

The background of the cover is a deep red color. It features two detailed illustrations of mushrooms. The mushroom on the left is larger, with a light-colored, slightly cracked cap and a thick, light-colored stem. The mushroom on the right is smaller, with a darker, more textured cap and a thinner stem. Both mushrooms are shown from a slightly low angle, making them appear to be growing out of the bottom of the frame. The overall style is that of a classic scientific or field guide illustration.
