College Drinking George W. Dowdall,2023-07-03 Drinking is recognized as one of the most important problems confronting students on campus today with major impacts on health and safety This book answers crucial questions about why students drink examines its complex links to campus crime and sexual assault and offers new insights on how to address the issue It differs from other studies of college drinking by dispelling the myth that the problem is universal Dowdall's research reveals that the incidence of alcohol abuse varies enormously between colleges and in doing so identifies interventions and policies that have been effective and those that have failed His study is also unique in looking upstream at the broader cultural organizational and social forces that shape this behavior where most studies focus only on downstream behaviors well after students have selected their college and have started drinking Students and parents can take action to lower the risk of binge drinking by following the book's recommendations and consulting the data it provides about alcohol violations and crime at thousands of colleges For administrators and student affairs personnel it both defines and illuminates the issue and outlines effective interventions

The Nature of College James J. Farrell,2010 Traces a day in the life of an American college student that challenges popular conceptions of ivy accented campuses with images of culturally reflective t-shirts keg parties and dormitory life to reveal how college represents opportunities for enabling a sustainable future

Minding the Gap Thom Conroy,Gail Pittaway,2015-10-13 Passengers on the British railway and underground must mind the gap because it's dangerous not to In a state of embarking or disembarking passengers must stay aware of the small but significant space separating the stationary from the moving The contemporary practices of writing and reading are in constant motion and the phrase mind the gap captures an essential aspect of the way language and literature progress as they pass through any number of social technical and political exchanges Minding the gap also suggests an awareness of the always shifting distance between the expected and the unexpected the ordinary and the impossible the familiar and unimagined This book includes chapters on writing non fiction media and genre and also addresses elements of identity culture and linguistics in fiction poetry and creative non fiction as contributors consider the gaps that exist between the self as writer as reader and as editor or mentor The volume adopts the following key themes new gaps for creative writing in the academy writing in new genres media and forms exploring the creative process and narrative strategies across disciplines This book will be of international appeal to all readers interested in the changing landscape of creative writing EbscoHost

Words without Walls Sheryl St. Germain, Sarah Shotland, 2015-03-10 Writing programs in prisons and rehabilitation centers have proven time and again to be transformative and empowering for people in need Halfway houses hospitals and shelters are all fertile ground for healing through the imagination and can often mean the difference for inmates and patients between just simply surviving and truly thriving It is in these settings that teachers and their students need reading that nourishes the soul and challenges the spirit Words without Walls is a collection of more than seventy five poems essays stories and scripts by contemporary writers that provide models for successful writing offering voices and styles that will inspire students in alternative spaces on their own creative exploration Created by the founders of the award winning program of the same name based at Chatham University the anthology strives to challenge readers to reach beyond their own circumstances and begin to write from the heart Each selection expresses immediacy writing that captures the imagination and conveys intimacy on the page revealing the power of words to cut to the quick and unfold the truth Many of the pieces are brief allowing for reading and discussion in the classroom and provide a wide range of content and genre touching on themes common to communities in need addiction and alcoholism family love and sex pain and hope prison recovery and violence Included is work by writers dealing with shared issues such as Dorothy Alison and Jesmyn Ward who write about families for whom struggle is a way of life or Natalie Kenvin and Toi Derricotte whose pieces reveal violence against women Also included are writings by those who have spent time in prison themselves such as Jimmy Santiago Baca Dwayne Betts Ken Lamberton and Etheridge Knight Eric Boyd ennobles the day he was released from jail Stephon Hayes reflects on what he sees from his prison window Terra Lynn evokes the experience of being put in solitary confinement Because in 2011 almost half of all prisoners in federal facilities were in for drug related offenses there are pieces by James Brown Nick Flynn and Ann Marlowe who explore their own addiction and alcoholism and by Natalie Diaz Scott Russell Sanders and Christine Stroud who write of crippling drug abuse by family and friends These powerful excerpts act as models for beginning writers and offer a vehicle to examine their own painful experiences Words without Walls demonstrates the power of language to connect people to reflect on the past and reimagine the future to confront complicated truths and to gain solace from pain and regret For students in alternative spaces these writings together with their own expressions reveal the same intense desire to write and share one's writing found in the Russian poet Irina Ratushinskaya who scratched her poems on bars of soap in a Gulag shower or the Turkish poet Nazim Hikmet who smuggled bits of poetry out of jail in the clothing of visiting friends Wole Soyinka in solitary confinement forty years ago wrote that creation is admission of great loneliness In these communal spaces our loneliness is lessened our vulnerability exposed and our honesty tested and through these revelatory writings students receive the necessary encouragement to share the whispering corners of their minds
