52 of the Baba Indaba Children s Stories Baba Indaba narrates the Australian tale of how the fish did not always live in the water This is a story of how they changed their living environment But where did they first live you might ask Well you ll just have to read the story to find out It is believed that folklore and tales are believed to have originated in India and made their way overland along the Silk and Spice routes and through Central Asia before arriving in Europe Even so this does not cover all folklore from all four corners of the world Indeed folklore legends and myths from Africa Australia and Polynesia are altogether quite different and seem to have originated on the whole from separate reservoirs of lore legend and culture This book also has a Where in the World Look it Up section where young readers are challenged to look up a place on a map somewhere in the world The place town or city is relevant to the story on map HINT use Google maps Baba Indaba is a fictitious Zulu storyteller who narrates children s stories from around the world Baba Indaba translates as Father of Stories
