The Adventures Of Ibn Battuta A Muslim Traveler Of The 14th Century:

The Adventures of Ibn Battuta Ross E. Dunn, 2012-06-01 Ross Dunn here recounts the great traveler's remarkable career interpreting it within the cultural and social context of Islamic society and giving the reader both a biography of an extraordinary personality and a study of the hemispheric dimensions of human interchange in medieval times The Adventures of Ibn Battuta Ross E. Dunn, 2004-12-09 Known as the greatest traveler of premodern times Abu Abdallah ibn Battuta was born in Morocco in 1304 and educated in Islamic law At the age of twenty one he left home to make the holy pilgrimage to Mecca This was only the first of a series of extraordinary journeys that spanned nearly three decades and took him not only eastward to India and China but also north to the Volga River valley and south to Tanzania The narrative of these travels has been known to specialists in Islamic and medieval history for years Ross E Dunn's 1986 retelling of these tales however was the first work of scholarship to make the legendary traveler's story accessible to a general audience Now updated with revisions a new preface and an updated bibliography Dunn's classic interprets Ibn Battuta's adventures and places them within the rich trans hemispheric cultural setting of medieval Islam The Adventures of Ibn Battuta, a Muslim Traveller of the Fourteenth Century Ross E. Dunn, 1986 Details the life and extensive travels of Ibn Battuta an Islamic scholar of the fourteenth century interpreting his career as a diplomatic envoy within the cultural and social context of Islamic society The Travels of Ibn Battuta David DiMeo, Inas Hassan, 2016-11-04 A unique and richly engaging approach to teaching Arabic at the high intermediate to advanced level The Travels of Ibn Battuta A Guided Reader is a unique Arabic literature and history textbook for students at the High Intermediate to Advanced level Ibn Battuta was the greatest traveler of the medieval period and his narrative provides an unmatched view of medieval civilization from Spain to China and from Russia to Mali Students will read the authentic descriptions of Ibn Battuta's encounters with cannibals desert bandits Mongol chieftains and his impressions of wonders from Timbuktu to Constantinople to Quanzhou This book provides a guided and scaffolded survey of Ibn Battuta's greatest travels through twenty lessons each with extensive preparatory explanatory and application exercises enabling students to read the actual words of the original text without undue difficulty While telling a fascinating narrative as a whole each of the twenty lessons is designed to stand alone for classroom or individual study Individual sections focus on classical grammar and stylistics historical and cultural background and critical evaluation of the texts The book also provides teachers with a wide range of comprehension composition interpretation and research activities The Spiritual Expansion of Medieval Latin Christendom: The Asian Missions James D. Ryan, 2017-03-02 During the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries religious zeal nourished by the mendicants sense of purpose motivated Dominican and Franciscan friars to venture far beyond Europe's cultural frontiers to spread their Christian faith into the farthest reaches of Asia Their incredible journeys were reminiscent of heroic missionary ventures in earlier eras and far more exotic than evangelization during the tenth through twelfth centuries when the western church Christianized

Eastern Europe and Scandinavia This new mission effort was stimulated by a variety of factors and facilitated by the establishment of the Mongol Empire and as the fourteenth century dawned missionaries entertained fervent but vain hopes of success within khanates in China Central Asia Persia and Kipchak The reports these missionaries sent back to Europe have fascinated successive generations of historians who analyzed their travels and struggled to understand their motives and aspirations The essays selected for this volume drawn from a range of twentieth century historians and contextualized in the introduction provide a comprehensive overview of missionary efforts in Asia and of the developments in the secular world that both made them possible and encouraged the missionaries hopes for success Three of the studies have been translated from French specially for publication in this volume

Explorer Travellers and Adventure Tourism Jennifer Laing, Warwick Frost, 2014-08-04 This book examines the nexus between exploring and tourism and argues that exploration travel based heavily on explorer narratives and the promises of personal challenges and change is a major trend in future tourism In particular it analyses how romanticised myths of explorers form a foundation for how modern day tourists view travel and themselves Its scope ranges from the Golden Age of imperial explorers in the 19th and early 20th centuries through the growth of adventure and extreme tourism to possible future trends including space travel The volume should appeal to researchers and students across a variety of disciplines including tourism studies sociology geography and history

