The 60s And 70s From The Theory Of Subjectivity In Mobydick:

Plebella, 2007 American Literary Criticism Since the 1930s Vincent B. Leitch, 2009-09-10 American Literary Criticism Since the 1930s fully updates Vincent B Leitch s classic book American Literary Criticism from the 30s to the 80s following the development of the American academy right up to the present day Updated throughout and with a brand new chapter this second edition provides a critical history of American literary theory and practice discussing the impact of major schools and movements examines the social and cultural background to literary research considering the role of key theories and practices provides profiles of major figures and influential texts outlining the connections among theorists presents a new chapter on developments since the 1980s including discussions of feminist queer postcolonial and ethnic criticism Comprehensive and engaging this book offers a crucial overview of the development of literary studies in American universities and a springboard to further research for all those interested in the development and study of Literature

Queering Translation, Translating the Queer Brian James Baer, Klaus Kaindl, 2017-09-22 This groundbreaking work is the first full book length publication to critically engage in the emerging field of research on the queer aspects of translation and interpreting studies The volume presents a variety of theoretical and disciplinary perspectives through fifteen contributions from both established and up and coming scholars in the field to demonstrate the interconnectedness between translation and queer aspects of sex gender and identity The book begins with the editors introduction to the state of the field providing an overview of both current and developing lines of research and builds on this foundation to look at this research more closely grouped around three different sections Queer Theorizing of Translation Case Studies of Queer Translations and Translators and Queer Activism and Translation This interdisciplinary approach seeks to not only shed light on this promising field of research but also to promote cross fertilization between these disciplines towards further exploring the intersections between queer studies and translation studies making this volume key reading for students and scholars interested in translation studies queer studies politics and activism and gender and sexuality studies The Logic of Design Process

Tiago da Costa e Silva, 2018-10-04 What is the logic of design process Departing from this question Tiago da Costa e Silva investigates the characteristic feature of every projective activity for instance in architecture design engineering design and in the arts In opposition to predominant views that understand design processes as mechanical and deterministic this study with the help of the semiotics of Charles S Peirce characterizes design activities as continuous and serendipitous interplays of esthetic and abductive processes that define rules and manifest forms Tiago da Costa e Silva concludes that invention and discovery manifested in the form of processes of abduction actively pervade every development in any given context of design process Reading the Obscene Jordan Carroll, 2021-11-23 With Reading the Obscene Jordan Carroll reveals new insights about the editors who fought the most famous anti censorship battles of the twentieth century While many critics have interpreted obscenity as a form of populist protest Reading the Obscene shows that the editors who worked to dismantle censorship often catered to elite audiences composed primarily of white men in the professional managerial class As Carroll argues transgressive editors such as H L Mencken at the Smart Set and the American Mercury William Gaines and Al Feldstein at EC Comics Hugh Hefner at Playboy Lawrence Ferlinghetti at City Lights Books and Barney Rosset at Grove Press taught their readers to approach even the most scandalizing texts with the same cold calculation and professional reserve they employed in their occupations Along the way these editors kicked off a middle class sexual revolution in which white collar professionals imagined they could control sexuality through management science Obscenity is often presented as self shattering and subversive but with this provocative work Carroll calls into question some of the most sensational claims about obscenity suggesting that when transgression becomes a sign of class distinction we must abandon the idea that obscenity always overturns hierarchies and disrupts social order Winner of the 2022 MLA Prize for Independent Scholars sponsored by the Modern Language Association Desire and Infinity in W. S. Merwin's Poetry Feng Dong, 2021-12-15 In the first monograph on W S Merwin to appear since his death in 2019 Feng Dong focuses on the dialectical movement of desire and infinity that ensouls the poet's entire oeuvre His analysis foregrounds what Merwin calls the other side of despair the opposite of humans articulated personal and social agonies Feng finds these presences in Merwin's evocations of what lingers on the edge of constantly updated socio symbolic frameworks surreal encounters spiritual ecstasies and abyssal freedoms By examining Merwin's lifelong engagement with psychic fantasies anonymous holiness entities both natural and supernatural and ghostly ancestors Feng uncovers a precarious relation with the unarticulated unrealized side of existence Drawing on theories from Lacan and Levinas and Heidegger Desire and Infinity in W S Merwin's Poetry reads a metaphysical possibility into the poet's work at the intersection between contemporary poetics philosophy and psychoanalysis The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism: Volume 8, From Formalism to Poststructuralism George Alexander Kennedy, Raman Selden, 1989 Volume 8 of The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism deals with the most influential and hotly debated areas of literary theory those developing in Europe but having their main impact in the Anglo American world of academic literary studies whose course they have fundamentally redirected The structuralism poststructuralism Russian formalism semiotics narratology hermeneutics phenomenology reception theory and speech act theory associated with European writers including Barthes Todorov Derrida and Iser are here described in the context of their original development but with an eye also to their eventual influence and the volume includes a reflective chapter by Richard Rorty on deconstruction Incorporating full bibliographies this volume engages systematically with the history of the twentieth century's most profound and extensive set of cross cultural intellectual movements The Cambridge Companion to English Novelists Adrian Poole, 2009-12-10 A survey of the most important British novelists of the past 250 years for students of British fiction Melville's Anatomies Samuel Otter, 1999-03-05 What Otter has done better than most contemporary readers of Melville is to bring Melville's obsession with rhetoric and with authorship into alignment with those political issues and to capture fully the context of Melville's concerns Priscilla Wald author of Constituting Americans Artist-Parents in Contemporary Art Barbara Kutis, 2020-05-14 This book examines the increasing intersections of art and parenting from the late 1990s to the early 2010s when constructions of masculine and feminine identities as well as the structure of the family underwent radical change Barbara Kutis asserts that the championing of the simultaneous linkage of art and parenting by contemporary artists reflects a conscientious self-fashioning of a new kind of identity one that she calls the artist parent By examining the work of three artists Guy Ben Ner El bieta Jab o ska and the collective Mothers and Fathers this book reveals how these artists have engaged with the domestic and personal in order to articulate larger issues of parenting in contemporary life This book will be of interest to scholars in art and gender gender studies contemporary art and art history
