Encyclopedia of Literature and Criticism Martin Coyle, Peter Garside, Malcolm Kelsall, John Peck, 2002-09-11 Contains essays by approximately ninety scholars and critics in which they investigate various aspects of English literary eras genres and works and includes bibliographies and suggestions for further reading Beginning Realism Steven Earnshaw, 2013-01-18 Realism is an essential concept in literary studies yet for a variety of reasons it has not received the attention and clarity it deserves often being dismissed as too slippery to be of use This accessible study remedies that failing for students and scholars of English Literature and Literary Theory alike plainly setting out what realism is the issues surrounding it and its role in other major literary modes such as modernism and postmodernism Beginning Realism gives detailed coverage of the nineteenth century realist novel through its focus on novels by Gaskell Eliot Trollope Dickens Mrs Oliphant Thackeray and Zola As well as discussing the novel the book also includes chapters on the use of realism in drama and poetry and a chapter on the language of realism another aspect often overlooked in analysis of the concept Religion, Secularism, and the Spiritual Paths of Virginia Woolf Kristina K. Groover, 2019-12-13 Religion Secularism and the Spiritual Paths of Virginia Woolf offers an expansive interdisciplinary study of spirituality in Virginia Woolf's writing drawing on theology psychology geography history gender and sexuality studies and other critical fields The essays in this collection interrogate conventional approaches to the spiritual and to Woolf's work while contributing to a larger critical reappraisal of modernism religion and secularism While Woolf's atheism and her sharp criticism of religion have become critical commonplaces her sometimes withering critique of religion conflicts with what might well be called a religious sensibility in her work The essays collected here take up a challenge posed by Woolf herself how to understand her persistent use of religious language her representation of deeply mysterious human experiences and her recurrent questions about life's meaning in light of her disparaging attitude toward religion These essays argue that Woolf's writing reframes and reclaims the spiritual in alternate forms she strives to find new language for those numinous experiences that remain after the death of God has been pronounced British Book News ,1977 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1922 Walford's Guide to Reference Material Albert John Walford, Anthony P. Harvey, Laurence John Taylor, H. Drubba, 1980 Columbia Dictionary of Modern European Literature Jean Albert Bédé, William Benbow Edgerton, 1980 With more than 1800 critical entries on the writers and literatures of 33 languages this work presents the entire range of modern European writing from the symbolist and modernist works rooted in the last decades of the nineteenth century through the avant garde and existentialist movement to Barthes Blanchot Breton and continental thought pertinent today The German Novel in the Twentieth Century David R. Midgley, 1993 From the demise of realism to the origins and growth of modernism this book examines 20th century German writing It gives an account of developments in narrative technique as German novelists lived through a century of cultural and political change culminating in the Reunification Using selected novels by Fontane Rilke Musil Kafka Hesse Döblin Thomas Mann Günter Grass Uwe Johnson and Christa Wolf the book sets out close studies of the relationship between theme and technique It shows how authors questioned and subverted the conventions of 19th century literary realism yet were still heavily influenced by it Easing the transition of literary criticism from a realist approach to a more modern perception of literature the book also includes a full guide to further reading A Dictionary of European Literature Laurie Magnus, 1927 Literature of the Early Twentieth Century: From the Constitutional Period to Reza Shah A. A. Seyed-Gohrab, 2015-07-22 The eleventh volume in this ground breaking series pays special attention to politically engaged poetry written during a turbulent period which saw the Constitutional Revolution in Iran as well as the rise to power of Reza Shah and his attempts to implement reform Throughout this time poets began to turn their attention towards the country's ordinary people rather than concentrate on its elites This volume also examines the prose fiction of the period which saw the rise of the novel and short story Additionally Persian satire began to grow in importance especially with the increased popularity of poets and novelists such as Iraj Mirza and Sadeq Hedayat This wide ranging volume is an invaluable companion for anyone who wants to understand how the Persian literary scene changed at the beginning of the twentieth century reflecting the social and political contexts in which this literature was created Good Literature, 1883 Selection of Recent Books Published in Great Britain 1940-Apr. 1941, 1975 The Last Soviet Avant-Garde Graham Roberts, 1997-06-05 A comprehensive study of the OBERIU group of avant garde Soviet writers The New York Times Guide to Essential Knowledge, Second Edition The New York Times, 2007-10-30 Introducing a comprehensive update and complete revision of the authoritative reference work from the award winning daily paper this one volume reference book informs educates and clarifies answers to hundreds of topics History of Humanity UNESCO, 2005-12-31 Volume V of the History of Humanity is concerned with the early modern period the sixteenth seventeenth and eighteenth centuries It gives an extensive overview of this crucial stage in the rise of the West as well as examining the development of cultures and societies elsewhere Structure The volume is divided into two main parts The first is thematic discussing the geography chronology and sociology of cultural change in this period The second is regional less theoretical and more empirical it stresses cultural diversity the links between different activities in a given region and the importance of social contexts and local circumstances Each chapter has a bibliography which directs the reader to sources of further information The volume is
