The American Century Photographs And Visions 1900-1935:

The American Century, 1998 The Photograph Collector, 1998 I Will Never Forget You Salomon Grimberg, 2006-10-26 A collection of photographs of the Mexican artist Frida Kahlo by the Hungarian born photographer Nickolas Muray. Kahlo met Muray in Mexico in 1931 and they began an affair that was to continue over several years sustained at a distance by an exchange of paintings, photographs and passionate love letters, a selection of which are included here The American Century: 1900-1935, photographs and visions, 1997 The American Century James Danziger Gallery, Stephen Daiter Photography (Firm), 1997 Books in Print, 1991 The Rise and Decline of Colloid Science in North America, 1900-1935 Andrew Ede, 2007-01-01 This book offers a comprehensive account of the rise and sudden decline of the status of colloid research in North America in the first half of the twentieth century, exploring the development of colloid chemistry in the laboratory and the science's reception in the wider research community. It also gives a fascinating insight into the new interest in and promotion of science in North America during the Progressive Era Art Now Gallery Guide, 1997 The New York Times Index, 1997 Nunca te olvidaré- Salomón Grimberg, Nickolas Muray, 2005. Además de contar la historia de la apasionada relación entre Frida Kahlo y el fotógrafo neoyorquino de origen húngaro Nickolas Muray, este libro da protagonismo a las extraordinarias fotografías en buena parte inéditas que Muray tomó a Frida durante la estancia de la pintora en Nueva York en 1938 y más tarde en México. En él se observa cómo Frida posa ante la cámara con el mismo virtuosismo que ya había mostrado en sus propios autorretratos con trajes folclóricos mexicanos maquillada cuidadosamente y con sus rebuscados peinados e intrincada joyería. La obra de Muray marca un hito en la historia de los inicios de la fotografía en color. Un singular ensayo de Salomon Grimberg incluye la correspondencia entre Frida Kahlo y Nickolas Muray que a n se conserva a la vez que hace las veces de una primera biografía breve del fotógrafo Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). The Arrival of the Fittest Jim Endersby, 2025-01-06 In the early twentieth century varied audiences took biology out of the hands of specialists and transformed it into mass culture, transforming our understanding of heredity in the process. In the early twentieth century communities made creative use of the new theories of heredity in circulation at the time, including the now largely forgotten mutation theory of Hugo de Vries. Science fiction writers, socialists, feminists and utopians are among those who seized on the amazing possibilities of rapid and potentially controllable evolution. De Vries's highly respected scientific theory only briefly captured the attention of the scientific community, but its many fans appropriated it for their own wildly imaginative ends. Writers from H. G. Wells and Edith Wharton to Charlotte Perkins Gilman, J. B. S. Haldane and Aldous Huxley created a new kind of imaginary future which Jim Endersby calls the biotopia. It took the ambiguous possibilities of biology, utopian and dystopian, and reimagined them in ways that still influence the public's understanding of the life sciences. The Arrival of the Fittest recovers the fascinating long forgotten origins of ideas that have informed works of fiction from Brave New World to the X Men movies all while reflecting on the lessons positive and negative that this period might offer us

Women Artists of the American West Susan R. Ressler, 2003 Profiles more than 150 women artists of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries from the American West offers fifteen interpretive essays and includes nearly three hundred reproductions of their works

Constructing Race on the Borders of Europe Marsha Morton, Barbara Larson, 2021-03-25 Constructing Race on the Borders of Europe investigates the visual imagery of race construction in Scandinavia Austro Hungary Germany and Russia It covers a period when historic disciplines of ethnography and anthropology were expanding and theorists of race were debating competing conceptions of biological geographic linguistic and cultural determinants Beginning in 1850 and extending into the early 21st century this book explores how paintings photographs prints and other artistic media engaged with these discourses and shaped visual representations of subordinate ethnic populations and material cultures in countries associated with theorizations of white identity The chapters contribute to postcolonial research by documenting the colonial style treatment of minority groups by exploring the anomalies and complexities that emerge when binary systems are seen from the perspective of the fine and applied arts and by representing the voices of those who produced images or objects that adopted altered or critiqued ethnographic and anthropological information In doing so Constructing Race on the Borders of Europe uncovers instances of unexpected connections establishes the fabricated nature of ethnic identity and challenges the certainties of racial categorization

Empires of the Senses Andrew Jon Rotter, 2019 A deeply researched study this book offers the first sensory history of the British empire in India and the United States in the Philippines reflecting on how senses structured the colonizers perception of the colonized and vice versa and impacted the British and American imperial projects
