African Renaissance and Discourse Ownership in the Information Age Eric van

Grasdorff,2005 The information revolution is transforming the world especially the industrialised world But what are its implications for the implementation of an African renaissance Based on a Foucaultian analytical framework this book argues that the Internet has become a major Western instrument of domination in Africa By extending the reach of Western hegemonic discourses the Internet adds another dimension to Western discursive power However by allowing for the active participation in the process of naming the world the Internet also affords unprecedented means of transcending dependency

Three Visionaries of Post-colonial Africa Lawrence E.K. Lupalo, Oppression and Resistance in Africa and the Diaspora Kenneth Kalu, Toyin Falola, 2019-01-04 Africa's modern history is replete with different forms of encounters and conflicts From the fifteenth century when millions of Africans were forcefully taken away as slaves during the infamous Atlantic slave trade to the colonial conquests of the nineteenth century where European countries conquered and subsequently balkanized Africa and shared the continent to European powers and to the postcolonial era where many African leaders have maintained several instruments of exploitation the continent has seen different forms of encounters exploitations and oppressions These encounters and exploitations have equally been met with resistance in different forms and at different times The mode of Africa's encounters with the rest of the world have in several ways shaped and continue to shape the continent's social political and economic development trajectories Essays in this volume have addressed different aspects of these phases of encounters and resistance by Africa and the African Diaspora While the volume documents different phases of oppression and conflict it also contains some accounts of Africa's resistance to external and internal oppressions and exploitations From the physical guerilla resistance of the Mau Mau group against British colonial exploitation in Kenya and its aftermath to efforts of the Kabyle group to preserve their language and culture in modern Algeria and from the innovative ways in which the Tuareg are using guitar and music as forms of expression and resistance to the modern ways in which contemporary African immigrants in North America are coping with oppressive structures and racism the chapters in this volume have examined different phases of oppressions and suppressions of Africa and its people as well as acts of resistance put up by Africans Transformative Constitutionalism and Kenya Gautam Bhatia, 2025-06-10 A key book about rights separation of powers and the State which assesses a decade and a half of transformative constitutionalism in Kenya through the lens of landmark constitutional judgments discussing their international import and suggesting new pathways towards democratic constitutionalism In 2010 after more than two decades of struggle Kenya's new Constitution was born Widely accepted to be transformative in nature in the decade and a half since it was enacted the Constitution has been at the centre of national discourse And in that time the country's courts have been confronted with crucial and high stakes constitutional disputes which are both distinctively Kenyan in nature but also are disputes that have long been common to constitutional democracies around the world they include issues around constitutional change federalism imperial presidencies the role of the legislature election disputes land rights and horizontality among others Drawing comparisons with constitutional jurisdictions globally which often rely upon precedent from each other's jurisdictions this book examines transformative constitutionalism under the 2010 Constitution and shows that while Kenyan courts have been informed by and been in conversation with global precedent they have crafted unique and particular solutions The book excavates the engagement of Kenyan Courts with the 2010 Kenyan Constitution to highlight the unique and innovative contributions that Kenyan courts have made to global constitutional problems and to suggest pathways for the future Showcasing the jurisprudence of the courts in action this book discusses how and when the power to amend a constitution can be limited or constrained and how constitutional change can be insulated from political interference It examines issues of parliamentarianism and devolution in the context of the national controversy around constituency development funds and reveals how Kenya provides a model for understanding constitutional separation of powers It looks at the process for challenging presidential elections and details how the Supreme Court has aimed to set out clear legal and evidentiary standards for how a court ought to deal with a pure political dispute something with which judiciaries around the world have struggled It explores the evolution of socio economic rights including the right to housing non discrimination and equality before the law as well as the question of how transformative constitutionalism interrogates private power Placing contemporary Kenyan constitutionalism at its heart this work of comparative constitutional law asks what the ongoing global constitutional conversation can learn from the Kenyan experience under its new order s It looks at the process for challenging presidential elections and details how the Supreme

The Politics of Historical Memory and Commemoration in Africa Cassandra Mark-Thiesen, Moritz

Mihatsch,Michelle Sikes,2021-12-06 Essays in Memory of Jan Georg Deutsch The volume observes some of the principles that drove Prof Jan Georg Deutsch s research highlighting present day politics for the way they shape historical remembrance learning from people on the ground through fieldwork and oral history and bringing various parts of the African continent into discussion with one another From Cape Town to Charlottesville many societies are grappling with historical consciousness and the production of public memory In particular how and why societies remember and forget what should serve as symbols of collective memory and whether there exists space for multiple memory cultures are questions being vigorously debated once again These discussions present particular challenges not only to official memory bound to ideological constructions of nationhood but also to the teaching of history and its links to social justice movements The volume re centres Africa and African history in memory studies with each chapter drawing parallels to comparable cases in Africa and the world An underlying assumption is that what can be learned from the politics of historical memory in Africa will have relevance for contemporary politics globally and for understanding how memories can be mobilised for political ends Indigenous Systems, Colonialism, Colonial Legacies, and Africa's Economic Challenges Stephen Onyango

Ouma,2025-08-20 This book is an exploration of Africa s enduring struggles and immense potential It examines the historical roots of Africa s socio economic challenges from the disruption of indigenous systems to the lasting effects of colonialism and neo colonialism By blending African philosophical perspectives with incisive critiques of globalization and governance it provides a fresh and compelling analysis of the continent s path toward true sovereignty and sustainable development Rich with historical depth and philosophical insight this work challenges conventional narratives about African development and offers innovative strategies for breaking free from dependency on global capitalist systems With its interdisciplinary approach and forward looking solutions this book is an essential resource for scholars policymakers and anyone invested in Africa s transformation The Gifts of Africa Jeff Pearce,2022-04-15

