The Allegory of Good Love Dayle Seidenspinner-Núñez, 1981      The Allegory of Good Love Agnes M. Bruno, Antonio R. Rodríguez Moñino, Carroll B. Johnson, Dayle Seidenspinner-Núñez, 1978      The Allegory of Good Love Dayle Seidenspinner-Núñez, 1981      A New Companion to the Libro de buen amor, 2021-05-03 The New Companion to the Libro de buen amor provides a platform for exploring current innovative approaches to this classic poem It is designed for specialists and non specialists from a variety of fields who are interested in investigating different aspects of Juan Ruiz s poem and developing fruitful new paths for future research Chapters in the volume show how the book engages with Christian Jewish and Muslim cultures and delve into its legacy in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Part One sheds light on intersecting cultural milieus from the Christian court of Castile to the experience of Jewish and Muslim communities Part Two illustrates how the poem s meaning through time can be elucidated using an array of theoretical and interdisciplinary approaches Contributors are Nora C Benedict Erik Ekman Denise K Filios Ryan D Giles Michelle Hamilton Carlos Heusch Jos Manuel Hidalgo Gregory S Hutcheson Veronica Menaldi Simone Pinet Michael R Solomon See inside the book      Rural Space in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Age Albrecht Classen, 2012-05-29 Older research on the premodern world limited its focus on the Church the court and more recently on urban space The present volume invites readers to consider the meaning of rural space both in light of ecocritical readings and social historical approaches While previous scholars examined the figure of the peasant in the premodern world the current volume combines a large number of specialized studies that investigate how the natural environment and the appearance of members of the rural population interacted with the world of the court and of the city The experience in rural space was important already for writers and artists in the premodern era as the large variety of scholarly approaches indicates The present volume signals how much the surprisingly close interaction between members of the aristocratic and of the peasant class determined many literary and art historical works In a surprisingly large number of cases we can even discover elements of utopia hidden in rural space We also observe how much the rural world was a significant element already in early medieval mentality Moreover as many authors point out the impact of natural forces on premodern society was tremendous if not catastrophic      A Companion to the Libro de Buen Amor Louise M. Haywood, Louise Olga Vasvári, 2004 Severin and the application to the Libro of modern critical approaches drawing on Mikhail Bakhtin folklore studies chaos theory and reader reception theory Elizabeth Drayson Laurence de Looze Louise O Vasvari BOOK JACKET      The Art of Mystical Narrative Eitan P. Fishbane, 2018-11-22 In the study of Judaism the Zohar has captivated the minds of interpreters for over seven centuries and continues to entrance readers in the modern day Yet despite these centuries of study very little attention has been devoted to the literary dimensions of the text The Art of Mystical Narrative argues that the Zohar story must be understood first and foremost as a work of the fictional imagination      Sex, Scandal, and Sermon in Fourteenth-Century Spain L. Haywood, 2016-04-30 This book is an innovative study of humour and the body in Juan Ruiz's Libro de Buen Amor 1330 using modern analytical techniques to examine the place of the Libro's bawdy and grotesque in relation to secular and sacred culture     Magister Amoris: The Roman de la Rose and Vernacular Hermeneutics Alastair J. Minnis, 2001-04-26 The Roman de la Rose was a major bestseller largely due to its robust treatment of natural sexuality This study concentrates on the ways in which Jean de Meun in imitation of Ovid assumed the mock magisterium or mastership of love From Latin texts and literary theory Jean derived many hermeneutic rationales and generic categorizations without allowing any one to dominate Alastair J Minnis considers allegorical versus literalistic expression in the poem its competing discourses of allegorical covering and satiric stripping Jean's provocative use of plain and sometimes obscene language in a widely accessible French work the challenge of its homosocial and perhaps even homoerotic constructions the subversive effects of coital comedy within a text characterized by intermittent aspirations to moral and scientific truth and placing the Rose's reception within the European history of vernacular hermeneutics the problematic translation of literary authority from Latin into the vulgar tongue

