William Faulkner

Sound And Fury:

The Sound and the Fury William Faulkner, 2022-08-01 William Faulkner's The Sound and the Fury is a groundbreaking novel that employs a unique narrative structure and a stream of consciousness style to delve into the complexities of the Compson family set in a decaying Southern plantation society. Divided into four sections each with varying perspectives including that of Benji a mentally disabled man the novel reveals the disintegration of an aristocratic family over time capturing themes of time memory and the struggle against an inevitable decline. Faulkner's intricate use of symbolism shifting timelines and rich lyrical prose immerses the reader in the psychological depths of his characters showcasing the broader societal decay in early 20th century America. Faulkner born in Mississippi drew on his Southern roots and profound sense of place to create this poignant narrative. His experiences during World War I coupled with his keen observations of the changing South deeply influenced his writing. The tensions of race identity and familial loyalty woven throughout The Sound and the Fury reflect Faulkner's introspection and desire to articulate the profound struggles of humanity amid historical upheaval. This seminal work is essential for anyone interested in American literature and its exploration of human consciousness. Faulkner's vivid characterizations and innovative stylistic choices invite readers to engage deeply with the text making it a remarkably rewarding experience for both scholars and casual readers alike.

William Faulkner's The Sound and the Fury Harold Bloom, 2008 Presents critical essays reflecting a variety of schools of criticism for The Sound and the Fury. The Sound and the Fury William Faulkner, 1995 Ever since the first furor was created on its publication in 1929 The Sound and the Fury has been considered one of the key novels of this century. Depicting the gradual disintegration of the Compson family through four fractured narratives. The Sound and the Fury Novel by William Faulkner

Illustrated William Faulkner, 2021-11-08 The Sound and the Fury is set in Jefferson Mississippi in the first third of the 20th century. The novel centers on the Compson family former Southern aristocrats who are struggling to deal with the dissolution of their family and its reputation. Over the course of the 30 years or so related in the novel the family falls into financial ruin loses its religious faith and the respect of the town of Jefferson and many of them die tragically. The novel is separated into four narratives. The first reflecting events occurring and consequent thoughts and memories on April 7 1928 is written in the voice and from the perspective of Benjamin Benji Compson an intellectually disabled 33 year old man. Benji's section is characterized by a disjointed narrative style with frequent chronological leaps. The second section taking place on June 2 1910 focuses on Quentin Compson Benji's older brother and the events leading up to Quentin's suicide. This section is written in the stream of consciousness style and also contains frequent chronological leaps. In the third section set a day before the first on April 6 1928 Faulkner writes from the point of view of Jason Quentin's cynical younger brother. In the fourth section set a day after the first on April 8 1928 Faulkner introduces a third person omniscient point of view. This last section primarily focuses on Dilsey one of the Compsons black servants and her relations with Jason and Miss Quentin.