The West will begin to understand Africa when it realizes it s not talking to a child it s talking to its mother So writes Jeff Pearce in the introduction to his fascinating groundbreaking work The Gifts of Africa How a Continent and Its People Changed the World We learn early on in school how Europe and Asia gave us important literature science and art and how their nations changed the course of history But what about Africa There are plenty of books that detail its colonialism corruption famine and war but few that discuss the debt owed to African thinkers and innovators In The Gifts of Africa we meet Zera Yacob an Ethiopian philosopher who developed the same critical approach and several of the same ideas as Ren Descartes We consider how Somalis traded with China and we meet the African warrior queens who still inspire national pride We explore how Liberia s Edward Wilmot Blyden deeply influenced Marcus Garvey and we sneak into the galleries and theaters of 1920s Paris where African art and dance first began to make huge impacts on the world Relying on meticulous research Pearce brings to life a rich intellectual legacy and profiles modern innovators like acclaimed griot Papa Susso and renowned economist George Ayittey from Ghana From the ancient Nubians to a Nigerian superstar in modern painting and sculpture from the father of sociology in the Maghreb to how the Mau Mau in Kenya influenced Malcom X The Gifts of Africa is bold engaging and takes the reader on a journey of thousands of years up to the present day Past works have reinforced misconceptions about Africa from its oral traditions and languages to its resistance to colonial powers Other books have treated African achievements as a parade of honorable mentions and novelties This book is different refreshingly different It tells the stories behind the milestones and provides insights into how great Africans thought and how they passed along what they learned Provocative and entertaining The Gifts of Africa at last gives the continent its due and it should change the way we learn about the interactions of cultures and how we teach the history of the world

The Challenge of Sustaining Emergent Democracies Joseph Osei, 2009-07-24 The recent political crises in Kenya Zimbabwe and Georgia should alert all to the fact that the emergent democracies that mushroomed all over Africa and Eastern Europe at the end of the last century cannot be taken for granted They face multiple obstacles including political manipulation poverty dependency racism ethnicism religious extremism short sighted nationalism fraud and corruption of all types Are these democracies sustainable Were the skeptics right Are the obstacles due to internal or external factors or both Could democracy itself with its emphasis on freedom and self determination cause ethnic conflicts This book does not only identify and analyze the main obstacles but also argues that they can be overcome with thoughtful strategies These include identifying the inherent strengths and weaknesses of democracy contextualizing some democratic ideals and practices for developing economies minimizing dependences making religion an ally for fighting fraud corruption and for promoting peace and social transformation and adopting a pro democracy and pro development philosophy of education Rev Dr Joseph Osei is Professor of Philosophy at Fayetteville State University NC His PHD in Philosophy is from The Ohio State University 1991 the M A is from Ohio University 1986 and the B A in Philosophy Religion is from The University of Ghana 1981 Osei is also a graduate of Trinity Theological Seminary Legon and an ordained minister of The Methodist Church Ghana He was born at Kokofu Ashanti Ghana in 1951 and is married to Victoria Osei They have five kids Lucy Gina Suzie Miriam and Emmanuel

The Field Douglas Booth, 2007-05-07 2006 North American Society for Sports History Book of the Year The literature on sport history is now well established taking in a wide range of themes and covering every activity from aerobics to zorbing However in comparison to most mainstream histories sport history has rarely been called upon to question its foundations and account for the basis of its historical knowledge In this book Booth offers a rigorous assessment of sport history as an academic discipline exploring the ways in which professional historians can gather materials construct and examine evidence and present their arguments about the sporting past Part 1 examines theories of knowledge while Part 2 goes on to scrutinize the uses of historical knowledge in popular and academic studies of sport history With clear structure examples summary tables and a detailed glossary The Field provides students teachers and researchers with an unparalleled resource to tackle issues fundamental to the future of their subject and sets the agenda for the debate to come      The Power of African Cultures Toyin Falola, 2003 An analysis of the ties between culture and every aspect of African life using Africa's past to explain present situations This book focuses on the modern cultures of Africa from the consequences of the imposition of Western rule to the current struggles to define national identities in the context of neo liberal economic policies and globalization The book argues that it is against the backdrop of foreign influences that Africa has defined for itself notions of identity and development African cultures have been evolving in response to change and in other ways solidly rooted in a shared past The book successfully deconstructs the last one hundred and fifty years of cultures that have been disrupted replaced and resurrected The Power of African Cultures challenges many preconceived notions such as male dominance and female submission the supposed unity of ethnic groups and contemporary Western stereotypes of Africans It also shows the dynamism of African cultures to adapt to foreign imposition even as colonial rule forced the adoption of foreign institutions and cultures African cultures appropriated these elements Traditions were reworked symbols redefined and the past situated in contemporary problems in order to accommodate the modern era Toyin Falola is a Fellow of the Nigerian Academy of Letters and Fellow of the Historical Society of Nigeria He is the recipient of the 2006 Cheikh Anta Diop Award for Exemplary Scholarship in African Studies and the 2008 Quintessence Award by the Africa Writers Endowment He holds an honorary doctorate from Monmouth University and he is University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin where he is also the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities His books include Nationalism and African Intellectuals and Violence in Nigeria both from the University of Rochester Press
