Symeon Metaphrastes Rewriting And Canonization:

Symeon Metaphrastes Christian Høgel, 2002 The first monograph on the most important Byzantine redactor of saints lives this book offers a detailed study of the life and working methods of Symeon Metaphrastes who was active towards the end of the tenth century The importance of the Metaphrastic redaction has often been measured by the amount of damage it did to the late antique hagiographical texts but in the present study it is seen as the culmination of long term developments within this field The Metaphrastic collection is studied in the context of its predecessors and in the gradual changes that occurred in the production of hagiography especially as to the social background of authors commissioners and even saints Emphasis is laid on the gradual redistribution centralisation and upgrading of hagiographical texts that took place in the Greek world And in this process rewriting is seen as a vehicle for a canonisation which even if never instituted in Byzantium was the intention and to some degree the outcome of the Metaphrastic redaction Christian Høgel PhD is research fellow at the Institute for Greek and Latin University of Copenhagen He has formerly published a o Digterjeg et i hellenistisk og augustisk poesi The Poetic I in Hellenistic and Augustan poetry MTF 1992 Symeon Metaphrastes : rewriting and canonization Christian Høgel, 1998 The Ashgate Research Companion to Byzantine Hagiography Stephanos Efthymiadis, 2020-02-25 For an entire millennium Byzantine hagiography inspired by the veneration of many saints exhibited literary dynamism and a capacity to vary its basic forms The subgenres into which it branched out after its remarkable start in the fourth century underwent alternating phases of development and decline that were intertwined with changes in the political social and literary spheres The selection of saintly heroes an interest in depicting social landscapes and the modulation of linguistic and stylistic registers captured the voice of homo byzantinus down to the end of the empire in the fifteenth century The seventeen chapters in this companion form the sequel to those in volume I which dealt with the periods and regions of Byzantine hagiography and complete the first comprehensive survey ever produced in this field The book is the work of an international group of experts in the field and is addressed to both a broader public and the scholarly community of Byzantinists medievalists historians of religion and theorists of narrative It highlights the literary dimension and the research potential of a representative number of texts not only those appreciated by the Byzantines themselves but those which modern readers rank high due to their literary quality or historical relevance The Tradition of the Image of Edessa Mark Guscini, 2016-02-08 The Image of Edessa was an image of Christ which according to tradition was of miraculous origin It was taken from Edessa to Constantinople in 944 and disappeared from known history in the aftermath of the Fourth Crusade in 1204 It generated however a vast amount of literature and hundreds of copies in churches all over the Byzantine world This book is a study of the literature paintings icons and other aspects related to the Image of Edessa It examines how it was used as a tool to express Christ's humanity and for various other purposes and how some of the related literature became completely decontextualised and used as a magical charm especially in the West The Concise Encyclopedia of

History as Literature in Byzantium Ruth Macrides, 2016-12-05 Although perceived since the sixteenth century as the most impressive literary achievement of Byzantine culture historical writing nevertheless remains little studied as literature Historical texts are still read first and foremost for nuggets of information as main sources for the reconstruction of the events of Byzantine history Whatever can be called literary in these works has been considered as external and detachable from the facts The classical tradition inherited by Byzantine writers the features that Byzantine authors imitated and absorbed are regarded as standing in the way of understanding the true meaning of the text and furthermore of contaminating the reliability of the history Chronicles whose language and style are anything but classicizing have been held in low esteem for they are seen as providing a mere chronological exposition of events This book presents a set of articles by an international cast of contributors deriving from papers delivered at the 40th annual Spring Symposium of Byzantine Studies They are concerned with historical and visual narratives that date from the sixth to the fourteenth century and aim to show that literary analyses and the study of pictorial devices far from being tangential to the study of historical texts are preliminary to their further study exposing the deeper structures and purposes of these texts

