Sort Of A Place Like Home:

A Place Like Home Alicia Wiggins, 2009-05-01 Rural Benton Lake is sanctuary to Katrice Ware and Lee Oliver. However, more than one chance meeting with the sexy widower is turning Katrice's well organized and solitary haven upside down. Intrigued by her beauty and sense of independence, Lee is equally baffled by Katrice's aloofness. As their attraction grows deeper, they're forced to reconcile their pasts if there is to be any hope for a future together, especially as they wonder if home is really where the heart is. No Place Like Home: Ancient Near Eastern Houses and Households Laura Battini, Aaron Brody, Sharon R. Steadman, 2022-10-06 This book had its genesis in a series of 6 popular and well attended ASOR conference sessions on Household Archaeology in the Ancient Near East. The 18 chapters are organized in three thematic sections: Architecture as Archive of Social Space, The Active Household, and Ritual Space at Home. No Place Like Home Christopher Carrington, 2009-01-14 In this rich, surprising portrait of the world of lesbian and gay relationships, Christopher Carrington unveils the complex and artful ways that gay people create and maintain both homes and chosen families for themselves. Carefully separating stereotype from reality, Carrington investigates family in the gay and lesbian community. Relying upon interviews and observation, the author analyzes the loves and routings of 52 diverse lesbian, gay, and bisexual couples in the Bay area. He closes the work with a discussion of the raging same sex marriage debate and posits an enlightened solution to this dilemma. Library Journal

There's No Place Like Home Jean Studebaker, 2011-06-29 In the 1950s and 60s, Kansas farm life meant milking cows, gathering eggs, and butchering hogs and steers. It meant raising a garden, preparing meals from scratch, sewing clothes, and churning butter. It meant living close to the earth. It was a special time when children could wander the pastures and fields without fear and come home dirty after a day of hard play and harder work. Farmers produced much of what they needed to live and were almost completely self-sufficient. Farm life was basic, simple, and sweet, and family was the most important thing. There's No Place Like Home is the story of a Kansas farm family. It is the unique story of life in a different time and place, before technology and automation changed how things are done on the farm. It was a time when a farm life was a family project and everyone contributed. A collection of anecdotes and oral histories, this story includes the tales of a childhood on a Kansas farm in the mid 20th century and the joys and regrets for generations of such a life. It is the story of a life on the Kansas prairie, a celebration of the land and people of Kansas, and a re-telling of the histories of one family recounted around the kitchen table. It tells of the struggles, hopes, and disappointments of life in a simpler time and place. There's No Place Like Home Anna Lou Dehavenon, 1999-01-30 This collection of essays addresses the lack of shelter, one of the most basic elements of human adaptation, now experienced by many Americans. Based on the presupposition that shelter is a basic human right in the world's richest, most advanced nation, the authors of these essays look more closely than others have yet done at the causes of the current low income housing crisis and homelessness. Ten anthropologists and a mental health worker use participant observation and other ethnographic methods to observe and document the experiential and geographic diversity of U S homelessness Each chapter focuses on a specific geographic area urban suburban or rural and a specific category of homeless people families with children solitary adults or both Based on their findings the authors also present policy recommendations to ameliorate the housing shortage and prevent homelessness at local state and federal levels
