The African And Asian World:

The African and Asian World Preston Everett James, Nelda Davis, 1983 Uncovering the History of Africans in Asia Shihan de Silva Jayasuriya, Jean-Pierre Angenot, 2008-07-31 Study of the African diaspora is now a dynamic field in the development of new methods and approaches to African history This book brings together the latest research on African diaspora in Asia with case studies about India and the Indian Ocean islands Migration and Agency in a Globalizing World Scarlett Cornelissen, Yoichi Mine, 2018-01-10 This book through a collection of case studies covering Southern and East Africa China India Japan South Korea and Southeast Asia offers insights into the nature of social exchanges between Africa and Asia In the age of the Rise of the South it documents the entanglements and the lived experiences of African and Asian people on the move Divided into three parts the authors look at Asians in Africa Africans in Asia and the connected histories that the two share which illuminate emerging and historical modalities of Afro Asian human encounters Cornelissen and Yoichi show how migrants activate multiple forms of transnational social capital as part of their survival strategies and develop complex relationships with host communities Africa Army Library (U.S.), 1967 Atlantic Crescent Alaina M. Morgan, 2025-06-02 In the period between the twentieth century s two world wars Black and Muslim people from the United States South Asia and the Caribbean collided across an expansive diasporic geography As these people and their ideas came into contact they reignited the practice of Islam among people of African descent living in the United States and the Anglophone Caribbean and prompted them to adopt new understandings of their place in the world As the freedom dreams of these diasporic communities met the realities and limitations of colonialism and race in the Atlantic world Islam presented new strategies for combating oppression and introduced new allies in the struggle Envisioning the geography and significance of this encounter within what she calls the Atlantic Crescent Alaina M Morgan draws on an expansive archive to show how Black and Muslim people imagined understood and acted on their religious and racial identities Morgan reveals how her subjects overlapping diasporic encounters with Islam led to varied local adaptation as well as common ground to pursue liberation from racial subjugation and white supremacy Pan-African History Hakim Adi, Marika Sherwood, 2003-12-16 Brings together Pan Africanist thinkers and activists from the Anglophone and Francophone worlds of the last two hundred years The African-Asian Divide Paul Vandenberg, 2013-09-13 Why have Africans not gained a more dominant position in urban manufacturing in Kenya This question is explored through an analysis of the institutions both formal and informal that have affected patterns of capital accumulation in Kenya by the African and Asian Indian communities Using a new institutional economics approach this book explores the history of economic activity through the pre colonial colonial and post colonial periods including the transformative period of British rule During the colonial period Asians were brought in to build the railways and subsequently focused on urban based activities Africans meanwhile found it difficult to move out of agriculture Thus the ethnic sectoral division of activities was entrenched by the formal laws and powers of the British Following independence the network and financial capital that Asians had built up allowed them to survive early attempts at the Africanization of industry Africans now supported by the formal institutions of the state still found it difficult to engage in manufacturing because they lacked the informal networks that support trade and credit The analysis is supported by the results of a contemporary survey of 120 manufacturing firms in Nairobi's metal sector that highlight the division between smaller African firms and larger Asian ones W. E. B. Du Bois on Asia Bill V.

