Textual Power Literary Theory And The Teaching Of English:

Textual Power Robert E. Scholes, 1985-01-01 Robert Scholes has written an enviable book on the uses and abuses of literary theory in the teaching of literature One of his most forceful points is that literary theory is not something a teacher may either use or not use for teaching itself is an unavoidably theoretical activity Gerald Graff Novel Scholes emphasis in Textual Power is indicated by the book's subtitle After a provocative analysis of disciplinary values and departmental tendencies he proposes that we must stop teaching literature and start studying texts His book is essential for college libraries R C Gebhardt Choice There is no issue more current more relevant to the present scene than the problem of pedagogy and its relation to contemporary theory Textual Power is an important provocative and above all useful contribution to this discussion Gregory L Ulmer Robert Scholes author of Structuralism in Literature and Semiotics and Interpretation among other books is Alumni Alumnae University Professor of English and Comparative Literature at Brown University New Critical Approaches to the Short Stories of Ernest Hemingway Jackson J. Benson, 2013-07-12 With an Overview by Paul Smith and a Checklist to Hemingway Criticism 1975 1990 New Critical Approaches to the Short Stories of Ernest Hemingway is an all new sequel to Benson's highly acclaimed 1975 book which provided the first comprehensive anthology of criticism of Ernest Hemingway's masterful short stories Since that time the availability of Hemingway's papers coupled with new critical and theoretical approaches has enlivened and enlarged the field of American literary studies This companion volume reflects current scholarship and draws together essays that were either published during the past decade or written for this collection The contributors interpret a variety of individual stories from a number of different critical points of view from a Lacanian reading of Hemingway's After the Storm to a semiotic analysis of A Very Short Story to an historical biographical analysis of Old Man at the Bridge In identifying the short story as one of Hemingway's principal thematic and technical tools this volume reaffirms a focus on the short story as Hemingway's best work An overview essay covers Hemingway criticism published since the last volume and the bibliographical checklist to Hemingway short fiction criticism which covers 1975 to mid 1989 has doubled in size Contributors Debra A Modellmog Ben Stotzfus Robert Scholes Hubert Zapf Susan F Beegel Nina Baym William Braasch Watson Kenneth Lynn Gerry Brenner Steven K Hoffman E R Hagemann Robert W Lewis Wayne Kvam George Monteiro Scott Donaldson Bernard Oldsey Warren Bennett Kenneth G Johnston Richard McCann Robert P Weeks Amberys R Whittle Pamela Smiley Jeffrey Meyers Robert E Fleming David R Johnson Howard L Hannum Larry Edgerton William Adair Alice Hall Petry Lawrence H Martin Jr Paul Smith The Rise and Fall of English Robert Scholes, 2008-10-01 In this lucid book an eminent scholar teacher and author takes a critical look at the nature and direction of English studies in America Robert Scholes offers a thoughtful and witty intervention in current debates about educational and cultural values and goals showing how English came to occupy its present place in our educational system diagnosing the educational illness he perceives in today's English departments and recommending theoretical and practical changes in the field of English studies Scholes's position defies neat labels it is a deeply conservative expression of the wish to preserve the best in the English tradition of verbal and textual studies yet it is a radical argument for reconstruction of the discipline of English The book begins by examining the history of the rapid rise of English at two American universities Yale and Brown at the end of the nineteenth and beginning of the twentieth century Scholes argues that the subsequent fall of English discernible today in college English departments across the United States is the result of both cultural shifts and changes within the field of English itself He calls for a fundamental reorientation of the discipline away from political or highly theoretical issues away from a specific canon of texts and toward a canon of methods to be used in the process of learning how to situate compose and read a text He offers an eloquent proposal for a discipline based on rhetoric and the teaching of reading and writing over a broad range of literatures a discipline that includes literariness but is not limited to it
