Clayton,2024-02-06 Horror s pleasures fundamentally hinge on looking backward either on destabilising trauma or as a period of comfort and happiness which is undermined by threat However this stretches beyond the scares on our screens to the consumption and criticism of the monsters of our past The horror films of our youth can be locations of psychological and social trauma or the happy place we go back to for comfort when our lives become unsettled Horror That Haunts Us Nostalgia Revisionism and Trauma in Contemporary American Horror is a collection of essays that brings together multiple theoretical and critical approaches to consider the way popular horror films from the last fifty years communicate embody and rework our view of the past Whether we look at our current relationship to the scary movies of decades ago as personal or cultural memory the way historical and sociopolitical events and frameworks especially traumas reframe the way we look at our pasts or even the way recent horror films and video games look back at our past and the past of the genre itself through a filter of experience and history this collection will show the close relationship between nostalgia and popular horror These essays also demonstrate a range of unique and diverse points of view from both established and emerging scholars on the subject of horror and the past Edited by seasoned horror experts Karr Shimabukuro and Wickham Clayton Horror That Haunts Us is a book with the aim of examining why we return again and again to certain popular horror films either as remakes or reboots or as the basis for pastiche and homage The Marine Corps Gazette ,1988 National Union Catalog Library of Congress,1979 Includes entries for maps and atlases Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals ,1998 The Routledge Handbook of Terrorism Research Alex Schmid,2011-02-25 This major new Handbook synthesises more than two decades of scholarly research and provides a comprehensive overview of the field of terrorism studies The content of the Handbook is based on the responses to a questionnaire by nearly 100 experts from more than 20 countries as well as the specific expertise and experience of the volume editor and the various contributors Together they guide the reader through the voluminous literature on terrorism and propose a new consensus definition of terrorism based on an extensive review of existing conceptualisations The work also features a large collection of typologies and surveys a wide range of theories of terrorism Additional chapters survey terrorist databases and provide a guide to available resources on terrorism in libraries and on the Internet It also includes the most comprehensive World Directory of Extremist Terrorist and other Organizations associated with Guerrilla Warfare Political Violence Protest and Organized and Cyber Crime The Routledge Handbook of Terrorism Research will be an essential work of reference for students and researchers of terrorism and political violence security studies criminology political science and international relations and of great interest to policymakers and professionals in the field of counter terrorism The New Monuments and the End of Man Robert Slifkin,2019-11-05 How leading American artists reflected on the fate of humanity in the nuclear era through monumental sculpture In the wake of the atomic bombings of Japan in 1945 artists in the United States began to question what it meant to create a work of art in a world where humanity could be rendered extinct by its own hand The New Monuments and the End of Man examines how some of the most important artists of postwar America revived the neglected tradition of the sculptural monument as a way to grapple with the cultural and existential anxieties surrounding the threat of nuclear annihilation Robert Slifkin looks at such iconic works as the industrially evocative welded steel sculptures of David Smith the austere structures of Donald Judd and the desolate yet picturesque earthworks of Robert Smithson Transforming how we understand this crucial moment in American art he traces the intersections of postwar sculptural practice with cybernetic theory science fiction cinema and literature and the political debates surrounding nuclear warfare Slifkin identifies previously unrecognized affinities of the sculpture of the 1940s and 1950s with the minimalism and land art of the 1960s and 1970s and acknowledges the important contributions of postwar artists who have been marginalized until now such as Raoul Hague Peter Grippe and Robert Mallery Strikingly illustrated throughout The New Monuments and the End of Man spans the decades from Hiroshima to the Fall of Saigon when the atomic bomb cast its shadow over American art Global Communication Thomas L.