The Trans-Saharan Slave Trade John Wright, 2007-04-03 This compelling text sheds light on the important but under studied trans Saharan slave trade The author uncovers and surveys this the least noticed of the slave trades out of Africa which from the seventh to the twentieth centuries quietly delivered almost as many black Africans into foreign servitude as did the far busier but much briefer Atlantic and East African trades Illuminating for the first time a significant but ignored subject the book supports and widens current scholarly examination of Africans essential role in the enslavement of fellow Africans and their delivery to internal Atlantic or trans Saharan markets

Trade, Travel, and Exploration in the Middle Ages John Block Friedman, Kristen Mossler Figg, 2013-07-04 Trade Travel and Exploration An Encyclopedia is a reference book that covers the peoples places technologies and intellectual concepts that contributed to trade travel and exploration during the Middle Ages from the years A D 525 to 1492

A Political History of the World Jonathan Holslag, 2018-10-25 A three thousand year history of the world that examines the causes of war and the search for peace In three thousand years of history China has spent at least eleven centuries at war The Roman Empire was in conflict during at least 50 per cent of its lifetime Since 1776 the United States has spent over one hundred years at war The dream of peace has been universal in the history of humanity So why have we so rarely been able to achieve it In A Political History of the World Jonathan Holslag has produced a sweeping history of the world from the Iron Age to the present that investigates the causes of conflict between empires nations and peoples and the attempts at diplomacy and cosmopolitanism A birds eye view of three thousand years of history the book illuminates the forces shaping world politics from Ancient Egypt to the Han Dynasty the Pax Romana to the rise of

Islam the Peace of Westphalia to the creation of the United Nations This truly global approach enables Holslag to search for patterns across different eras and regions and explore larger questions about war diplomacy and power Has trade fostered peace What are the limits of diplomacy How does environmental change affect stability Is war a universal sin of power At a time when the threat of nuclear war looms again this is a much needed history intended for students of international politics and anyone looking for a background on current events      The Medieval Islamic Republic of Letters Muhsin J. al-Musawi, 2015-04-15 In The Medieval Islamic Republic of Letters Arabic Knowledge Construction Muhsin J al Musawi offers a groundbreaking study of literary heritage in the medieval and premodern Islamic period Al Musawi challenges the paradigm that considers the period from the fall of Baghdad in 1258 to the collapse of the Ottoman Empire in 1919 as an Age of Decay followed by an Awakening al nahdah His sweeping synthesis debunks this view by carefully documenting a republic of letters in the Islamic Near East and South Asia that was vibrant and dynamic one varying considerably from the generally accepted image of a centuries long period of intellectual and literary stagnation Al Musawi argues that the massive cultural production of the period was not a random enterprise instead it arose due to an emerging and growing body of readers across Islamic lands who needed compendiums lexicons and commentaries to engage with scholars and writers Scholars too developed their own networks to respond to each other and to their readers Rather than addressing only the elite this culture industry supported a common readership that enlarged the creative space and audience for prose and poetry in standard and colloquial Arabic Works by craftsmen artisans and women appeared side by side with those by distinguished scholars and poets Through careful exploration of these networks The Medieval Islamic Republic of Letters makes use of relevant theoretical frameworks to situate this culture in the ongoing discussion of non Islamic and European efforts Thorough theoretically rigorous and nuanced al Musawi s book is an original contribution to a range of fields in Arabic and Islamic cultural history of the twelfth to eighteenth centuries      The Muslim Merchants of Premodern China John W. Chaffee, 2018-08-23 In this major new history of Muslim merchants and their trade links with China John W Chaffee uncovers 700 years of history from the eighth century when Muslim communities first established themselves in southeastern China through the fourteenth century when trade all but ceased These were extraordinary and tumultuous times Under the Song and the Mongols the Muslim diaspora in China flourished as legal and economic ties were formalized At other times the Muslim community suffered hostility and persecution Chaffee shows how the policies of successive dynastic regimes in China combined with geopolitical developments across maritime Asia to affect the fortunes of Muslim communities He explores social and cultural exchanges and how connections were maintained through faith and a common acceptance of Muslim law This ground breaking contribution to the history of Asia the early Islamic world and to maritime history explores the networks that helped to shape the pre modern world      Facing the Sea of Sand Barry Cunliffe, 2023 Northern Africa is dominated by the Sahara Desert stretching across the continent from the Atlantic Ocean to the Red Sea This book is about the people who lived around the edges of the Desert and the different ways in which they responded to its challenges establishing networks of communication across its expanse But the Sahara has not always been a desert From about 9000 BC the region began to enjoy a warm humid period allowing vegetation to flourish and wild animals to move in Humans soon followed practising pastoral economies but with the onset of harsher conditions once more around 3000 BC the desert reclaimed its own Since then fluctuations in climate have continued to affect the lives of people living around the desert fringes The communities occupying the North African Coast and in the Nile Valley have come under the influence of the states dominating the Near East and the Mediterranean but those living in in the Sahel to the south of the desert have developed their own distinctive cultures The book tells the story of the growing links between the two worlds showing that Africa played a crucial part in the development of the Old World before it was drawn into the story of the New World

