Swiftly They Struck Murdoch C. MacDougall, Simon Fraser, 1954 Swiftly They Struck Murdoch C. MacDougall, Lord Lovat, 1957 Swiftly They Struck. The Story of No. 4 Commando, Etc. [With Plates, Including Portraits, and Maps.] Murdoch Christie Macdougall, 1954 British Commando 1940-45 Angus Konstam, 2016-11-17 With Hitler's army rampaging across Europe Winston Churchill ordered the creation of a special fighting force the Commandos These valiant men were volunteers drawn from the ranks of the British Army formed into a Special Service Brigade and put through a rigorous but highly effective training programme Over the course of World War II they would see action in every major theatre of operation and are credited with numerous feats of gallantry during the D Day landings Although many units were disbanded after the war the Royal Marine Commandos have maintained the standards of this elite fighting formation to the present day Angus Konstam explores the history of the Commandos during their formative years providing detailed descriptions of their training weapons and equipment Battle reports are accompanied by specially commissioned Osprey artwork and historical photographs offering readers an in depth analysis of some of the most famous fighting units in the British Army's history Allied Special Forces Insignia, 1939-1948 Peter Taylor, 2013-05-20 As early as 1940 political leaders and military commanders responsible for the conduct of the Allied operations realised that after a string of disastrous setbacks national morale could only be restored by taking offensive action against the enemy With the limited resources available Churchills stirring call to set Europe ablaze called for unconventional solutions and action From these uncertain beginnings was born a plethora of Allied Special Force units Inevitably some are household names but others are little known having had brief and covert existences in far flung parts of the world All however had distinctive identities and their proudly worn insignia represent a fascinating and often elusive challenge for militaria collectors This is due not just to the scarcity of items in many cases but to the mystery of their origin a number of these units were established on an ad hoc and spontaneous basis Peter Taylors aim in compiling Allied Special Forces Insignia 1939 1948 is to fill a gap in the growing bibliography of militaria collecting At the same time Brigadier Bryan Watkins introduction sets in context the growth and development of Allied Special Forces during the global conflict 1939 45 Lavishly illustrated this work will prove an essential reference work and companion guide for the expert collector and all interested in military history Raiders or Elite Infantry? David W. Hogan, 1992-12-10 How have the U S Army Rangers acted as special operations forces in military operations since 1942 Hogan's study examines the nature and purpose of the Rangers over the past fifty years and shows how they have served as scouts raiders assault troops and elite infantry They have spearheaded amphibious landings raided enemy prison camps patrolled behind enemy lines in Korea served alongside Green Berets in Vietnam and carried out special missions in Grenada Professional officers military historians students and general readers will find this a fascinating history This analytical account opens with a short description of the origins of the Ranger legend in America and then moves to a discussion of their use in World War II as commandos in 1942 then as spearheaders in 1943 and 1944 as line infantry in Europe and as special operations forces in the Pacific This provocative assessment also traces the development of Ranger raider units in Korea the special training and use of Green Berets as Rangers in Vietnam and the shifting of Ranger roles into more complex and varied types of operations in Vietnam and Grenada and in a world of increasing terrorism and changing combat situations Illustrations maps and a lengthy bibliography add to the usefulness of the study When Shall Their Glory Fade? James Dunning,2011-04-11 Written by a Commando veteran of World War II this is a remarkable vivid and honest account of the battles and actions behind the award of the thirty eight Battle Honours that were awarded to the Army Commandos by Her Majesty the Queen in 1958 These Battle Honours are emblazoned on the Commando Flag that hangs in Westminster Abbey in London almost opposite the tomb of the Unknown Warrior The story of each honour is presented in the most direct way using the stories and experiences of the commandos officers and men who actually took part in the fighting It should be emphasised that the operations mentioned as battle honours recognised only those deemed to be thoroughly outstanding feats of arms and represent only a fraction of the raids and battles fought by the Commandos in their five years of active service The formation of the Commandos was due to Winston Churchill who proposed their formation in a directive dated 18 June 1940 which advocated limited offensive action against the enemy s extended and vulnerable coastline This compilation includes photographs of training and combat in Norway Dieppe Normandy Flushing and many more locations

