The Hall Of Three Pines An Account Of My Life:

The Hall of Three Pines Youlan Feng, 2000-01-01 Annotation Feng Youlan 1895 1990 was twentieth century China's leading original philosopher as well as its foremost historian of Chinese philosophy In his preface to The Hall of Three Pines Feng likens his autobiography to accounts written by authors of ancient times who on completing their major works often wrote a separate piece to recount their origins and experiences giving the overall plan of their work and declaring their aims

Realistic Revolution Els van Dongen, 2019-06-06 This is a novel transnational exploration of the major Chinese intellectual debates on radicalism in history culture and politics after 1989

Metaphorical Metaphysics in Chinese Philosophy Derong Chen, 2011-08-16 In Metaphorical Metaphysics in Chinese Philosophy Illustrated with Feng Youlan's New Metaphysics Derong Chen explores Chinese philosophy through a comprehensive study and critical analysis of Feng Youlan's new metaphysics proposing a systematic analysis of meaning that differs from the approach of the comparative linguistic analysis that A C Graham and Chad Hasen employed in their studies of Chinese philosophy This detailed analysis of Feng Youlan's new metaphysics demonstrates that Feng's system is not the completely Westernized philosophical system many scholars identify it as nor is it the pure logical and analytical system Feng himself intended to construct Rather the essence and characteristics of the new metaphysics at the core of Feng's philosophical system expose his philosophy as a continuation of the Chinese philosophical tradition in a new era This approach is most applicable to scholars of comparative philosophy and of any era of Chinese philosophy

The Horizon of Modernity Ady Van den Stock, 2016-06-10 The Horizon of Modernity provides an extensive account of New Confucian philosophy that cuts through the boundaries between history and thought This study explores Mou Zongsan's and Tang Junyi's critical confrontation with Marxism and Communism in relation to their engagement with Western thinkers such as Kant and Hegel The author analyzes central conceptual aporias in the works of Mou Tang as well as Xiong Shili in the context of the revival of Confucianism in contemporary China and the emergence of the discipline of philosophy in twentieth century Chinese intellectual history This book casts new light on the nexus between the categories of subjectivity and social structure and the relation between philosophy modern temporality and the structural conditions of the modern world

Feng Youlan and Twentieth Century China Xiaoqing Diana Lin, 2016-02-02 This is an intellectual biography of Feng Youlan Feng Yu lan 1895 1990 one of the preeminent Chinese philosophers of the 20th century Feng's life very well captured the vicissitudes of twentieth century Chinese politics and scholarship He made his name in the 1930s and 40s with a path breaking approach to Chinese philosophy And he was one of the few prominent pre 1949 non Communist Chinese scholars who attempted to influence Chinese society with prolific publications after 1949 This monograph explores Feng Youlan's work and the trajectory of changes in Feng's philosophical outlook against the social and political contexts of Feng's life from the 1920s to 1990 Feng's search for a framework of Chinese philosophy that is open and connected to foreign learning and a framework of self cultivation that is open to outside

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1999 Daoism Explained Hans-Georg Moeller,2011-04-15 Hans Georg Moeller has achieved the perfect blend with At the Center of the Circle it is both a fascinating introduction to Daoist thought as well as an original and insightful contribution to Eastern philosophy This book will take the place of The Tao of Pooh by Hoff Like that book At the Center of the Circle offers a comprehensive presentation of Daoist philosophy that is interesting and easy to follow Two ways the present book differs from the earlier classic are 1 this one has a more rigorous philosophical grounding so teachers will not hesitate to use it in classes and 2 it takes into account the research and discoveries in the decades following the release of the Pooh book It is written for a general readership interested in Asian thought and religions as well as for specialists in the field of comparative and Chinese philosophy This work is unique in its focus because it offers a coherent interpretation of the general tenets of Daoist philosophy on the basis of the imagery employed in various Daoist texts and by explaining how those texts and images connect to each other and how they were actually understood by ancient Chinese philosophers The study sheds new light on many important Daoist allegories by showing how modern translations often concealed the original wit and humor of the Chinese original or imposed alien philosophical frameworks on them It attempts to take away the metaphysical and Christian disguises with which Daoist philosophy has been obscured by Western interpretations in the past one hundred years By explaining the differences between Daoism and traditional Western modes of thought it also shows how Daoism might contribute to the present day endeavor of overcoming of the latter The study begins with an introductory section providing basic information on the texts of classical Daoism Laozi Zhuangzi the history of Daoism its political and religious dimensions and the meaning of the term Dao The first chapter of the book analyzes often from a new perspective Daoist images such as water the root femininity and allegories such as the famous Dream of the Butterfly and the Fishnet Allegory and explains their philosophical significance The second chapter referring to those images and allegories outlines several philosophical concepts of Daoism including life and death nature art ethics and the body The third chapter offers a more abstract interpretation of specific structural features of Daoist philosophy by putting emphasis on one core structure the circle and its empty center this is obviously what the title of the book refers to and compares or rather contrasts it with Western especially Christian thought The fourth chapter discusses the relation between Daoism and Zen or Chan Buddhism and concludes with an outlook on the relevance of Daoism for contemporary philosophy Long Peace Street Jonathan Chatwin,2019-07-12 Through the centre of China s historic capital Long Peace Street cuts a long arrow straight line It divides the Forbidden City home to generations of Chinese emperors from Tiananmen Square the vast granite square constructed to glorify a New China under Communist rule To walk the street is to travel through the story of China s recent past wandering among its physical relics and hearing echoes of its dramas Long Peace Street recounts a journey in modern China a walk of twenty miles across Beijing offering a very personal encounter with the life of the capital s streets At the same time it takes the reader on a journey through the city s recent history telling the story of how the present and future of the world s rising superpower has been shaped by its tumultuous past from the demise of the last imperial dynasty in 1912 through to the present day Censorship Derek Jones,2001-12-01 Censorship A World Encyclopedia presents a comprehensive view of censorship from Ancient Egypt to those modern societies that claim to have abolished the practice For each country in the world the history of censorship is described and placed in context and the media censored are examined art cyberspace literature music the press popular culture radio television and the theatre not to mention the censorship of language the most fundamental censorship of all Also included are surveys of major controversies and chronicles of resistance Censorship will be an essential reference work for students of the many subjects touched by censorship and for all those who are interested in the history of and contemporary fate of freedom of expression

