several continents In the years following the Second World War they produced more than half a century of foundational creative writing and literary criticism and made stellar contributions to institutions and repertoires of African and black arts and letters in South Africa and internationally The range of the centenarians imaginations critical analyses and social interventions spanned disciplinary divides This volume in the same spirit draws on approaches that are equally transdisciplinary Two aims thread through the contributors reflections on the complexities of black existence and of intellectual and cultural life in the twentieth century The first is the exploration of some of the centenarians key texts and cultural projects that shaped their legacies In doing so the volume contributors trace a number of divergent intellectual and aesthetic lineages in their works and organisational activities The second aim is a consideration of the ways in which these foundational writers legacies continue to resonate today confirming their status as crucial contributors to modern African and diasporic black arts and letters

Africa and the United States, Images and Realities ,1962 Images of Africa
Julia Gallagher,2015-05-01 Images of Africa challenges the widely held idea that Africans are powerless in the creation of self image It explores the ways in which image creation is a process of negotiation entered into by a wide range of actors within and beyond the continent in presidents offices and party HQs in newsrooms and rural authorities in rebel militia bases and in artists and writers studies Its ten chapters written by scholars working across the continent and a range of disciplines develop innovative ways of thinking about how image is produced They ask who controls image how is it manipulated and what effects do the images created have for political leaders and citizens and for Africa s relationships with the wider world The answers to these questions provide a compelling and distinctive approach to Africa s positioning in the world establishing the dynamic relational and sometimes subversive nature of image Africa's Media Image in the 21st Century
Mel Bunce,Suzanne Franks,Chris Paterson,2016-07-01 Africa s Media Image in the 21st Century is the first book in over twenty years to examine the international media s coverage of sub Saharan Africa It brings together leading researchers and prominent journalists to explore representation of the continent and the production of that image especially by international news media The book highlights factors that have transformed the global media system changing whose perspectives are told and the forms of media that empower new voices Case studies consider questions such as how has new media changed whose views are represented Does Chinese or diaspora media offer alternative perspectives for viewing the continent How do foreign correspondents interact with their audiences in a social media age What is the contemporary role of charity groups and PR firms in shaping news content They also examine how recent high profile events and issues been covered by the international media from the Ebola crisis and Boko Haram to debates surrounding the Africa Rising narrative and neo imperialism The book makes a substantial contribution by moving the academic discussion beyond the traditional critiques of journalistic stereotyping Afro pessimism and darkest Africa news coverage It explores the news outlets international power dynamics and technologies that shape and reshape the contemporary image of Africa and Africans in journalism and global culture The SAGE Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America Mwalimu J. Shujaa, Kenya J. Shujaa, 2015-07-13 The Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America provides an accessible ready reference on the retention and continuity of African culture within the United States Our conceptual framework holds first that culture is a form of self knowledge and knowledge about self in the world as transmitted from one person to another Second that African people continuously create their own cultural history as they move through time and space Third that African descended people living outside of Africa are also contributors to and participants in the creation of African cultural history Entries focus on illuminating Africanisms cultural retentions traceable to an African origin and cultural continuities ongoing practices and processes through which African culture continues to be created and formed Thus the focus is more culturally specific and less concerned with the broader transatlantic demographic political and geographic issues that are the focus of similar recent reference works We also focus less on biographies of individuals and political and economic ties and more on processes and manifestations of African cultural heritage and continuity FEATURES A two volume A to Z work available in a choice of print or electronic formats 350 signed entries each concluding with Cross references and Further Readings 150 figures and photos Front matter consisting of an Introduction and a Reader s Guide organizing entries thematically to more easily guide users to related entries Signed articles concluding with cross references The African presence Graham Harrison, 2015-11-01 This book considers the ways that representations of Africa have contributed to the changing nature of British national identity Using interviews photo archives media coverage advertisements and web material the book focuses on major Africa campaigns the abolition of slavery anti apartheid Drop the Debt and Make Poverty History Using a hybrid theoretical framework the book argues that the representation of Africa has been mainly about imagining virtuous Britishness rather than generating detailed understandings of Africa The book develops this argument through a historical review of 200 years of Africa campaigning It also looks more closely at recent and contemporary campaigning opening up new issues and possibilities for campaigning the increasing use of consumer identities electronic media and aspects of globalisation This book will be of interest to anyone interested in postcolonial politics relations between Britain and Africa and development studies The african image (négritude) in the work Barend van Dyk Van Niekerk, African Images Peter Rigby, 2020-05-12 This controversial book is an impassioned African response to the racial stereotyping of African people and people of African descent by prominent white scholars It highlights how the media contributes to the growth of racist ideas particularly in reporting current events in Africa and demonstrates how some of America s most revered intellectuals cloak racist ideologies in ostensibly egalitarian discourses The author seeks to rewrite the image of race in order to show the damage racism can cause serious scholarship Black Writers From South Africa Jane Watts, 1989-10-02 The Image of Africa in Ghana's Press: The Influence of Global News Organisations Michael Serwornoo, 2021-01-05 The Image of Africa in Ghana s Press is of high conceptual theoretical and methodological quality It gives a good overview of the literature and the state of the art in the fields tackled by the author The originality of the book lies especially in its methodological approach Prof Guido Keel Director of the Institute of Applied Media Studies Zurich University of Applied Sciences The Image of Africa in Ghana's Press is a comprehensive and highly analytical study of the impact of foreign news organisations on the creation of an image of Africa in its own press Identifying a problematic focus on the Western media in previous studies of the African media image Serwornoo uses the Ghanaian press as a case study to explore the effects of centuries of Afro pessimistic discourse in the foreign press on the continent's self description This study brings together a number of theoretical approaches including newsworthiness intermedia agenda setting postcolonial theory and the hierarchy of influences to question the processes underpinning the creation of media content It is particularly innovative in its application of the methodological frameworks of ethnographic content analysis and ethnographic interview techniques to unveil the perspectives of journalists and editors The Image of Africa in Ghana's Press presents a vital contribution of the highest academic standard to the growing literature surrounding Afro pessimism and postcolonial studies It will be of great value to scientists in the field of journalism studies as well as researchers interested in the merging of journalism research postcolonial studies and ethnography