Mullen, Cathryn Watson, 2009-11-12 After Japan's defeat of Russia in the 1904 territorial war W E B Du Bois declared The Color Line in civilization has been crossed in modern times as it was in the great past The awakening of the yellow races is certain That the awakening of the brown and black races will follow in time no unprejudiced student of history can doubt Du Bois's lifelong certitude that Asia would play a central role in determining the fates of races nations and world systems of power has not until now been made fully available W E B Du Bois on Asia captures in unprecedented detail Du Bois's first person experiences of and responses to Indian nationalism the war between China and Japan the life of Mahatma Gandhi colonialism in Malaysia and Burma and the promise of China's Communist Revolution It also provides critical understanding of Du Bois's obsession with the eternal relationship between Asia and Africa dating from antiquity to the postcolonial era The Du Bois of this collection emerges as a forerunner of post colonialist thought a lifelong internationalist and the most important African American reader of Asia's place in the making of the modern world Routledge Handbook of Africa-Asia Relations Pedro Amakasu Raposo, David Arase, Scarlett Cornelissen, 2017-10-30 The Routledge Handbook of Africa Asia Relations is the first handbook aimed at studying the interactions between countries across Africa and Asia in a multi disciplinary and comprehensive way Providing a balanced discussion of historical and on going processes which have both shaped and changed intercontinental relations over time contributors take a thematic approach to examine the ways in which we can conceptualise these two very different yet inextricably linked areas of the world Using comparative examples throughout the chronological sections cover Early colonialist contacts between Africa and Asia Modern Asia Africa interactions through diplomacy political networks and societal connections Africa Asia contemporary relations including increasing economic security and environmental cooperation This handbook grapples with major intellectual questions defines current research and projects future agendas of investigation in the field As such it will be of great interest to students of African and Asian Politics as well as researchers and policymakers interested in Asian and African Studies

Discourses, Agency and Identity in Malaysia Zawawi Ibrahim, Gareth Richards, Victor T. King, 2021-10-23 This book seeks to break new ground both empirically and conceptually in examining discourses of identity formation and the agency of critical social practices in Malaysia Taking an inclusive cultural studies perspective it questions the ideological narrative of race and ethnicity that dominates explanations of conflicts and cleavages in the Malaysian context The contributions are organised in three broad themes Identities in Contestation Borders Complexities and Hybridities takes a range of empirical studies literary translation religion gender ethnicity indigeneity and sexual orientation to break down preconceived notions of fixed identities This then opens up an examination of Identities and Movements Agency and Alternative Discourses in which contributors deal with counter hegemonic social movements of anti racism young people environmentalism and independent publishing that explicitly seek to open up greater critical democratic space within the Malaysian polity The third section Identities and Narratives Culture and the Media then provides a close textual reading of some exemplars of new cultural and media practices found in oral testimonies popular music film radio programming and storytelling who have consciously created bodies of work that question the dominant national narrative This book is a valuable interdisciplinary work for advanced students and researchers interested in representations of identity and nationhood in Malaysia and for those with wider interests in the fields of critical cultural studies and discourse analysis Here is a fresh startling book to aid the task of unbinding the straitjackets of Malay Chinese and Indian with which colonialism bound Malaysia s plural inheritance and on which the postcolonial state continues to rely In it a panoply of unlikely identities Bajau liminality Kelabit philosophy Islamic feminism refugee hybridity and more finds expression and offers hope for liberation Rachel Leow University of Cambridge This book shakes the foundations of race thinking in Malaysian studies by expanding the range of cases perspectives and outcomes of identity It offers students of Malaysia an examination of identity and agency that is expansive critical and engaging and its interdisciplinary depth brings Malaysian studies into conversation with scholarship across the world Sumit Mandal University of Nottingham Malaysia This is a much needed work that helps us to take apart the colonial inherited categories of race which informed the notion of the plural society the idea of plurality without multiculturalism It complicates the picture of identity by bringing in religion gender indigeneity and sexual orientation and helps us to imagine what a truly multiculturalist Malaysia might look like Syed Farid Alatas National University of Singapore