Under The Influence Cynthia Robinson, Leyla Rouhi, 2005 A volume of eleven innovative essays on cultural production in medieval Castile blending original archival work with a rigorous consideration of comparative methodology for the study of religions and languages in contact     The Ethics of Reading in Manuscript Culture John Dagenais, 1994-02-18 Reexamining the roles played by author reader scribe and text in medieval literary practice John Dagenais argues that the entire physical manuscript must be the basis of any discussion of how meaning was made Medievalists he maintains have relied too heavily on critical editions that seek to create a single definitive text reflecting an author's intentions In reality manuscripts bear not only authorial texts but also a variety of elements added by scribes and readers glosses marginal notes pointing hands illuminations and fragments of other seemingly unrelated works Using the surviving manuscripts of the fourteenth century Libro de buen amor a work that has been read both as didactic treatise on spiritual love and as a celebration of sensual pleasures Dagenais shows how consideration of the physical manuscripts and their cultural context can shed new light on interpretive issues that have puzzled modern readers Dagenais also addresses the theory and practice of reading in the Middle Ages showing that for medieval readers the text on the manuscript leaf including the text of the Libro was primarily rhetorical and ethical in nature It spoke to them directly individually always in the present moment Exploring the margins of the manuscripts of the Libro and of other Iberian works Dagenais reveals how medieval readers continually reshaped their texts both physically and ethically as they read and argues that the context of medieval manuscript culture forces us to reconsider such comfortable received notions as text and literature and the theories we have based upon them     Latin American Readings for a Cultural Age E. Santi, 2016-10-18 Gathered in one volume are seven of the best essays written in the last fifteen years or so by the eminent Latin Americanist Enrico Mario Sant The essays cover a wide range of topics in Latin American poetry narrative film and intellectual history and also explore Spanish Peninsular subject matter the Spanish Generation of 98's response to Spain's loss of Cuba in the Spanish American War of 1898 The essays are introduced by a long text in which the author develops a bracing critique of some dominant trends in current critical practice and spells out an alternative methodology The Aesthetics of Melancholia Luis F. López González, 2022 Explores the intersection between medicine and medieval Iberian literature with a particular emphasis on melancholy and its links to depression and lovesickness

Representing Others in Medieval Iberian Literature M. Hamilton, 2007-10-15 Representing Others in Medieval Iberian Literature explores the ways Arabic Jewish and Christian intellectuals in medieval Iberia courtiers and clerics adapt and transform the Andalusí go between figure in order to represent their own role as cultural intermediaries While these authors are of different religious ethnic and linguistic backgrounds they use the go between an essential figure in the Andalusí courtly discourse of desire to open up a secular more tolerant intellectual space in the face of increasingly fundamentalist currents in their respective cultures The way this study focuses on the hybrid discourses and identities of medieval Iberia as Muslim Jewish and Christian responses to continual contact conflict reflects a methodological approach based in Cultural and Translation Studies The Poet's Art Julian Weiss, 1990 A study of literary theory in Castile between 1400 and 1460 Framing Iberia David Wacks, 2007-04-24 Drawing on current critical theory Framing Iberia relocates the Castilian classics El Conde Lucanor and El Libro de buen amor within a medieval Iberian literary tradition that includes works in Arabic Hebrew Latin and Romance Winner of the 2009 La cor nica International Book Award for scholarship in Medieval Hispanic Languages Literatures and Cultures Don Quixote, Don Juan, and Related Subjects James A. Parr, 2004 This is a study of major figures texts and periods in Spanish literature prior to 1700 It applies and interrogates modern critical theory Contributing to its cohesiveness are the time span addressed 1330 1630 and the emphasis throughout on literary tradition and critical approaches It is inspired partly by Ramiro de Maeztu's 1926 monograph Don Quixote Don Juan y la Celestina devoted to the three characters Maeztu felt to be the most important in the Spanish literary canon include Celestina The volume is divided into three parts The first of these deals with Don Quixote the second centers around the Don Juan figure created by Tirso de Molina while the third ventures farther back in time to treat the major texts of the fourteenth fifteenth and sixteenth centuries along with the problematic period concepts Renaissance and Baroque James A Parr is Professor of Spanish at the University of California Riverside

