

The Sound of One Hand Clapping: Performing Arts and Deaf People

Donald R. Bangs, Ph.D.
Gallaudet University

(Abridged Version for Proceedings)

The 1970s and 1980s have been called the “golden age” of Deaf performing arts, a time when Deaf theatre artists made great breakthroughs, winning Tonys, Emmys and Oscars in the process, and theatre professionals trumpeted American Sign Language as a new art form. The golden age has also become an “Age of Access” as hearing theatres have provided interpreters for Deaf theatre patrons and included Deaf performers in certain productions.

The golden age and the age of access offer many opportunities for Deaf performing artists. But where will these Deaf artists get their training? From schools? Few provide educational programs in the performing arts. From community colleges and universities? Only Gallaudet and NTID currently offer courses in theatre. From professional training programs? The National Theatre of the Deaf operates a successful summer school, but it only serves a small number of trainees.

You may be wondering why I titled my presentation “The Sound of One Hand Clapping.” An old Buddhist riddle asks, “What is the sound of one hand clapping?”, and for deaf people, the answer is easy. But when we look at educational opportunities for Deaf people in the performing arts, the reaction is to hold our hands forward and make the same twisting motion—the sign for “so-so.” Other than a few outstanding programs at schools such as Phoenix Day School, MSSD, Louisiana School for the Deaf, Gallaudet University, NTID, and a few other programs, training opportunities are few and far between.

In the 1960s, Black theatre artists and educators urged the schools to provide training programs in the performing arts for Black people. They criticized the school systems for not offering creative experiences in the performing arts and focusing too much on teaching English and basic academic subjects. Does that sound familiar? Well Black theatre artists and educators established many performing arts programs for Black students during the 1970s and the 1980s. I would

I Say Unto You - Vol. II Osho,2022-06-22 What if Jesus were not a supernatural being conceived by a virgin but a real human being who had experienced the awakening of consciousness known as enlightenment in the East This extraordinary line by line commentary on some of the best known Gospels from the New Testament tests the hypothesis that Jesus was a mystic not a miracle worker And convincingly makes the case that the stories of his life were never meant to be a factual record of history but rather are teaching parables designed to provide ongoing spiritual guidance for generations to come I will speak on Christ but not on Christianity Christianity has nothing to do with Christ In fact Christianity is anti Christ just as Buddhism is anti Buddha and Jainism anti Mahavir Christ has something in him which cannot be organized The very nature of it is rebellion and a rebellion cannot be organized The moment you organize it you kill it Then the dead corpse remains You can worship it but you cannot be transformed by it You can carry the load for centuries and centuries but it will only burden you it will not liberate you That s why from the beginning let it be absolutely clear I am all for Christ but not even a small part of me is for Christianity If you want Christ you have to go beyond Christianity If you cling too much to Christianity you will not be able to understand Christ Christ is beyond all churches
