The Africans:

The Africans David Lamb, 2011-08-24 During the four years he spent in black Africa as the bureau chief for the Los Angeles Times David Lamb traveled through almost every country south of the Sahara logging more than 300 000 miles He talked to presidents and guerrilla leaders university professors and witch doctors He bounced from wars to coups oceans apart catching midnight flights to little known countries where supposedly decent people were doing unspeakable things to one another In the tradition of John Gunther's Inside Africa The Africans is an extraordinary combination of analysis and adventure Part travelogue part contemporary history it is a portrait of a continent that sometimes seems hell bent on destroying itself and of people who are as courageous as they are long suffering

The Evolution of the Negro ...: Civilization of the Africans before and during the time of their involuntary voyage to the Americas Norman Eustace Cameron, 1929

Queen Elizabeth II and the Africans Raphael Chijioke Njoku, 2024-09-05 The road to Queen Elizabeth II's implementation of African reforms was rough especially in the first two decades following her ascension to the throne In this book Raphael Chijioke Njoku examines Queen Elizabeth II's role in the African decolonization trajectories and the postcolonial state's quest for genuine political and economic liberation since 1947 By locating Elizabeth at the center of Anglophone Africa's independence agitations the account harnesses the African interests to tease out the monarch's dilemma of complying with Whitehall's decolonization schemes while building an inclusive and unified Commonwealth in which Africans could play a vital role Njoku argues that to gratify British lawmakers in her complex and marginal place within the British parliamentary system of conservative versus reformist Elizabeth's contribution fell short of African nationalists' expectations on account of her silence and inaction during the African decolonization raptures Yet ultimately the author concludes she helped build an inclusive and unified organization in which Africans could assert and appropriate political and economic autarky

Encyclopedia of the African Diaspora Carole Boyce Davies, 2008-07-29 The authoritative source for information on the people places and events of the African Diaspora spanning five continents and five centuries The field of African Diaspora studies is rapidly growing Until now there was no single authoritative source for information on this broad complex discipline Drawing on the work of over 300 scholars this encyclopedia fills that void Now the researcher from high school level up can go to a single reference for information on the historical political economic and cultural relations between people of African descent and the rest of the world community Five hundred years of relocation and dislocation of assimilation and separation have produced a rich tapestry of history and culture into which are woven people places and events This authoritative accessible work picks out the strands of the tapestry telling the story of diverse peoples separated by time and distance but retaining a commonality of origin and experience Organized in A Z sections covering global topics country of origin and destination country the work is designed for easy use by all

The African Union Ten Years After Muchie, Mammo, Lukhele-Olorunju, Phindil, Akpor, Oghenerobor B. , 2013-10-20 This book looks at the first ten years of the African Union This is the second in a series of books that will be produced each year from annual conferences held on the multi faceted issue of African liberation The key themes of the book explore ways of improving the effectiveness of the African Union fostering unity amongst African countries through entrenchment of pan Africanism and building ownership of the African Union by the African people and their communities In addition the thoughts of key figures of pan Africanism and black emancipation such as Sylvester Williams and Franz Fanon are re positioned to even greater contemporary relevance Through its promotion of Ethiopianism pan Africanism and the African renaissance we trust that this book will add new interest and a fresh perspective to how Africans move forward together into a post colonial era where policies and actions are determined by the united agency of liberated Africans the world over

Racial Structure and Radical Politics in the African Diaspora James L. Conyers, Jr., 2011-12-31 This is a must read book for anyone interested in the areas of racial theory and racial relations multicultural and polarized religions and the making of African personality and culture In keeping with earlier volumes in the series it emphasizes the cross fertilization of Africa and the world In Binga Bank The Development of the Black Metropolis Beth Johnson gives an historic look at the opening of the Binga Bank its founder and how the bank helped stimulate the black metropolis in Chicago Black on the Block takes a look at life in the community of North Kenwood Oakland California Mark Christian describes what it is like to be a member in the African diaspora in the United States and United Kingdom In the racial theory and racial relations area Clarence Tally's The Race Concept and Racial Structure argues that the study of race has become dominated by the idea that race is socially constructed Reiland Rabaka analyzes discourse on the process of awarding reparations to people of African origin Paula A Moore explains why people of African descent with mental health problems do not receive treatment Patriot Day focuses on the emergence and growth of Islam in America and its struggle to connect with America's cultural heritage Edward Wilmot Blyden and the African Personality by James Conyers reviews Blyden's ideas and beliefs challenging the European worldview Cultural Helix Theory examines the most fundamental component of African culture language and how it affects the black community Black in the Saddle by Demetrius W Pearson chronicles the professional and personal experiences of Willie Thomas an African American cowboy The African American Male, Writing, and Difference W. Lawrence Hogue, 2012-02-01 In this wide ranging analysis W Lawrence Hogue argues that African American life and history is more diverse than even African American critics generally acknowledge Focusing on literary representations of African American males in particular Hogue examines works by James Weldon Johnson William Melvin Kelley Charles Wright Nathan Heard Clarence Major James Earl Hardy and Don Belton to see how they portray middle class Christian subaltern voodoo urban jazz blues postmodern and gay African American cultures Hogue shows that this polycentric perspective can move beyond a racial uplift approach to African American literature and history and help paint a clearer picture of the rich diversity of African American life and culture
