconciliation The Civil War in the Age of Nationalism avoids the limitations of American exceptionalism making it the first genuine comparative and transnational study of the Civil War in an international context
