Towards an Understanding of the African Experience from Historical and Contemporary Perspectives Festus Ugboaja Ohaegbulam, 1990 This introductory survey provides a rich understanding of the African experience which until recently either had been omitted from the curriculum of institutions of higher learning or was distorted in written and oral literature The book identifies the post World War II civil rights movement in America and the independence revolution in Africa as the most decisive forces that generated interest in the study of the African black experience Includes four theoretical models for interpreting the black experience The author discusses the place and role of Africa in the development of human civilization focusing on Africa's Nile Valley civilizations and Western Sudanic empires It probes aspects of traditional African culture including the family traditional political institutions and religion and analyzes the impact on Africa and its peoples of such historical traumas as slavery colonialism and decolonization Roadmap to the Virginia Sol: Eoc World History Laura York, Princeton Review, 2005 The Cambridge Illustrated Atlas of Warfare Jeremy Black, 1996-03-28 The Cambridge Illustrated Atlas of Warfare Renaissance to Revolution provides a thorough introduction to the military and naval history of the years 1492 to 1792 covering the period from the European Renaissance to the revolutionary wars of the late eighteenth century Detailed colour maps battle plans and colour and black and white illustrations combine with an authoritative text to illuminate developments in warfare on both land and sea Particular attention is paid to the effects of European military expansion on the rest of the world including the Americas Africa Asia and the Mediterranean Special feature panels are devoted to key events to the more complicated and intriguing military confrontations to individual tacticians and to the key topics such as weapons battle strategies the rise of naval warfare and the composition of armies The book is written by a leading historian of the early modern period The Economic History of the Songhai Empire, 1465-1591 N. R. Laurent, 1965 Social History of Timbuktu Elias N. Saad, 1983-07-14 Originally published in 1983 this book deals with the precolonial history of the Islamic West African city of Timbuktu The book traces the fortunes of this fabled city from its origins in the twelfth century and more especially from around 1400 onwards to the French conquest in the late nineteenth century The study rests upon a comprehensive utilisation of the Timbuktu sources including the well known chronicles or tarikhs of Timbuktu The author focuses on the role of scholars and in so doing he provides a fresh study of a learned community in sub Saharan Africa Additionally the study shows that the scholars occupied a position of leadership and authority in the social structure of the city Hence in providing fuller understanding of the role of scholars and their status as notables the work makes it possible to understand the enigma which has surrounded this extraordinary city throughout its history It contributes an important perspective for historians of Africa the Middle East and Islam Tradition, Culture and Development in Africa Ambe J.
