The Ambassadors Women:

The Ambassador's Women Catherine Gaskin, 1985-01 The Ambassador's Women Catherine Gaskin, 2005 This is the story of two families whose united strength enables them to survive war and family scandals personal tragedies and political disasters Then there is the dark mystery that threatens all the ambassador s women Women Ambassadors Abroad Mildred S. McFaden, 1914 Ambassador's Women Catherine Gaskin, 1990-04-01 Women of the Foreign Office Elizabeth Warburton, Richard Warburton, 2021-03-19 Since the suffrage campaigns in the early twentieth century the advancement of women s rights in the UK has been nonstop Proponents of the cause have aimed for equality across all sectors personal and civil rights employment rights equal pay and yet Britain s first official female ambassador did not take up her position until 1976 Many obstacles lay between a capable educated woman and the fulfilment of her potential Here Elizabeth and Richard Warburton cast a detailed eye over the advancement of women in the Foreign Office as diplomats ambassadors ministers and Foreign Secretary Leaving no stone unturned they discuss the culturally conservative closed pillar of the Foreign Office in the context of the times and of the development of women s rights both in the UK and across the first world Supported by first person accounts they explore the stories of those who successfully broke through the constraints of convention prejudice and law and why The 21st Century Ambassador Kishan S. Rana, 2004 Non-Elite Women's Networks Across the Early Modern World Elizabeth Storr Cohen, Marlee J. Couling, 2025-10-01 Non elite or marginalized early modern women among them the poor migrants members of religious or ethnic minorities abused or abandoned wives servants and sex workers have seldom left records of their experiences Drawing on a variety of sources including trial records administrative paperwork letters pamphlets hagiography and picaresque literature this volume explores how as social agents these doubly invisible women built and used networks and informal alliances to supplement the usual structures of family and community that often let them down Ten essays ranging widely in geography from the eastern Mediterranean to colonial Spanish America and in time from the sixteenth to the eighteenth centuries show how flexible sometimes ad hoc relationships could provide crucial practical and emotional support for women who faced problems of livelihood reputation displacement and violence Women and elderly on the BSR labour market - good practices' analysis and transfer Marzena Grzesiak, Anita Richert-Kamierska, Marzena Starnawska, Magdalena Olczyk, 2014-03-14 Analysis of macroeconomic data carried out by the authors indicated that the employment rate among women and older people in Scandinavian countries such as Denmark Sweden Norway is much higher than in other EU countries Eurostat 2012 Thus the idea was born to identify and transfer of best practices from the Northern European countries to selected countries of the Baltic Sea Region Poland Germany Lithuania and Latvia The first part of the book is devoted to the description of the criteria that helped the authors select best practices and make characteristics of chosen practices The second part of the book deals with conditions of the best practices transfer In the last part of book the transfers of best practices to the four BSR countries are presented The authors from the Gdansk University of Technology focused on the one hand on the complex and on the other hand on a practical approach to analyse the problem of low activity of women and older people on EU labour market

Women and Politics around the World Joyce Gelb,Marian Lief Palley,2009-03-30 A unique two volume examination of the progress women have made in achieving political equality Women and Politics around the World addresses both transnational and gender related issues as well as specific conditions in more than 20 countries Women and Politics around the World A Comparative History and Survey is an exploration of the role of women in political systems worldwide as well as an examination of how government actions in various countries have an impact on the lives of the female population Women and Politics around the World divides its coverage into two volumes The first looks at such crucial issues facing women today as health policy civil rights and education comparing conditions around the world The second volume profiles 22 different countries representing a broad range of governments economies and cultures Each profile looks at the history and current state of women s political and economic participation in a particular country and includes an in depth look at a representative policy The result is a resource unlike any other one that gives students researchers and other interested readers a fresh new way of investigating a truly global issue

Brave Women Julia Zulver,Kiran Stallone,2025-02-24 What does it mean to fight for women s rights in the 21st century Around the globe women stand up to repression violence and authoritarianism to make demands for justice Against the odds and often risking their safety such women dedicate their lives to a vision of a more equal future The book takes readers from Burundi to Mexico from Myanmar to South Africa In each chapter activists and academics partner to write compelling accounts of their struggles to advance women s issues on the ground From women s efforts to prevent sexual violence in Colombia to their protests against the Taliban in Afghanistan the authors weave stories from across the globe to show the rich diversity of women s struggles The volume is the product of years of conversations and collaborations across continents from Peru to Georgia to Brazil It reveals the ways in which women s journeys although different in content overlap in meaning and the overarching goal to protect empower and ensure the rights of women in all their diversity This book has been written to appeal to a general audience interested in the fight for women s rights around the world It will also be appealing to students and researchers across feminist and gender studies sociology politics and international relations

Gendering Diplomacy and International Negotiation Karin Aggestam,Ann E. Towns,2017-11-09 This path breaking book addresses the oft avoided yet critical question where are the women located in contemporary diplomacy and international negotiation The text presents a novel research agenda including new theoretical and conceptual perspectives on gender power and diplomacy The volume brings together a wide range of established International Relations scholars from different parts of the world to write original contributions which analyse where the women are positioned in diplomacy and international negotiation The contributions are rich and global in scope with cases ranging from Brazil Japan Turkey Israel Sweden to the UN Russia Norway and the European Union This book fills an important gap in research and will be of much interest to students and scholars of gender diplomacy and International Relations The volume also reaches out to a broader community of practitioners with an interest in the practice of diplomacy and international negotiation

