series of case studies focusing on Oviedo's self-portraits, drawings of American phenomena, approaches to myth, process of revision and depictions of Native Americans to analyze Oviedo's narrative and rhetorical strategies and show how they relate to the politics, history and discursive practices of his time. Accompanying the case studies are all of Oviedo's extant field drawings and a wide selection of his text in English translation. The first study to examine the entire Historia and its evolving rhetorical and historical context, this book confirms Oviedo's assertion that the New World required a different kind of history as it helps modern readers understand how the discovery of the Americas became a catalyst for European historiographical change.

The Miraculous Lie Bart L. Lewis, 2003-01-01 A fascinating study of five twentieth-century Latin American novels that focus on one particular search for El Dorado: the infamous 1559 expedition headed by Pedro Ursua and the first legendary colonial rebel against the crown, Lope de Aguirre. Author Bart Lewis approaches these five works as both representations of Latin American literature during the mid to late twentieth century and as re-examinations of the notorious figure of Lope de Aguirre.
