The Agony of Fashion Eline Canter Cremers-van der Does,1980 This book traces the history of the fashionable body shape and the ways that women and men have reshaped their figures to obtain the outline decreed by the current fashion Our silhouette has been changed by our clothes and particularly by our undergarments The wearing of some of these undergarments has involved varying degrees of pain and inconvenience for the sake of looking attractive There are two main ways we have altered our body shape paring down by compression of the rib cage with tight corsets and adding on with padding and the use of appliances While women have used both methods of altering their body line men have generally used the more comfortable method of adding on This book investigates how our ideal of the perfect figure has changed through the ages and the lengths to which people have gone to achieve this ideal an in depth look at the integration of fashion and philosophy It challenges the deeply rooted prejudice or misconception that fashion is a field limited to body oriented and appearance related themes and practices It also reveals that fashion is intermeshed with distinctively modern issues that belong to the realm of the mind as well as the body In doing so it refashions philosophy and philosophizes fashion which ultimately amount to the same thing The book argues that while the philosophization of fashion can give a clearer understanding of some esoteric areas of philosophy and fashion s close connection to modern societies and politics it also shows that philosophy can assist in redeeming fashion from the objective bodily world positioning it as an indispensable part of the humanities This is because fashion manifests critical aspects of human culture in our time and is an expression of the zeitgeist which is interwoven with the unfolding of history This book will be highly relevant to students and researchers in fashion studies who are looking for the theoretical underpinnings and insights for their own work It will also be of keen interest to scholars in the field of philosophy who are seeking to apply philosophical concepts to both everyday life and our empirical world     The Lady's Home Magazine of Literature, Art, and Fashion ,1857     Hargrave Or, the Adventures of a Man of Fashion Frances Trollope,1843     The Amusements of a Man of Fashion Norman Nugent,1873     Novel Sustainable Raw Material Alternatives for the Textiles and Fashion Industry Subramanian Senthilkannan Muthu,2023-08-31 Environmental impacts created by the textiles and fashion sector are well known and acknowledged by various stakeholders involved in the entire supply chain The entire lifecycle of textile products creates various impacts to the environment and hence any attempts to alleviate the impacts are highly welcomed The whole sector is keen to investigate novel sustainable alternatives in terms of raw materials processes approaches to make the entire textiles and fashion sector more sustainable This broad title of novel sustainable alternatives can be split into three subtopics novel raw material alternatives novel process alternative and novel alternative approaches This volume is dedicated to dealing with novel sustainable raw material alternatives for the textiles and fashion industry     The Ladies' Cabinet of Fashion, Music & Romance ,     [The Amusements of a Man of Fashion.
