Switched On Video Resources In Modern Language Settings

Carol Morgan, Albane Cain

Switched On Video Resources In Modern Language Settings:

Switched On? Steven Fawkes, 1999 This handbook for language teachers focuses on practical issues to do with using video equipment and resources with language learners using programme resources to stimulate skill development finding and adapting useful resources methodological implications for effective use management and planning issues developing strategies for more creative use      Using C&IT to Support Teaching Paul Chin, 2004-04 Written in a refreshingly accessible style this book dispels common myths surrounding technology and offers pragmatic solutions that can be easily used or adapted to provide tangible benefits in the support of traditional teaching      How to Teach Modern Languages-- and

Survive! Jan Pleuger, 2001 This book sets out some of the practical techniques Jan Pleuger has used with children of all ages and abilities and most of the ideas can also be applied to adult learners These practical strategies are aimed at reducing both pupil and teacher anxiety and provides a deep understanding of the psychological dynamics of the modern language classroom The result is an enjoyable book entertainingly written and bursting with tips for busy Modern Language teachers

Aspects of Teaching Secondary Modern Foreign Languages Ann Swarbrick, 2013-07-04 This lively and inspiring collection of readings is divided into three sections Developing teaching strategies and effective classroom management covers all major aspects of classroom practice Planning evaluating and assessing MFL learning is a guide to the day to day requirements and practicalities of MFL teaching In search of a wider perspective considers how MFL teaching might develop and expand and its place outside the classroom Fully engaged with teaching and learning MFL at a practical level it illustrates concepts and good practice through a broad range of classroom based examples and case studies Issues covered in this book include maximising potential engaging pupils in their learning developing listening reading and oral skills use of information communication technology assessment and differentiation broadening the content of MFL lessons role play in the language class MFL beyond the classroom      Fluency and Its Teaching Marie-Noëlle Guillot, 1999-01-01 We can all recognize fluency and practice it but often do not understand what linguistic and paralinguistic operations are involved This text tries to solve this puzzle It begins by exploring perceptions of fluency to understand their common denominators It goes on to pinpoint the specific features which promote fluency while emphasizing its relative and interactional nature These analyses produce both a methodological framework and a pedagogical strategy illustrated by sample classroom activities

Language teachers applied linguists linguists and their students should find this book an accessible companion to the teaching and study of oral language with French as its domain of application      Resources in Education, 2000      Language Teachers, Politics and Cultures Michael Byram, Karen Risager, 1999 Foreign language teaching is social interaction subject to the influences and forces of the societies in which it takes place This text argues that geo political changes have an effect on language teachers in their beliefs about their work and in the everyday methods they use in their classrooms Based on empirical research in Denmark and England the book explores the effects of major contemporary changes as they are perceived and understood by language teachers      French Words M. H. Offord, 2001-01-01 Using an original mode of presentation the textbite this book seeks to approach the French vocabulary from as many angles as possible showing how French words are constructed the difficulties inherent in defining a word the relationships words enter into their origins and recent trends in word formation Examples and exercises are provided throughout      New Perspectives on Teaching and Learning Modern Languages Simon Green, 2000-01-01 This exciting new publication featuring chapters from some of the foremost practitioners in the field of modern languages today closely examines research based analysis structural contexts and classroom practice in teaching and learning After analysing the current situation each author proposes radical solutions to current problems and the whole book provides much needed fresh thinking on methodology and pedagogy      Foreign Language and Culture Learning from a Dialogic Perspective Carol Morgan, Albane Cain, 2000 This book analyses an intercultural project undertaken by French and English 14 year olds based on an exchange of materials created by the pupils and focused on the topic of law and order The project was based on a view of learning as a dialogic process interacting with others A first language and home culture is acquired through such interaction This project sought to realise this dialogic process in a more meaningful way than is often the case in foreign language classrooms      Motivating Language Learners Gary N. Chambers, 1999-01-01 This book is informed by pupils perceptions of the foreign language learning experience attitudes brought from primary school from home visits abroad the classroom What are the implications of these for teachers The author provides practical strategies to enhance a the enjoyment of the in class experience and b the status of modern languages on the curriculum      Language George Melville Bolling, Bernard Bloch, 2000      Anthropological Linguistics, 1999      Deutsch, Lehren und Lernen, 1998      American Book Publishing Record, 1999      Francophonie, 1997
