Textual Carnivals The Politics Of Composition

Terence Hawkes, Jean Howard

Textual Carnivals The Politics Of Composition:

Textual Carnivals Susan Miller,1993 In this study of the status of composition in English studies programs Miller English U of Utah notes the institutional marginalization of composition and its teachers and calls on her associates in composition to engage in a broader political interpretation of composition by persistently critiquing the current agendas of their discipline and reinterpreting its misdirected social history Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Postcomposition Sidney I Dobrin,2011-06-02 Leading a burgeoning self critical moment in composition studies and writing program administration Postcomposition is a fundamental reconsideration of the field that attempts to shift the focus away from pedagogy and writing subjects and toward writing itself In this forceful and reasoned critique of many of the primary tenets and widely accepted institutional structures of composition studies Sidney I Dobrin delivers a series of shocks to the system meant to disrupt the pedagogical imperative and move beyond the existing limits of the discipline Dobrin evaluates the current state of composition studies underscoring the difference between composition and writing and arguing that the field s focus on the administration of writing students and its historically imposed prohibition on theory greatly limit what can be understood about writing Instead he envisions a more significant approach to writing one that questions the field s conservative allegiance to subject and administration and reconsiders writing as spatial and ecological Using concepts from ecocomposition spatial theory network theory complexity theory and systems theory Postcomposition lays the groundwork for a networked theory of writing and advocates the abandonment of administration as a useful part of the field He also challenges the usefulness of rhetoric in writing studies showing how writing exceeds rhetoric Postcomposition is a detailed consideration of how posthumanism affects the field s understanding of subjectivity It also tears at the seams of the contingent labor problem As he articulates his own frustrations with the conservatism of composition studies and builds on previous critiques of the discipline Dobrin stages a courageous and inevitably polemical intellectual challenge to the entrenched ideas and assumptions that have defined composition studies

Means of Persuasion Mapping a Theory and Pedagogy of Multimodal Public Rhetoric explores the ways that public rhetoric has changed due to emerging technologies that enable us to produce reproduce and distribute compositions that integrate visual aural and alphabetic elements David M Sheridan Jim Ridolfo and Anthony J Michel argue that to exploit such options fully rhetorical theory and pedagogy need to be reconfigured Antiracist Writing Assessment Ecologies Asao B. Taylor, Charles E. Winquist, 2003 Provides comprehensive and authoritative coverage of academic disciplines critical terms and central figures relating to the vast field of postmodern studies Publisher's description Historical Studies of Writing Program Administration Barbara L'Eplattienier, Lisa Mastrangelo, 2004 Historical Studies of Writing Program Administration Individuals Communities and the Formation of a Discipline collects essays that shine new light on the early history of writing program administration Broad in scope the book illuminates the development of the profession in the narratives of the individuals who helped form the discipline prior to the emergence of the Council of Writing Program Administrators in 1976 including those narratives of Gertrude Buck and Laura J Wylie Edwin Hopkins Regina Crandall Rose Colby George Jardine Clara Stevens Stith Thompson and George Wykoff Drawing from deep archival work these narratives offer rare glimpses into writing program administration and the development of composition as a college requirement In addition to eleven chapters from contributors Historical Studies of Writing Program Administration includes a preface by Edward M White a concluding essay by Jeanne Gunner interviews with Erika Lindemann and Kenneth Bruffee and a detailed introduction by the editors Barbara L Eplattienier and Lisa Mastrangelo The Oxford Guide for Writing Tutors Melissa Ianetta, Lauren Fitzgerald, 2016 The Oxford Guide for Writing Tutors introduces two conversations to the tutor's preparation one about the creation of knowledge in writing programs the other about tutor research This approach to tutor training provides several benefits First it allows tutors to test their theories of what might work in a writing center session and helps them to move professional conversation towards why such things happen They bridge the theory practice divide that often frustrates both novices and experienced tutors By conducting research to answer such questions tutors can help themselves the writers with whom they work their fellow tutors and the writers with whom they work And further this approach gives the reader new methods for appreciating and critiquing scholarly work making it easier to understand the best ways to help writers and to move the field forward As writing tutoring programs take on a variety of forms and pursue a range of missions this book aims to create a flexible text whose contents can be easily rearranged to support a broad spectrum of reader needs Each chapter accordingly can be read independently the text does not rely on a sequential reading to create meaning The book also includes intra textual and extra textual references for the reader who wants to inquire further That is throughout the book are references to material in other chapters that might be of interest to the reader intrigued by the topic at hand So too in each chapter we include references to and citations of the scholarship that supports much of the common knowledge of the field including in the Handbook both previous tutor education textbooks and research from the field The aim is to aid the interested reader s inquiry into the scholarship of the field as well as to ground advice about practice in research that testifies to the effectiveness a range of tutoring practices Much of the scholarship cited throughout the book is authored by undergraduate tutor researchers as well as several former tutors who were graduate students when they published their articles This crucial aspect best models the ways in which tutors themselves can bring together practice and research in their day to day work and in their informed thinking about this work Including tutor voices is an important tradition of the tutor education textbook because these are voices that speak to the issues concerning tutors in a range of institutions and programs across the country

Women's Ways of Making Maureen Daly Goggin, Shirley K Rose, 2021-04-21 Women s Ways of Making draws attention to material practices those that the hands perform as three epistemologies an episteme a techne and a phronesis that together give pointed consideration to making as a rhetorical embodied endeavor Combined these epistemologies show that making is a form of knowing that episteme knowing how techne and wisdom making phronesis Since the Enlightenment embodied knowledge creation has been overlooked ignored or disparaged as inferior to other forms of expression or thinking that seem to leave the material world behind Privileging the hand over the eye as the work in this collection does thus problematizes the way in which the eye has been co opted by thinkers as the mind s tool of investigation Contributors to this volume argue that other senses touch taste smell hearing are keys to knowing one s materials Only when all these ways of knowing are engaged can making be understood as a rhetorical practice In Women s Ways of Making contributors explore ideas of making that run the gamut from videos produced by beauty vloggers to zine production and art programs at women s correctional facilities Bringing together senior scholars new voices and a fresh take on material rhetoric this book will be of interest to a broad range of readers in composition and rhetoric Contributors Angela Clark Oates Jane L Donawerth Amanda Ellis Theresa M Evans Holly Fulton Babicke Bre Garrett Melissa Greene Magdelyn Hammong Helwig Linda Hanson Jackie Hoermann Christine Martorana Aurora Matzke Jill McCracken Karen S Neubauer Daneryl Nier Weber Sherry Rankins Roberson Kathleen J Ryan Rachael Ryerson Andrea Severson Lorin Shellenberger Carey Smitherman Clark Emily Standridge Charlese Trower Christy I Wenger Hui Wu Kathleen Blake Yancey