Univer-cities: Strategic View Of The Future - From Berkeley And Cambridge To Singapore And Rising Asia - Volume II Anthony Soon Chye Teo, 2014-12-08 This follows on from the very well received Volume I UNIVER CITIES Strategic Implications for Asia Readings from Cambridge and Berkeley to Singapore edited by Anthony SC Teo and published in 2013 The early discussions on the topic univer cities sparked considerable interest leading to the Inaugural Univer Cities Conference 2013 Volume II is the result of papers presented at the Inaugural Univer Cities Conference 2013 Founded by Anthony SC Teo the Conference was held under the auspices of Nanyang Technological University and the Lee Foundation in Singapore The Inaugural Address was delivered by His Royal Highness Raja Dr Nazrin Shah and followed by presentations by eminent scholars and leaders of thought from universities all over the world Building on the foundation for further research discussion and input from scholars worldwide and the international community the next univer cities conference is planned for 2016 His Royal Highness Raja Dr Nazrin Shah ascended the Throne as the 35th Sultan of Perak Darul Ridzuan on 29 May 2014 The Mongols and the Islamic World Peter Jackson, 2017-04-04 An epic historical consideration of the Mongol conquest of Western Asia and the spread of Islam during the years of non Muslim rule The Mongol conquest of the Islamic world began in the early thirteenth century when Genghis Khan and his warriors overran Central Asia and devastated much of Iran Distinguished historian Peter Jackson offers a fresh and fascinating consideration of the years of infidel Mongol rule in Western Asia drawing from an impressive array of primary sources as well as modern studies to demonstrate how Islam not only survived the savagery of the conquest but spread throughout the empire This unmatched study goes beyond the well documented Mongol campaigns of massacre and devastation to explore different aspects of an immense imperial event that encompassed what is now Iran Iraq Turkey and Afghanistan as well as Central Asia and parts of eastern Europe It examines in depth the cultural consequences for the incorporated Islamic lands the Muslim experience of Mongol sovereignty and the conquerors eventual conversion to Islam The Mongol Conquests in World History Timothy May, 2013-02-15 The Mongol Empire can be seen as marking the beginning of the modern age and of globalization as well While communications between the extremes of Eurasia existed prior to the Mongols they were infrequent and often through intermediaries As this new book by Timothy May shows the rise of the Mongol Empire changed everything through their conquests the Mongols swept away dozens of empires and kingdoms and replaced them with the largest contiguous empire in history While the Mongols were an extremely destructive force in the premodern world the Mongol Empire had stabilizing effects on the social cultural and economic life of the inhabitants of the vast territory allowing merchants and missionaries to transverse Eurasia The Mongol Conquests in World History examines the many ways in which the conquests were a catalyst for change including changes and advancements in warfare food culture and scientific knowledge Even as Mongol power declined the memory of the Empire fired the collective imagination of the region into far reaching endeavors such as the desire for luxury goods and spices that launched Columbus s voyage and the innovations in art that were manifested in the masterpieces of the Renaissance This fascinating book offers comprehensive coverage of the entire empire rather than a more regional approach and provides an extensive survey of the legacy of the Mongol Empire

