Hot Jazz Hugues Panassié, 1975 The Swing Era Gunther Schuller, 1989 Focuses on the period in American musical history from 1930 to 1945 when jazz was synonymous with America's popular music Swing, that Modern Sound Kenneth J. Bindas, 2001 It was for stage bands for dancing and for a jiving mood of letting go Throughout the nation swing resounded with the spirit of good times But this pop genre for a decade America's favorite arose during the worst of times the Great Depression From its peak in the 1930s until bebop r b and country swamped it after World War II swing defined an American generation and measured America's musical heartbeat In its heyday swing reached a mass audience of very disparate individuals and united them They perceived in the tempers and tempos of swing the very definition of modernity A survey of the thirties reveals that the time was indeed the Swing Era America's segue into modernity What social structures encouraged swing's creation acceptance and popularity Swing That Modern Sound examines the cultural and historical significance of swing and tells how and why it achieved its audience unified its fans defined its generation and after World War II fell into decline What fed the music And in turn what did the music feed This book shows that swing manifested the kind of up to date allure that the populace craved Swing sounded modern happy optimistic It flouted the hardship signals of the Great Depression The key to its rise and appeal this book argues was its all out appropriation of modernity consumer advertising the language and symbols of consumption and the public s all too evident wish for goods during a period of scarcity As it examines the role of race class and gender in the creation of this modern music Swing That Modern Sound tells how a music genre came to symbolize the cultural revolution taking place in America Kenneth J Bindas is an associate professor of history at Kent State University Trumbull Campus in Warren Ohio He is the author of All of This Music Belongs to the Nation The WPA s Federal Music Project and American Society 1935 1939
