Blue Laws and Black Codes Peter Wallenstein, 2013-02-20 Women were once excluded everywhere from the legal profession but by the 1990s the Virginia Supreme Court had three women among its seven justices This is just one example of how law in Virginia has been transformed over the past century as it has across the South and throughout the nation In Blue Laws and Black Codes Peter Wallenstein shows that laws were often changed not through legislative action or constitutional amendment but by citizens taking cases to state and federal courtrooms Due largely to court rulings for example stores in Virginia are no longer required by blue laws to close on Sundays Particularly notable was the abolition of segregation laws modified versions of southern states black codes dating back to the era of slavery and the first years after emancipation Virginia's long road to racial equality under the law included the efforts of black civil rights lawyers to end racial discrimination in the public schools the 1960 Richmond sit ins a case against segregated courtrooms and a court challenge to a law that could imprison or exile an interracial couple for their marriage While emphasizing a single state Blue Laws and Black Codes is framed in regional and national contexts Regarding blue laws Virginia resembled most American states Regarding racial policy Virginia was distinctly southern Wallenstein shows how people pushed for changes in the laws under which they live love work vote study and shop in Virginia the South and the nation Sundays with Sister Ssj Anthony Happy LaRicca,2020-11-20 The story Sundays with Sister ssj shines a light on a nun who left an indelible impression on everyone she touched especially a second grade student who 47 years later at 54 years old met her every Sunday for an hour without a miss lasting 7 1 2 years His Sunday visits always revealed Sisters unique personality It also uncovered unique stories like meeting a Mensa Whore for lunch A wild car ride in winter with two Carmelite nuns The story of a nun who mothered 125 babies while living in the convent and the back story of why she became a nun Intimidating the general manager of a cable company to hook up cable at the convent so nuns could watch Pope Paul 11 visit to the United States in 1993 Meeting a mannequin nun and her trick ruler Watch what happens when a Carmelite monk meets a 104 year old nun Read about Sisters flying friend a parakeet named Jose Find out what scared all the nuns that was in the field surrounding the convent Learn about Sisters two brothers who at the age of 20 in 1920 walked from their home in Erie Pennsylvania to California pushing a cart with utensils and a two man tent then living in that tent for ten years with a cat called Felix Plus many other true stories that are fun to read