Writing African History John Edward Philips, 2006 A comprehensive evaluation of how to read African history Writing African History is an essential work for anyone who wants to write or even seriously read African history It will replace Daniel McCall s classic Africa in Time Perspective as the introduction to African history for the next generation and as a reference for professional historians interested readers and anyone who wants to understand how African history is written Africa in Time Perspective was written in the 1960s when African history was a new field of research This new book reflects the development of African history since then It opens with a comprehensive introduction by Daniel McCall followed by a chapter by the editor explaining what African history is and is not in the context of historical theory and the development of historical narrative the humanities and social sciences The first half of the book focuses on sources of historical data while the second half examines different perspectives on history The editor s final chapter explains how to combine various sorts of evidence into a coherent account of African history Writing African History will become the most important guide to African history for the 21st century Contributors Bala Achi Isaac Olawale Albert Diedre L Bad jo Dorothea Bedigian Barbara M Cooper Henry John Drewal Christopher Ehret Toyin Falola David Henige Joseph E Holloway John Hunwick S O Y Keita William G Martin Daniel McCall Susan Keech McIntosh Donatien Dibwe Dia Mwembu Kathleen Sheldon John Thornton and Masao Yoshida John Edwards Philips is professor of international society Hirosaki University and author of Spurious Arabic Hausa and Colonial Nigeria Madison University of Wisconsin African Studies Center 2000

The Global Atlantic Christoph Strobel, 2015-02-11 The Global Atlantic provides a concise lively overview of the complex and diverse history of the greater Atlantic region from 1400 to 1900 During this period the lands around the Atlantic basin Europe Africa and the Americas became deeply interconnected in networks of trade cultural exchange and geopolitics that reshaped these regions and the world beyond In this accessible and engaging text Christoph Strobel integrates the Atlantic into world history showing that the Atlantic oceanic system was always interlinked with the rest of globe From the Mediterranean origins of slave worked sugar plantations to the Chinese demand for silver from American mines The Global Atlantic discusses key examples of these connections with clarity enabling students to understand how existing ideas and incentives shaped the emerging Global Atlantic and how these Atlantic systems in turn created the world we live in today

Islam and Travel in the Middle Ages Houari Touati,2010-08 In the Middle Ages Muslim travelers embarked on a rihla or world tour as surveyors emissaries and educators On these journeys voyagers not only interacted with foreign cultures touring Greek civilization exploring the Middle East and North Africa and seeing parts of Europe they also established both philosophical and geographic boundaries between the faithful and the heathen These voyages thus gave the Islamic world which at the time extended from the Maghreb to the Indus Valley a coherent identity Islam and Travel in the Middle Ages assesses both the religious and philosophical aspects of travel as well as the economic and cultural conditions that made the rihla possible Houari Touati tracks the compilers of the hadith who culled oral traditions linked to the prophet the linguists and lexicologists who journeyed to the desert to learn Bedouin Arabic the geographers who mapped the Muslim world and the students who ventured to study with holy men and scholars Travel with its costs discomforts and dangers emerges in this study as both a means of spiritual growth and a metaphor for progress Touati s book will interest a broad range of scholars in history literature and anthropology

The Penguin Dictionary of Islam Azim Nanji,2008-04-24 Islam today is a truly global faith yet it remains somewhat of an enigma to many of us Each and every day our newspapers are saturated with references to Islam Quran Taliban Hijab Fatwa Allah Sunni Jihad Shia the list goes on But how much do we really understand Are we in fact misunderstanding The Penguin Dictionary of Islam provides complete impartial answers It includes extensive coverage of the historical formations of the worldwide Muslim community and highlights key modern Muslim figures and events Understanding Islam is vital to understanding our world and this text is the definitive authority designed for both general and academic readers

East Meets West in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Times Albrecht Classen,2013-09-03 This new volume explores the surprisingly intense and complex relationships between East and West during the Middle Ages and the early modern world combining a large number of critical studies representing such diverse fields as literary German French Italian English Spanish and Arabic and other subdisciplines of history religion anthropology and linguistics The differences between Islam and Christianity erected strong barriers separating two global cultures but as this volume indicates despite many attempts to Other the opposing side the premodern world experienced an astonishing degree of contacts meetings exchanges and influences Scientists travelers authors medical researchers chroniclers diplomats and merchants criss crossed the East and the West or studied the sources produced by the other culture for many different reasons As much as the theoretical concept of Orientalism has been useful in sensitizing us to the fundamental tensions and conflicts separating both worlds at least since the eighteenth century the premodern world did not quite yet operate in such an ideological framework Even though the Crusades had violently pitted

Christians against Muslims there were countless contacts and a palpable curiosity on both sides both before during and after those religious warfares