The Pegasus and Orne Bridges Neil Barber,2014-05-31 This WWII history chronicles a daring airborne mission that was vital to the success of Operation Tonga D Day and the liberation of France When the British Army landed on Sword Beach in Normandy their only exit eastward required passage across the River Orne and the Caen Canal But the two bridges fording these waterways the Pegasus and Orne Bridges were heavily guarded and wired for demolition in case of a Germans retreat Capturing these bridges would be next to impossible Operation Deadstick conducted by Major John Howard and his company of Oxford and Buckinghamshire Light Infantry was a superbly daring brilliantly executed coup de main assault The glider borne troops not only seized both bridges but faced a ferocious and prolonged German counterattack Neil Barber a military historian and expert in British airborne operations uses extensive personal accounts to tell this incredible story of Allied victory Covering events and operations from Ranville in the East to Benouville in the West Pegasus and Orne Bridges chronicles the combat of the 7th 12th and 13th Parachute Battalions and reinforcements such as the Commandos seaborne engineers and the Warwicks D-Day Jonathan Mayo,2014-05-27 Trade paperback edition statement appears in the hardcover edition *Catalog of Copyright Entries. The Fighting Fourth James Dunning, 2010-06-17 Covering the legendary Lofoten and Dieppe raids the D Day landings and the capture of Flushing James Dunning recounts the history of No 4 Commando an elite wartime special service unit from formation in 1940 to disbandment five years later The author himself a Fighting Fourth veteran describes how 500 volunteers despite initial problems prejudices and frustrations developed into one of the most feared fighting formations of the Second World War The extraordinarily tough and unorthodox training undertaken by No 4 Commando prepared them for the raids of 1941 and 1942 their protracted involvement on D Day and for 83 days action in the struggle for Normandy Their last major operation was the storming and capture of the vital port of Flushing in November 1944 This readable and authoritative history of the unit reveals their important role in the Second World War March Past Lord Lovat, 2024-01-05 At the outbreak of war in 1940 Simon Frazer the 15th Lord Lovat and a former Guards officer was mobilized from the reserve list to join the Lovat Scouts the British Army's first sniper unit that had been formed by his father during the Boer War The following year he volunteered for one of the new Commando units then being created Lovat was personally involved in the training of the Commando troops on the West coast of Scotland He was eventually attached to and led No 4 Commando On 3 March 1941 Nos 3 and 4 Commando launched a raid on the German occupied Lofoten Islands In this successful attack Operation Claymore the commandos destroyed fish oil factories petrol dumps and even eleven ships They also seized encryption equipment and codebooks as well as captured 216 German troops Promoted to temporary major Lovat led 100 men of No 4 Commando and a 50 man detachment from the Canadian Carleton and York Regiment in a raid on the French coastal village of Hardelot in April 1942 For this action he was awarded the Military Cross on 7 July that year Lord Lovat was involved in further raids against the German held French coast most notably Dieppe during which No 4 Commando destroyed the coastal battery at Varengeville sur Mer in a textbook commando attack This resulted in Lovat being awarded the DSO Such was the effect the Commando raids had on German morale Lovat had 100 000 Reichmarks placed on his head dead or alive Promoted to brigadier Lovat formed the 1st Special Service Brigade later the 1st Commando Brigade which stormed ashore on D Day to secure the eastern flank of the attacking forces In this he famously instructed his personal piper Bill Millin to pipe the commandos and himself ashore in defiance of specific orders not to allow such an action in battle In the subsequent fighting Lovat was seriously wounded effectively ending his active career These are the memoirs of one of the most remarkable fighting figures of the Second World War who was involved in some its more exciting and dangerous operations Despite his aristocratic ancestry he led from the front and without doubt Simon Frazer Lord Lovat was a soldiers soldier
