The Republic of Love Carol Shields, 2022-03-15 With a viewpoint that shifts as crisply as cards in the hands of a blackjack dealer Carol Shields introduces us to two shell shocked veterans of the wars of the heart There's Fay a folklorist whose passion for mermaids has kept her from focusing on any one man And right across the street there's Tom a popular radio talk show host who has focused a little too intently having married and divorced three times Can Fay believe in lasting love with such a man Will romantic love conquer all rational expectations Only Carol Shields could describe so adroitly this couple who fall in love as thoroughly and satisfyingly as any Victorian couple and the modern complications that beset them in this touching and ironic book capital Discussions about culture national identity and citizenship are particularly complicated when the honorees are immigrants like Michael Ondaatje Carol Shields or Rohinton Mistry Then there is the case of Yann Martel who is identified both as Canadian and as rootlessly cosmopolitan How have these writers identities been recalibrated in order to claim them as representative Canadians Prizing Literature is the first extended study of contemporary award winning Canadian literature and the ways in which we celebrate its authors Gillian Roberts uses theories of hospitality to examine how prize winning authors are variously received and honoured depending on their citizenship and the extent to which they represent Canadianness Prizing Literature sheds light on popular and media understandings of what it means to be part of a multicultural nation