Chinese society including the shift from scholars to intellectuals from the traditional state to the modern state and from the people to society Adopting a microhistorical approach Luo situates these shifts at the intersection of social change and intellectual evolution in the midst of modern China's culture wars with the West Those culture wars produced new problems for China but also provided some new intellectual resources as Chinese scholars and intellectuals grappled with the collisions and convergences of old and new in late Qing and early Republican China Christianity ZHUO Xinping,2013-08-08

Chinese Christianity is fascinating and perplexing Yet although its existence can be dated back to the Tang Dynasty when Christianity in the form of Nestorianism first arrived in China it has not been extensively researched by Chinese academics This volume is devoted to this topic and consists of twelve chapters written mostly by leading mainland Chinese scholars These writings shed light on five themes epistemological reflection on Chinese Christian theology interactions between Christianity and Chinese culture the empirical and historical examination of Christian ethics and social development in China the Chinese understanding of the Bible as literature and the remarkable contribution that Christianity has made to Chinese higher education and cultural exchange with the external world Reinventing Confucianism Umberto Bresciani,2023-07-03

Hammond, Kristin Stapleton, 2008 Through compelling biographies of a wide range of historical figures this engaging text presents a panorama of modern Chinese history that illustrates the great social and political changes that have occurred over the past 500 years Through the lives of both the famous and the obscure the contributors explore such enduring themes of the flexibility of the definition of Chinese in an era of imperialism and revolution the tremendous transformations in gender relations and the wide gap between the lives of urban and rural Chinese Richly researched these biographies are written in an accessible and appealing style that will engage all readers interested in modern China Rediscovering Confucianism Torbjörn Lodén, 2021-10-01 This book provides an outline and an appraisal of Confucianism as a system of ideas and beliefs that evolved during the past 3 millennia and continue to do so Its roots are traced back to pre Confucian times followed by a detailed examination of some 40 Confucian thinkers It also describes the social context of evolution of Confucian thought John Dewey and Confucian Thought Jim Behuniak, 2019-07-24 Assesses John Dewey's visit to China in 1919-21 as an intra cultural episode and promotes Chinese natural philosophy as a philosophical context in which to understand the connections between Dewey's philosophy and early Confucian thinking In this conclusion to his two volume series Jim Behuniak builds upon the groundbreaking work begun in John Dewey and Daoist Thought in arguing that Chinese natural philosophy is the proper hermeneutical context in which to understand early Confucianism First he traces Dewey's late period cultural turn in more detail and then proceeds to assess Dewey's visit to China in 1919-21 as a multifaceted intra cultural episode one that includes not only what Dewey taught his Chinese audiences but also what he learned in China and what we stand to learn from this encounter today Dewey in China provides an opportunity to continue establishing specific philosophical relationships between Dewey and Confucian thought for the purpose of getting ourselves back in gear with contemporary thinking in the social and natural sciences To this end Behuniak critically assesses readings of early Chinese thought reliant on outdated Greek medieval assumptions paying particular attention to readings of early Confucianism that rely heavily on Western virtue ethics such as the Heaven's plan reading Topics covered include education tradition ethics the family human nature and religiousness thus engaging Dewey with themes generally associated with Confucian thought Attacking the distinction of Eastern versus Western philosophical cultures these volumes create a detailed intra cultural Deweyan Chinese thought on many levels at once Using Dewey to reinterpret the Daoist and Confucian traditions from their sources Behuniak weaves an intra cultural philosophical trajectory that stretches from the sixth century BCE China to Columbia University in New York City The result is one of the philosophical masterpieces of our time Robert Cummings Neville Professor Emeritus of Philosophy Religion and Theology Boston University
