High Anxieties Janet Brodie, Marc Redfield, 2002-11-21 High Anxieties explores the SmokeScreen Barry I. Ford.1994 history and ideological ramifications of the modern concept of addiction Little more than a century old the notions of addict as an identity and addiction as a disease of the will form part of the story of modernity What is addiction This collection of essays illuminates and refashions the term delivering a complex and mature understanding of addiction Brodie and Redfield's introduction provides a roadmap for readers and situates the fascinating essays within a larger interdisciplinary framework Stacey Margolis and Timothy Melley's pieces grapple with the psychology of addiction Cannon Schmitt and Marty Roth delve into the relationship between opium and the British Empire's campaign to control and stigmatize China Robyn R Warhol and Nicholas O Warner examine accounts of alcohol abuse in texts as disparate as Victorian novels Alcoholics Anonymous literature and James Fenimore Cooper's fiction Helen Keane scrutinizes smoking and Maurizio Viano turns to the silver screen to trace how the representation of drugs in films has changed over time Ann Weinstone and Marguerite Waller's essays on addiction and cyberspace cap this impressive anthology What's Wrong With Addiction Helen Keane, 2013-04-01 This is an impressive work carefully structured researched and written a refreshingly lucid account that is both intellectually stimulating and professionally helpful Janet McCalman Addicts are generally regarded with either pity or grave disapproval But is being addicted to something necessarily bad These attitudes are explicit both in contemporary medical literature and in popular self help texts We categorise addiction as unnatural diseased and self destructive We demonise pleasure and desire and view the addict as physically and morally damaged Helen Keane's thought provoking text examines these assumptions in a new light In asserting that the wrongness of addiction is not fixed or indeed obvious she presents a refreshing challenge to more conventional accounts of addiction She also investigates the notion that people can be addicted to eating love and sex just as they are to drugs and alcohol What's Wrong with Addiction shows that most of our ideas about addiction take certain ideals of health and normality for granted It exposes strains in our society s oppositions between health and disease between the natural and the artificial between order and disorder and between self and other

SmokeScreen Barry J. Ford,1994 For Your Own Good Jacob Sullum,1998 In this rousing rebuttal to the almost universal public attack against tobacco and its users Sullum provides a rational and commensense defense of the rights of smokers arguing that government bureaucrats must respect the rights of adults who make the informed decision to smoke photo insert Coronary Risk Factors: Pocketbook Allan Gaw, James Shepherd, 1999-09-01 Coronary heart disease is the single most important cause of death in our society incurring enormous costs both in human and financial terms The underlying disease process is atherosclerosis an inflammatory response to endothelial injury Fortunately pharmaceutical products for lipid lowering and coronary artery stents are available to cardiologists in order to produce a reversal a regression of atherosclerotic disease thus helping to lower the rates for sudden death myocardial infarction and angina

Lindsay, Allan Gaw, 1997 This is the first book aimed directly at nurses which gives them appropriate background information on Coronary Heart Disease CHD It is a succinct guide to CHD risk factors gives practical advice discussions of modern management strategies Women Making Time Elizabeth McMahon, Brigitta Olubas, 2006 How do women experience time in the modern world What connections can be drawn between time action and ethical human relations From vantage points across the humanities and social sciences Women Making Time looks at how women fashion understandings of the past present and future The book reviews the ways in which feminist issues have been reduced to generational disputes between 1970s and 1990s Feminism has always looked towards the future when envisaging and enacting social change At the same time feminists have sought to recuperate forgotten and overlooked moments usually through response to the constraints faced by particular women Women Making Time is a rich and diverse collection of essays that moves through the complementary domains of past and future and into the complex now of aesthetic and cultural production By valuing the processes of loss and excess the book illuminates the complex banalities achievements and continuities of women s experiences Cancer Facts & Figures ,2003 De passion à poison. Comment les drogues ont
