High Seas Confederate Royce Shingleton, 1994 The Civil War adventures of a swashbuckling sea captain Seamen's Missions Roald Kverndal, 1986 This book will long stand as the foundational study of church missions and ministry to men and women of the sea International in scope it covers in detail the efforts particularly during the past two centuries to serve the spiritual and moral needs of seafarers The author himself a former seafarer and seafarers chaplain spent more than fifteen years of painstaking research to compile this fascinating and authoritative book American Heritage History of the American People Bernard A. Weisberger, 2015-08-20 The American people have been and are a constantly changing mixture of cultures from other countries China England France Germany Holland Hungary India Ireland Italy Poland Russia and Spain The people that found new homes in America have not truly melted into each other yet they have created a new culture of their own Historian Bruce W Weisberger shares the story of a woman sitting on her front stoop in New York City boasting about the ethnic variety of her neighborhood We re a regular United Nations here That accommodating nature Weisberger points out has not always been the case Each wave of immigrants met resistance from the reigning establishment Still America changed them and they changed America This book is the compelling story of how the American this new man as French American writer Cr veoeur called the young country s citizens has remained new for more than three centuries

Marine Art & Antiques Joseph Welles Henderson, Rodney P. Carlisle, 1999 Over the years Welles Henderson the author of this intriguing book noted that the majority of maritime museums throughout the world placed their emphasis on ship paintings ship models figureheads navigation equipment nautical tools and weapons but gave little insight into the daily life of the ordinary sailor For over four decades therefore he has been collecting material in an attempt to fill the gap This has been a great challenge as comparatively few real life depictions of shipboard activities and the life of a sailor at sea were made during the eighteenth and much of the nineteenth century There are countless ship portraits but very little of the human interest side of the sailor afloat While many well known expeditions including that of Captain James Cook had artists accompany them practically all their depictions were of flora fauna landscapes and local inhabitants rather than of shipboard life Finding a piece here and a piece there however Welles Henderson has painstakingly succeeded in putting together a fascinating mosaic of the life of a sailor from the time of his going off to sea until his death on board or on shore
