Private Warriors Ken Silverstein, Daniel Burton-Rose, 2000 In offering explanations for the US s enormous post Cold War military budget nearly 280 billion for the year 2000 most defense critics point to the influence of weapon makers pork barrel politics Those are certainly factors But in this eye opening book Ken Silverstein looks at another all but unexamined force private warriors the generals gunrunners and national security staffers who were cast adrift by the end of the Cold War and are now continuing business in the private sector Private Warriors moves from an arms dealer s estate in Vienna to a weapons show in Rio de Janeiro to a Soldier of Fortune convention in Las Vegas It introduces little known figures such as Ernst Werner Glatt a right wing German who for many years was the Pentagon s preferred gunrunner and Andrew Marshall an aging but still sprightly Cold Warrior who ardently promotes the development of needless new weapons systems Other encounters are with more recognizable names such as General Alexander Haig the former Secretary of State who now lobbies for China and sells weapons to Turkey and Frank Gaffney an ex Pentagon official who has grown rich by promoting the biggest boondoggle of them all Star Wars Today s private warriors have one thing in common a financial interest in war and the connections to push for a continuation of Cold War military policy Adventure ,1911 ADVENTURES OF

TWO STUDLEY LADS ARTHUR. THOMAS COOKE (ROGER.), 2022 Neoclassical Tragedy in Elizabethan England Howard B. Norland, 2009 Examining the development of neoclassical tragedy during the reign of Elizabeth I 1558 1603 this work investigates the varied manifestations of tragedy modelled upon the classical heritage of ancient Greek drama as adapted by Seneca Studley's Translations of Seneca's Agamemnon and Medea Lucius Annaeus Seneca, 1912 The Chandler Automobile James H. Lackey, 2018-05-03 Incorporated by veteran automakers in 1913 the Chandler Motor Car Company was initially successful in a fiercely competitive industry manufacturing an array of quality automobiles at a range of prices Yet by the late 1920s the company was floundering under mismanagement Producing four lines of cars with numerous body styles Chandler and its lower priced companion marque Cleveland were unable to find markets for their numerous models and seemed in effect to be competing against themselves Drawing on numerous automotive histories and two large private collections of memorabilia this exhaustive study of the Chandler Motor Car Company covers the automobiles in detail including all body styles and their changes during production The author chronicles the growth expansion and later troubles of Chandler and Cleveland providing fresh insight into the formative years of the auto industry and the personalities who made it go Inventing Americans in the Age of Discovery Michael Householder, 2011

Inventing Americans in the Age of Discovery analyzes the linguistic rhetorical and literary innovations that emerged out of the first encounters between Europeans and indigenous peoples of the Americas Through analysis of six texts Michael Householder demonstrates the role of language in forming the identities or characters that permitted Europeans English speakers primarily to adapt to the unusual circumstances of encounter Arranged chronologically the texts examined include John Mandeville s Travels Richard Eden s English language translations of the accounts of Spanish and Portuguese discovery and conquest George Best s account of Martin Frobisher s voyages to northern Canada Ralph Lane s account of the abandonment of Roanoke John Smith s writings about Virginia and John Underhill s account of the Pequot War Through his analysis Householder reveals that English colonists did not share a universal homogenous view of indigenous Americans as savages but that the writers confronted by unfamiliar peoples and situations resorted to a mixed array of cultural beliefs myths and theories to put together workable explanations of their experiences which then became the basis for how Europeans in the colonies began transforming themselves into Americans
