The 11th Commandment Experiencing The One Another's Of Scripture:

Tasty Jesus Bryan Hurlbutt, 2013-10-28 Tasty Jesus deals with key cultural philosophical and theological representations of Christ that find expression in the North American church. Each of these respective cameos of Christ has colored the Christological understanding of many believers in the local assembly. We live in a society deeply embedded in a mindless individualism that is more concerned with a malleable Christ that suits their present taste than the Jesus of both the Bible and historic Christian orthodoxy. This book is at once a critique, a call, and a consideration. It is a critique of particular visions of Jesus that are embraced by specific subcultures, philosophical camps, and theological perspectives. It is a call to the local church, both its attendees and leadership, intended to awaken them to the problems with these various portraits in hope of stirring them to respond appropriately. It is a consideration of the primary ideological counterpoints to each view of Jesus and a postulation of the best manner in which to equip believers in the local assembly to respond to each distortion of Jesus and live under the lordship of the real Christ. It is time to get Jesus out from under the tyranny of our personal tastes. Shaped By God's Heart Milfred Minatrea, 2012-06-22 Discover the tools to create a new kind of church and move from merely surviving to thriving. Drawing on an extensive two-year field study of 200 churches from a variety of denominations and geographic regions, Milfred Minatrea, a missiologist, urban strategist, and practitioner in ministry, presents the best practices for re-energizing Christian spirituality in a congregational setting. He provides readers with the tools for assessing their congregation's position on the continuum between maintenance and mission and for determining the actions that will move them toward becoming a missional community. He also outlines key strategies that successful churches have used to become relevant in a postmodern society without losing what is distinctly Christian in their spiritual practices. Milfred Minatrea, Irving, TX, is Director of the Missional Church Center for the Baptist General Convention of Texas. Finding the Jewel in Job Loss Rich Jensen, 2011-03-01 Canned, Outsourced, Downsized. No matter what you call it, losing your job hurts. It can hit you at the core of your being, making you question your career, your worth, your identity, even your relationship with God. Discover the spiritual riches that can be gained through a period of unemployment.