The Hagiographical

Experiment: Developing Discourses of Sainthood ,2020-03-17 The Hagiographical Experiment Developing Discourses of Sainthood throws fresh light on narratives about Christian holy men and women from Late Antiquity to Byzantium Rather than focusing on the relationship between story and reality it asks what literary choices authors made in depicting their heroes and heroines how they positioned the narrator how they responded to existing texts how they utilised or transcended genre conventions for their own purposes and how they sought to relate to their audiences The literary focus of the chapters assembled here showcases the diversity of hagiographical texts written in Greek Latin Coptic and Syriac as well as pointing out the ongoing conversations that connect them By asking these questions of this diverse group of texts it illuminates the literary development of hagiography in the late antique Byzantine and medieval periods Studia Patristica Jane Baun,2010 Papers presented at the Fifteenth International Conference on Patristic Studies held in Oxford 2007 see also Studia Patristica 44 46 47 48 and 49 The successive sets of Studia Patristica contain papers delivered at the International Conferences on Patristic Studies which meet for a week once every four years in Oxford they are held under the aegis of the Theology Faculty of the University Members of these conferences come from all over the world and most offer papers These range over the whole field both East and West from the second century to a section on the Nachleben of the Fathers The majority are short papers dealing with some small and manageable point they raise and sometimes resolve questions about the authenticity of documents dates of events and such like and some unveil new texts The smaller number of longer papers put such matters into context and indicate wider trends The whole reflects the state of Patristic scholarship and demonstrates the vigour and popularity of the subject New Testament Apocrypha, vol. 3 Tony Burke,2023-05-25 An expansive compilation of New Testament apocrypha in English translation featuring fascinating but heretofore unpublished texts New Testament Apocrypha vol 3 continues to unearth the vast diversity of Christian Scripture outside of the traditional canon This new collection encompasses a broad range of languages Greek Church Slavic Old English Coptic and more and spans centuries from the formation of the canonical New Testament to the high Middle Ages The selections here represent some of the least studied apocryphal texts many of which have not previously received an English translation or a critical edition Notable newly edited and translated selections include The Martyrdom of Zechariah The Decapitation of John the Forerunner The Birth of John The Revelation about the Lord s Prayer and The Dialogue of Mary and Christ on the Departure of the Soul Each text is accompanied by a robust introduction bibliography and notes Scholars of apocrypha Scripture and hagiography from a breadth of disciplines will find this an indispensable reference for their research and teaching Contributors Carson Bay Mark Glen Bilby Rick Brannan Christian H Bull Slavomir pl Alexander D Alisera J Gregory Given Nathan J Hardy Brandon W Hawk Stephen C E Hopkins Alexander Kocar Brent Landau Jacob A Lollar Christine Luckritz Marquis Ivan Miroshnikov Tobias Nicklas Samuel Osborn Stephen Pelle Bradley Rice Julia A Snyder Janet E Spittler James Toma P ter T th Sarah Veale J Edward Walters Charles D Wright Lorne R Zelyck Liturgy and Byzantinization in Jerusalem

Daniel Galadza, 2017-12-05 The Church of Jerusalem the mother of the churches of God influenced all of Christendom before it underwent multiple captivities between the eighth and thirteenth centuries first political subjugation to Arab Islamic forces then displacement of Greek praying Christians by Crusaders and finally ritual assimilation to fellow Orthodox Byzantines in Constantinople All three contributed to the phenomenon of the Byzantinization of Jerusalem's liturgy but only the last explains how it was completely lost and replaced by the liturgy of the imperial capital Constantinople The sources for this study are rediscovered manuscripts of Jerusalem's liturgical calendar and lectionary When examined in context they reveal that the devastating events of the Arab conquest in 638 and the destruction of the Holy Sepulchre in 1009 did not have as detrimental an effect on liturgy as previously held Instead they confirm that the process of Byzantinization was gradual and locally effected rather than an imposed element of Byzantine imperial policy or ideology of the Church of Constantinople Originally the city's worship consisted of reading scripture and singing hymns at places connected with the life of Christ so that the link between holy sites and liturgy became a hallmark of Jerusalem's worship but the changing sacred topography led to changes in the local liturgical tradition Liturgy and Byzantinization in Jerusalem is the first study dedicated to the question of the Byzantinization of Jerusalem's liturgy providing English translations of many liturgical texts and hymns here for the first time and offering a glimpse of Jerusalem's lost liturgical and theological tradition

History and Literature of Byzantium in the 9th-10th Centuries Athanasios Markopoulos, 2023-08-11 The studies reprinted here deal with the Byzantine empire between the 9th and 11th centuries with a focus on the period of the Macedonian dynasty and include four translated into English for this volume They reflect both historical and prosopographical concerns but Professor Markopoulos's principle interest is in the analysis of literary works and texts This he combines with the examination of the ideological context of the period as shaped in the reigns of Basil I and Constantine VII Porphyrogenetos and the investigation of gender issues and other approaches The close analysis of the texts shows how after the close of Iconoclasm new styles of writing and new attitudes towards the writing of history emerged for instance in the use of mythological themes which exemplify the changing intellectual concerns of the time

Writing and Reading Byzantine Secular Poetry, 1025-1081 Floris Bernard, 2014 In the mid eleventh century secular Byzantine poetry attained a hitherto unseen degree of wit vividness and personal involvement chiefly exemplified in the poetry of Christophoros Mitylenaios Ioannes Mauropous and Michael Psellos This is the first volume to consider this poetic activity as a whole critically reconsidering modern assumptions about Byzantine poetry and focusing on Byzantine conceptions of the role of poetry in society By providing a detailed account of the various media through which poetry was presented to its readers and by tracing the initial circulation of poems this volume takes an interest in the Byzantine reader and his/her reading habits and strategies allowing aspects of performance and visual representation rarely addressed to come to the fore It also examines the social interests that motivated the composition of poetry establishing a connection with the extraordinary social mobility of the time Self representative strategies are analyzed against the background of an unstable elite struggling to find moral justification which allows the study to raise the question of patronage examine the discourse used by poets to secure material rewards and explain the social dynamics of dedicatory epigrams Finally gift exchange is explored as a medium that underlines the value of poetry and confirms the exclusive nature of intellectual friendship

The Image of Edessa Mark Guscini, 2009 The Image of Edessa also later known as the Mandylion was a relic of Christ a cloth imprinted with his features which he had used to wipe his face and subsequently used to cure King Agbar of Edessa the first Christian ruler This book collects and provides parallel translations of all the available written evidence for the image along with detailed analysis of the history of the image Guscini deftly separates fact from legend for while the story of King Agbar is certainly mythical an image of some sort did definitely exist by the mid tenth century when it was translated to Constantinople