The Biblical Journey of Slavery Lynette Joseph-Bani, 2010-07 This book tells the story of a family that began in ancient Mesopotamia about 5000 BCE whose descendants are scattered to several nations some of whom reside in the Americas The journey undertaken by descendants of this family saw them through seven major world powers where in millions today has survived slavery The Biblical Journey of Slavery takes the reader through thousands of years to show who were this family and their current dilemma of identity in the Western world Members of this family are referred to as Africans of the Diaspora The Text takes an overview of those who came to the West via the Atlantic Slave Trade Decades spent in search of identity by one descendant of the family is the result of The Biblical journey of Slavery The narrative provides a source of enlightenment for millions of displaced Africans who lost their identity and illustrates the fulfillment of prophecies written over 3000 years ago There are questions about the past that haunt members of Diaspora Africans some of which are addressed in this journey Diaspora Africans frustration bewilderment and lack of comprehension have found many avenues of expression one of these avenues is destructive anger against self and brother The Bible has the answers to many questions that haunt Diaspora Africans because the Bible is a history book about African People The prophet Moses and his wife were Black Africans this information is found in the Bible yet is unknown to the masses Investigation on the characters of scripture will lead to the ancient cities of Mesopotamia Middle East and reveal that the early Bible Patriarchs from Mesopotamia many of their descendants are found in remote villages of African nations and linked to Africans of the Western Diaspora What is learned from this book is the result of many years of research and brings together information from various sources to answer puzzling questions in one concise volume It represents a foundational guide to those who have been confused about the current dilemma of identity that the African Diaspora finds itself in today either as observers or as members Daily Report, Foreign Radio Broadcasts United States. Central Intelligence Agency,1964 African-Asian Encounters Arndt Graf,Azirah Azirah Hashim,2025-10-01 In recent decades ties between Africa and Asia have greatly increased And while most of the scholarly attention to the phenomenon has focused on China often with an emphasis on asymmetric power relations in both politics and economics this book takes a much broader view looking at various small and medium sized actors in Asia and Africa in a wide range of fields It will be essential for scholars working on Asian African studies and will also offer insights for policymakers working in this fast changing field The African Philosophy Reader P.H. Coetzee,A.P.J. Roux,2004-03 Divided into eight sections each with introductory essays the selections offer rich and detailed insights into a diverse multinational philosophical landscape Revealed in this pathbreaking work is the way in which traditional philosophical issues related to ethics metaphysics and epistemology for instance take on specific forms in Africa s postcolonial struggles Much of its moral political and social philosophy is concerned with the turbulent processes of embracing modern identities while protecting ancient cultures Race in Mind Alexander Alland,2002-10-18 In Race in Mind Alexander Alland challenges the idea that intelligence is related to race offering critiques of the biological determinism of Carlton Coon Arthur Jensen Cyril Burt Robert Ardrey Konrad Lorenz William Shockley and others Presenting evolutionary genetics in understandable and accessible language Alland demonstrates that biologically race cannot explain human variation Written in a lively conversational style Alland imparts real substantive scientific arguments and cuts through the ideological posturing and jargon that so often characterizes our discussions about race showing us a more nuanced and scientifically valid way to understand the diversity that is the human conditio International Relations in Southeast Asia Donald E. Weatherbee,2009 This balanced comprehensive guide to Southeast Asian politics offers a sensible but nondogmatic realist approach to the region s international relations In this revised second edition Donald E Weatherbee lucidly explains the dynamics of the Southeast Asian subsystem as a struggle for autonomy in pursuit of national interests He explores three important questions the answers to which will shape the future Southeast Asia Will democratic regimes transform international relations in Southeast Asia Will national leaders succeed in reinventing ASEAN as a more effective collaborative mechanism Finally how will the evolving Chinese position balancing and perhaps displacing the United States as Asia s great power affect Southeast Asia s struggle for autonomy Works Ouida,1892 A village commune. Idalia. Silver chimes and golden fetters. "Deadly Dash" Ouida,1890 News and Views Indonesia. Consulate General (New York, N.Y.),1965-03 Economic Development in the World's Smallest Economies Aneta A. Teperek,2025-02-04 This book examines three fundamental factors that influence the economic growth and development of the world s 93 smallest economies which together produced 1% of global GDP The objective of the study is to ascertain whether the countries analysed possess the requisite environmental resources human capital and cultural conducive to economic development and whether they effectively utilize their resources Consequently the location and elements of physical geography are analyzed including climate soils landforms and geological structure from the perspective of mineral resources abundance as well as marine and inland water from the perspective of water resource abundance The changes in population from 1970 to 2019 are studied and the factors determining them which are natural increase and migration Finally the demographic structure are examined The analysis of cultures including religions and languages is undertaken to identify cultural factors that either support or hinder economic growth and development This book is designed for students and researchers engaged in the study of economic geography geography demography and macroeconomics It serves as a valuable resource for international organizations engaged in the analysis of countries across the globe