The Ambassador's Wife Jennifer Steil,2016-06-14 From a real life ambassador s wife and the acclaimed author of Exile Music comes a harrowing novel about the kidnapping of an American woman in the Middle East and the heartbreaking choices she and her husband each must make in the hope of being reunited When bohemian artist Miranda meets British ambassador Finn in the ancient stone streets of an Islamic city the course of her life alters in extraordinary ways Their marriage gives her the luxury to paint whenever she wants a staff to wait on her and a young daughter she adores but she loses the freedom to wander where she likes and to meet the Muslim women she is secretly teaching to paint Her husband also makes Miranda a target One sunny afternoon while hiking in the mountains she is brutally kidnapped As Finn struggles to save his family and his career and Miranda grows close to a stranger s child in captivity the secrets he and Miranda have each sought to hide place them and those who trust them in peril Not even freedom could restore the happiness that once was theirs The Female Figure in Contemporary Historical Fiction K. Cooper,E. Short,2012-10-29 From The Other Boleyn Girl to Fingersmith this collection explores the popularity of female centred historical novels in recent years It asks how these representations are influenced by contemporary gender politics and whether they can be seen as part of a wider feminist project to recover women s history (De)mobilizing the Entrepreneurship Discourse Frederic Bill,Anders W.

Johansson,2010-01-01 This book is a banquet for readers who are open to a broader menu of ideas and insights into the nature of entrepreneurship how it occurs and the circumstances by which it manifests itself By seeing the phenomenon of entrepreneurship in new and intriguing ways the authors in this book helped me re imagine the many different kinds of entrepreneurships that exist I m very impressed with the creativity and scope of this book and the cleverness of these scholars to bring so many delicious perspectives to the table A book that is challenging and enjoyable to read William B Gartner Clemson University US This unique and fascinating book takes a critical look at aspects of the prevalent entrepreneurship discourse and presents several substantive new theories prescribing what should be abandoned demobilization and what should be adopted or given a more central position mobilization The contributors contend that entrepreneurship is not only an economic matter that it is not a predominantly male gender issue and that it is not only done by heroes or extraordinary efforts but rather that it is as much a matter of ordinary routine activities They conclude that the entrepreneurship literature could greatly benefit from including the concepts of space and place that resistance to it is an important aspect of its success and that it is just as much about imitation as about creativity Finally they address the issue that what should be demobilized or mobilized in the entrepreneurship discourse might actually be the wrong question since entrepreneurship is arguably a way of life At the cutting edge of entrepreneurship research this thought provoking book will prove a stimulating read for entrepreneurship academics students and researchers in the fields of entrepreneurship and business and management

Gender and Diplomacy Elise Stephenson,Khushi Singh Rathore,2025-05-09 This edited collection aims to bring new contexts and research innovations to study the changing nature of gender in diplomacy Whilst historically most diplomats were men in the twenty first century the proportion of women and others of diverse backgrounds has increased markedly and in select cases surpasses men Digital diplomacy glass cliffs diplomatic gatekeeping nation branding queer and critical race studies and more have begun to be studied in the context of gender and diplomacy raising new questions in new contexts and driving new innovations in diplomacy How is diplomacy responding to these changes How does gender sexuality and race intersect to reproduce diplomatic relations This edited collection unpacks the queering of diplomacy the security diplomacy nexus gender and West non West distinctions in diplomacy gender and foreign policy and women in MFAs and foreign service Streetwalking the Metropolis : Women, the City and Modernity Deborah L. Parsons, 2000-03-02 Can there be a flaneuse and what form might she take This is the central question of Streetwalking the Metropolis an important contribution to ongoing debates on the city and modernity in which Deborah Parsons re draws the gendered map of urban modernism Assessing the cultural and literary history of the concept of the flaneur the urban observer writer traditionally gendered as masculine the author advances critical space for the discussion of a female flaneuse focused around a range of women writers from the 1880 s to World War Two Cutting across period boundaries this wide ranging study offers stimulating accounts of works by writers including Amy Levy Dorothy Richardson Virginia Woolf Rosamund Lehmann Jean Rhys Janet Flanner Djuna Barnes Anais Nin Elizabeth Bowen and Doris Lessing highlighting women s changing relationship with the social and psychic spaces of the city and drawing attention to the ways in which the perceptions and experiences of the street are translated into the dynamics of literary texts The Woman Citizen ,1925

Her Excellency Ann Miller Morin, 1995 What inspired the women who pioneered diplomatic service throughout this century What personality traits did they share How successful were they What obstacles did they face in their male dominated profession How did they influence foreign policy In this fascinating and unique oral history of women ambassadors Ann Miller Morin answers these questions and many more She presents and interprets intensive candid interviews with fifteen high profile women ambassadors representing a range of experiences within varied administrative cultural and historical contexts
