Dual Citizens Alix Ohlin, 2019-06-04 A Scotiabank Giller Prize Finalist Raised in Montreal by their disinterested single mother half sisters Lark and Robin form a fierce team in spite of their differences When Lark flees to America to attend college her sister soon joins her But even as Lark discovers a calling working in documentary film she struggles with self doubt and Robin chafes against the demands of studying piano at Juilliard Their bond strains under increasing pressure until it breaks Years later Lark's life is in tatters and Robin's is wilder than ever As Lark tries to take charge of her destiny she discovers that despite the difficulties of their relationship there is only one person she can truly rely on her sister A gripping unforgettable novel about art ambition sisterhood motherhood and self knowledge Dual Citizens captures the unique language of sisters and makes visible the imperceptible strings that bind us to the ones we love for good Collected Poems of W. H. Auden W. H. Auden,1991-04-23 Between 1927 and his death in 1973 W H Auden endowed poetry in the English language with a new face Or rather with several faces since his work ranged from the political to the religious from the urbane to the pastoral from the mandarin to the invigoratingly plain spoken This collection presents all the poems Auden wished to preserve in the texts that received his final approval It includes the full contents of his previous collected editions along with all the later volumes of his shorter poems Together these works display the astonishing range of Auden s voice and the breadth of his concerns his deep knowledge of the traditions he inherited and his ability to recast those traditions in modern times New Selected Poems Robert Lowell,2017-02-28 In this condensed edition of Selected Poems Robert Lowell s poems are brought together from all of his books of verse Chosen and introduced by Katie Peterson on the occasion of Robert Lowell s one hundredth birthday New Selected Poems offers a perfectly chosen and illuminating representation of one of the great careers in twentieth century poetry Twayne Companion to Contemporary Literature in English: Ammons-Lurie Richard H. W. Dillard,Amanda Cockrell,2003 This new title offers a unique collection of critical essays on writers of poetry and fiction of the past 25 years This two volume anthology provides detailed updated entries on approximately 100 American Canadian British and Irish writers including Maya Angelou John Ashbery Mary Gaitskill Ted Hughes Toni Morrison Michael Ondaatje Thomas Pynchon and Anne Tyler New Books on Women and Feminism ,1997 Talking Book Topics ,1999 Witness ,1999 Presents nationally known writers as well as new talent and highlights the role of the modern writer as witness Copia ,2002 CURRENT CONTENTS ,1997 The New York Times Book Reviews 2000 New York Times Staff,2001 This anthology examines Love s Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic elements and verbal conceits evidence of authorship performance analysis and feminist interpretations Alongside theater reviews production photographs and critical commentary the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play An index by name literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource The Beach in Anglophone Literatures and Cultures Ursula Kluwick,Virginia Richter,2016-03-09 From early colonial encounters to the ecological disasters of the twenty first century the performativity of contact has been a crucial element in the political significance of the beach Conceptualising the beach as a creative trope and as a socio cultural site as well as an aesthetically productive topography this collection examines its multiplicity of meanings and functions as a natural environment engendering both desire and fear in the human imagination from the Victorian period to the present The contributors examine literature film and art in addition to moments of encounter and environmental crisis to highlight the beach as a social space inspiring particular codes of behaviour and specific discourses as a geographical frontier between land and water as an historical site of contact and conflict and as a vacationscape promising regeneration and withdrawal from everyday life The diversity of the beach is reflected in the geographical range with essays on locales and texts from Britain Ireland the Caribbean South Africa the United States Polynesia and New Zealand Focusing on the changed function of the beach as a result of processes of industrialisation and the rise of a modern leisure and health culture this interdisciplinary volume theorises the beach as a demarcater of the precarious boundary between land and the sea as well as between nature and culture
