That Fall New And Selected Poems

Paul Genega

That Fall New And Selected Poems:

That Fall Paul Genega, 2001 This is the fourth collection from this award winning poet and his second title from the Irish publisher Salmon The fall of the title is really many falls It is the season of course but also the runway approach of an airplane the setting of the sun the steady beat of rain the fall from innocence from health from grace Here too is the plunge of the Coney Island parachute ride pratfall down steep stairs descent into silence madness and sleep These fifty six poems display an extraordinary range of texture tone and subject matter from passionate poems about childhood and AIDS to sardonic surreal snapshots of our times

Selected Poems Denise Riley, 2019-10-03 Denise Riley has pursued her singular path with a determined disregard for poetic fashion a poet of immense musical gifts and formal skill as happy in traditional forms as experimental her non alignment with any tribe has led to a rich and various poetry that while densely allusive and intellectually uncompromising remains emotionally open towards the reader at the most profound level Say Something Back her lyric meditation on bereavement won Riley universal acclaim and a wide and long deserved readership Her Selected Poems offers a generous overview of a working life which has taken in philosophy feminism literary history song and aphorism and within which the old certainties are interrogated and shaken at every turn Hers is a voice through which we come to better understand one another the meaning of our time here and the nature of human communication itself Wide ranging sometimes anguished her poems are fascinating and often beautiful and certainly more than usually thought provoking Guardian

Selected Poems Eileen Duggan, 1994 Duggan was for many years in the 1930s and 1940s the best known poet in New Zealand but recently has been almost unacknowledged and most of her work is now out of print She is important in Catholic and New Zealand Irish writing Her lyrical gift and her evocation of atmosphere was very popular at the time she was writing so this volume serves as an example of that phase of poetry's development This selection which was published on the 100th anniversary of the poet's birth contains work from her five published books of poetry plus 37 previously unpublished poems and 12 items of prose The editor who has provided an introduction is a lecturer in English at the Victoria University of Wellington

Selected Poems of John Updike John Updike, Christopher Carduff, 2018-10-23 The best from Updike's lifework in poetry 129 witty and intimate poems that when read together take on the quality of an autobiography in verse By a master of American letters and the author of the acclaimed Rabbit series Updike's gift for close observation in these poems as elsewhere is near to supernatural The New York Times Five decades of witty intimate and moving poems written between 1953 and 2008 with the cumulative force of an unfolding verse diary Though John Updike is widely known as one of America's greatest writers of prose both his first book and his last were poetry collections and in the fifty years between he published six other volumes of verse Now six years after his death Christopher Carduff has selected the best from Updike's lifework in poetry 129 witty and intimate poems that when read together in the order of their composition take on the quality of an unfolding verse diary Among these poems are precocious undergraduate efforts including the previously unpublished Coming into New York frequently anthologized midcareer classics Seagulls Seven Stanzas at Easter Dog's Death and dozens of later works in a form that Updike made his own the blank verse sonnet The poems range from metaphysical epigrams and devotional poems to lyrical odes to rot growth and healing from meditations on Roman portrait busts and the fleshy canvases of Lucian Freud to observations on sash cords postage stamps and hand tools from several brief episodes in family history to a pair of long autobiographical poems the antic and eclectic Midpoint written at age thirty five and the elegiac masterpiece Endpoint completed just before his death at seventy six The variety of the work is astonishing the craftsmanship always of the highest caliber Art science popular culture foreign travel erotic love the beauty of the man made and the God given worlds these recurring topics provided Updike ever surprising occasions for wonder and matchless verbal invention His Selected Poems is as Brad Leithauser writes in his introduction a celebration of American life in the second half of the twentieth century No other writer of his time captured so much of this passing pageant And that he did so with brio and delight and nimbleness is another reason to celebrate our noble celebrant New Collected Poems George Oppen, 2008 Michael Davidson has done a masterful job of editing this new edition of the Collected Poems Few poets significantly alter and enhance the state of the art Oppen is one of them Michael Palmer Bookforum
