Picturing Children Marilyn R. Brown, 2017-07-05 The representation of children in modern European visual culture has often been marginalized by Art History as sentimental and trivial For this reason the subject of childhood in relation to art and its production has largely been ignored Confronting this dismissal this unique collection of essays raises new and unexpected issues about the formation of childhood identity in the nineteenth century and makes a significant contribution to the development of inter disciplinary studies within this area Through a range of stimulating and insightful case studies the book charts the development of the Romantic ideal of childhood starting with Rousseau's Emile and attends to its visual social and psychological transformations during the historical period from which Freud's psychoanalytic theories eventually emerged Foremost scholars such as Anne Higonnet Carol Mavor Susan Casteras and Linda A Pollock uncover the means by which children became an important conduit for prevailing social anxieties and demonstrate that the apparently timeless images of them that proliferated at the time should be understood as complex cultural documents Over 50 illustrations enhance this rich and fascinating volume Eternal Ancestors Barbara Drake Boehm, 2007 Many masterpieces of central African sculpture were created to amplify the power of sacred relics that affirm a family's vital connection to its ancestral heritage. This important volume focusing on some 130 works representing a diverse variety of regional genres illuminates the purpose and significance of these icons of African art which first came to prominence because of their appeal to the Western avant garde. While providing an overview of sources ranging from colonial explorers missionaries critics artists and art historians the book breaks new ground in its examination of the complex aesthetic and spiritual dimensions of the reliquaries. Its interdisciplinary approach brings together the perspectives of scholars in African and medieval art history along with those in African history religion and ethnography. Publisher: Raphael to Renoir Stijn Alsteens, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), National Gallery of Scotland, 2009. The works from the Bonna Collection are illustrated in color and whenever possible at their actual sizes. They are arranged chronologically by the artist's date of birth and are grouped according to the main artistic schools. This volume is introduced by an interview with Jean Bonna by George Goldner. Each drawing is then described in an entry many of which have comparative illustrations that shed further light on individual works. BOOK JACKET
