Solar Pons August Derleth, Peter A. Ruber, 1998      The Return of Solar Pons August Derleth, 1958 Thirteen short stories depicting the further adventures of Solar Pons whose prototype is Sherlock Holmes Includes three stories published in a limited edition in 1952 as Three problems for Solar Pons      In Re: Sherlock Holmes August Derleth, 2018-06-14 Once again in old London the game is afoot In these pastiches of the Sacred Writings written when he was nineteen and twenty August Derleth has recreated the London of Sherlock Holmes It does not matter that the familiar name has become Solar Pons or that the familiar Baker Street has become Praed Street something of the nostalgic charm and fascination of the remembered quickening of the pulse and the familiar settings of the original London of Sherlock Holmes has been recaptured in these pages And what intriguing titles there are to these twelve pastiches chosen from among a greater number Here are The Adventure of the Frightened Baronet about a spectral image of Siva seen at a country estate beyond London The Adventure of the Purloined Periapt which is the purest of pastiches and perhaps the closest of all the tales in this book to the original spirit The Adventure of the Norcross Riddle containing some of the neatest deduction in the book The Adventure of the Man with the Broken Face a tale of dark waters and eight others No doubt writes Vincent Starrett in his Introduction we and by we I mean those frantic and incurable Sherlockians who with August Derleth deplore the paucity of canonical entertainments should rather have more of the great originals but we accept the imitations faute de mieux to satisfy a normal appetite And we accept them with enthusiasm They are the work of affectionate minds and hands There is no intention to deceive These stories and others in their field are intended only to please They are nostalgic reminders of vanished days and nights in Baker Street      Solar Pons: the Chronicles of Solar Pons and the Apocrypha of Solar Pons August Derleth, 2018-11-24 In 1928 at the age of nineteen college student August Derleth wrote to Sir Arthur Conan Doyle asking him whether he planned to produce more Sherlock Holmes stories and announcing that if Sir Arthur did not he Derleth would begin a series of pastiches of his own Sir Arthur promised nothing and Derleth went ahead creating Solar Pons Between Pons first published appearance in 1929 until Derleth's death in 1971 the bite of the Sherlockian bug prompted him to write more than seventy Solar Pons adventures in the best Holmes tradition Throughout he devoted endless hours to research and authentication of details into recreating the London milieu of Pons Now restored from the original 1973 Mycroft and Moran edition Solar Pons is back Join Pons and Dr Parker in The Chronicles of Solar Pons as they investigate the terrifying events of The Missing Tenants the suspenseful matter of The Orient Express and the nearly perfect adventure of The Unique Dickensians For many years it was believed the Pontine Canon would end with the publication of The Chronicles of Solar Pons in 1973 But over the years additional material was discovered in various places including obscure publications and Derleth's own files Now thanks to Derleth's heirs and the August Derleth Estate which still retains full ownership of Solar Pons and these apocryphal adventures this new easily available and affordable collection has been made possible Once again the game is afoot      The

The steadily expanding devotees of the Sherlock Holmes of Praed Street will hail with delight this crowning volume in a series of collections which have now pastiched the entire quintet of the Master s adventures Here is another collection of as sparkling a galaxy of Sherlockian pastiches as we have had since the canonical entertainments came to an end as Vincent Starrett who contributes a preface to this book wrote in his introduction to the first collection of the adventures of Solar Pons twenty years ago A dozen new Pontine exploits round out the quintet in these pages from The Adventure of the Sussex Archers to The Adventure of the Innkeeper s Clerk and between these two tales are such memorable stories as The Adventure of the Haunted Library The Adventure of the Intarsia Box The Adventure of the China Cottage The Adventure of the Crouching Dog The Adventure of the Whispering Knights and others including among them The Adventure of the Missing Huntsman in which Pons and Parker invade the fox hunting country of England and The Adventure of the Ascot Scandal one of Pons briefest and most amusing problems To supplement the tales the distinguished British author Michael Harrison contributes a monograph exploring the background of Dr Lyndon Parker and in the course of so doing explains the doctor s semi American English And finally August Derleth has added an Afterword in which he sets forth the facts about the origins of Solar Pons admitting that it was never his intention to do any considerable number of pastiches and relating the circumstances surrounding the continuing numbers of the tales ending happily with I cannot promise to write no more of them The present collection brings the total number of the Pontine pastiches to 57 one more than the total of the canonical short stories of which a reviewer for The Louisville Journal Courier wrote These tales recall as nothing else has done those delicious days and nights in Baker Street days and nights that have vanished forever From the original 1965 Mycroft Moran edition dust jacket
