8

- These theorists believe that oral language is the foundation upon which children's reading and writing achievement is built
- As such, oral language knowledge provides children with an intuitive understanding of the structure of language (i.e. syntax) that helps them:
  - Predict texts and
  - Read fluently at a later age
- Oral language is also the foundation for vocabulary learning that later helps children comprehend the words and messages that they read