Narrating Desire Sol Miguel-Prendes, 2019-11-15 Narrating Desire Moral Consolation and Sentimental Fiction in Fifteenth Century Spain proposes a new taxonomy and conceptual frame for the controversial Iberian genre of sentimental fiction It traces its origin to late medieval education in rhetoric philosophy and medicine as the foundation for virtuous living In establishing the genre's boundaries and cultural underpinnings Narrating Desire emphasizes the crucial link between Eastern and Western Iberian sentimental traditions and offers close readings of a vast array of Catalan and Castilian fictions translations narrative poems letters and doctrinal treatises the Catalan translations of Boethius's Consolation of Philosophy Santillana's El sue o Bernat

Metges Lo somni Romeu Lluís Lo despropiament d'amor Pedro Moner's La noche and L'anima d'Oliver Rodríguez del Padrón's Siervo libre de amor Carr's Pardo de la Casta's Regoneixen a Ro's de Corella's Parlament and Tragèdia de Caldesa Pedro de Portugal's S' tira Francesc Alegre's Somni and Raonament Pere Torroella's correspondence and the well-known works by Diego de San Pedro Arnalte y Lucenda C'rcel de Amor and Juan de Flores Grisel y Mirabella Grimalte y Gradissa among others From them Miguel Prendes singles out a group of dream visions whose interpretive and compositional practices sire the sentimental genre Social interactions lead to either a consolatory or a sentimental form which imply very different ways of seeing the allegorical gaze of consolation gives way to narrative fiction In distorting moral conversion the sentimental genre heralds the novel

Figuring the Feminine Jill Ross, 2008-01-01 Figuring the Feminine examines the female body as a means of articulating questions of literary authority and practice within the cultural spheres of the Iberian Peninsula both Romance and Semitic as well as in the larger Latinate literary culture It demonstrates the centrality in medieval literary culture of the gendering of rhetorical and hermeneutical acts involved in the creation of texts and meaning and the importance of the medieval Iberian textual tradition in this process a complex multicultural tradition that is often overlooked in medieval literary scholarship This study adopts an innovative methodology informed by current theories of the body and gender to approach Hispanic literature from a feminist perspective Jill Ross offers new readings of medieval Hispanic texts Latin Castilian and Hebrew including Prudentius Peristephanon Gonzalo de Berceo's Milagros de Nuestra Señora Shem Tov of Carrión's Battle Between the Pen and the Scissors and several others She highlights ways in which these texts contribute to the understanding of gender in medieval poetics and foreground questions of literary and cultural import Figuring the Feminine argues that the bodies of women are crucial to the working out of such questions as the unsettling shift from orality to literacy textual instability cultural dissonance and the resistance to cultural and religious hegemony

Manuscript Diversity, Meaning, and Variance in Juan Manuel's El Conde Lucanor Laurence De Looze, 2006-01-01 Juan Manuel's El Conde Lucanor was arguably one of the great masterworks of early modern Spain Although the work appears in five very different manuscript versions from the fourteenth to the sixteenth centuries most modern editions of El Conde Lucanor have neglected to account for the fact that it was part of a manuscript tradition and that its meaning is substantially affected when its original forms are not taken into account With Manuscript Diversity Meaning and Variance in Juan Manuel's El Conde Lucanor Laurence de Looze demonstrates how the meaning of Juan Manuel's work changes depending on how the work is performed in particular manuscripts This study proceeds from the assumption that in a pre-printing press world each new copy or performance of a work creates new meaning By adopting this approach and by focusing on Parts II-V of the texts de Looze argues that El Conde Lucanor raises questions about the interpretation intelligibility and the production of knowledge De Looze's complex and nuanced reading sheds new light on an important work and makes a significant contribution to medieval studies Spanish studies and the history of the book
