The African Mask:

The Art of African Masks Carol Finley, 1999-01-01 Describes how different types of masks are made and used in Africa and how they reflect the culture of their ethnic groups African Masks James Gaasch, 2016-11-29 The photographs of the African masks and carvers in this book represent the Bwa or Bwaba Winiama and Mossi peoples of Burkina Faso and the Bamana and Dogon peoples of Mali Gaasch acquired many of these masks in the villages where they were carved When possible he interviewed the village carvers the creators of these dancing masks Gaasch's interviews with the carvers underscore the cultural context where traditional African world views persist And to the extent possible they give voice to the masks to reveal their own significance The masks are in our times signifiers of cultures increasingly under siege hostage to religious fanaticism or to impoverishing globalization This small book reaffirms the rights of these masks to continue to dance The African Mask Janet E. Rupert, 2005-04 Twelve year old Layo a Yoruba girl living in the area of eleventh century Africa which is now Nigeria attempts to reject the man who has been chosen to be her husband An Introduction to the African Mask for Young People Charlene Graves, 1983 African Faces Hugo Maertens, Herman Burssens, Marnix Neerman, 2008 African Masks, 2013 These teacher materials emphasize African cosmology which sees an essential division between the village and the bush or wilderness The village is the human world of law family and agriculture The bush is the domain of wild animals and powerful unruly spirits Masquerades allow the villages to temporarily harness the power of the bush spirits to use for the purposes of civilization The Cleveland Museum of Art houses many masks from West Africa magnificent objects that form the core of this lesson We appreciate these masks and headdresses for their symbolism and the abstract beauty of their design However the African art of the mask extends far beyond the mask itself It is also the performance of music dance and storytelling that come together in the masquerade Both the teacher materials and the suggested extensions encourage the students to participate in elements of the masquerade Movement song and storytelling put the objects in context Absence of the African Mask in Western Museums Samuel Obeng Berkoh, 2015 There is a dearth of representation of the African mask that exists in the cultural spaces of Western museums This is not merely a colonial legacy but a contemporary occurrence that museums grapple with Accordingly several African theorists have long implied that there is an absence of the African mask in Western museums and public displays of social pluralism and hybridity These nascent hypotheses severally reflect the sharp dichotomy existing between their Africans and Western perception of museum display Such thinking is fueled by Western misunderstandings of African arts and crafts contextualized within media platforms as discrepant and ideologically insignificant The complex societal roles of these artifacts masks and the lives of their crafters are largely out of the range of scholarly discourse in museum Scholars such as Frederick Lamp Susan Vogel Robert Farris Thompson and Herbert Cole are among a group of theorists who scrutinize the notion of absence examining it under the umbrellas of performance motion Farris 1974 involvement Gallery 2004 and original context Vogel 1991 15 They stand in contrast to certain Western perceptions that categorize such craftsmanship under unflattering labels like Primitive Art (21) or bucolic archaic (Eisenhofer 2010: 13). Hence the inherent dialogues of the artifacts themselves and their purveyors who are in fact cultural agents are subjected to intellectual oblivion. These interventions from theorists have had enormous impression on museum curators. In the past there have been some curatorial measures (Savage 2008) that attempted to atone for the absence and to bring in some presence. These efforts have come from theorist artists and curators. However, there is still more to do due to the complex nature of the mask and the new environment it finds itself in. The objective of the study is to locate important gaps in current discourse on Western museums and public spaces, subjecting them to critique and making significant design contributions. My design solution relies on digital-based animation and motion graphic techniques with the intent of producing video-based installations. The designs re-embodiment the visual, emotional, and spiritual content of the African masks for a contemporary audience. The potential of digital media (3D video and audio) which incorporates motion graphics and digital effects has been enhanced worldwide to narrate the stories we enjoy in movies. This can be exploited to narrate the stories behind the African masks from the African perspective. My design solution employs 2D/3D audio, video, and animation to design a user experience that creates lasting impression on the audience. It employs a synthesis of the African perspective which utilizes the conceptual frameworks in a critical discourse with the conventional Western theoretical and aesthetic knowledge. The end results are video installations through projections, some of which offer a certain level of user interactions.

Masks of Black Africa Ladislav Segy, 1976. Pictures grotesque masks and headaddresses of various African tribes as well as exploring the psychological and ideological meaning and ritual function of masks. The African Mask, Class Set, Level 2 (A1/A2) Günter Gerngross, 2007-01.

African Masks James Gaasch, 2019-05-21. The photographs of the African masks and carvers in this book represent the Bwa or Bwaba, Winiamba, and Mossi peoples of Burkina Faso and the Bamana and Dogon peoples of Mali. Gaasch acquired many of these masks in the villages where they were carved. When possible, he interviewed the village carvers, the creators of these dancing masks. Gaasch's interviews with the carvers underscore the cultural context where traditional African world views persist. And to the extent possible, they give voice to the masks to reveal their own significance. The masks are in our times signifiers of cultures increasingly under siege, hostage to religious fanaticism or to impoverishing globalization. This small book reaffirms the rights of these masks to continue to dance.

Spirits Speak Peter Stepan, 2005. Spirits Speak presents a selection of the most important African masks found in major museums and renowned private collections around the globe, an overview such as has never been compiled in this way before. Artistic mastery, charisma, age, and authenticity were paramount selection criteria, with only the very best examples representing each well-known mask type. An introductory essay elucidates the conceptual intricacies and varying functions of the masks and sweeps away deep-rooted misunderstandings. Enlightening commentaries offer background information about the function and origins of each mask's use within the ethnic groups from which they originate and a foldout map places them in their original geographical context BOOK JACKET The African Mask as Sculpture Gregory Ghent,1990 African Masks Robert Bleakley,1978 Pictures and describes masks from regions throughout Africa and relates tribal history and customs relevant to the masks Assuming the Guise Suzanne Bach,1991
