Hand in Glove Rex Stout,1962 The Hand in the Glove Rex Stout,2011-07-27 Wealthy industrialist P L Storrs has never approved of lady detectives and he normally would not have made an exception of Theodolina Dol Bonner But faced with a very delicate problem and surprisingly impressed he hires her instantly It seems that Storrs bird witted wife has fallen under the spell of a smooth talking religious charlatan and now Storrs wants Dol to get the goods on him But when the gorgeous gumshoe arrives at Storrs picturesque country estate Birchhaven to meet the scoundrel she finds more than she bargained for namely the corpse of her client and a garden party teeming with suspects The Hand in the Glove Rex Stout,1937 Mystery Women Colleen A. Barnett,1997 American Mystery and Detective Novels Larry Landrum,1999-05-30 Mystery and detective novels are popular fictional genres within Western literature As such they provide a wealth of information about popular art and culture When the genre develops within various cultures it adopts and proceeds to dominate native expressions and imagery American mystery and detective novels appeared in the late nineteenth century This reference provides a selective guide to the important criticism of American mystery and detective novels and presents general features of the genre and its historical development over the past two centuries Critical approaches covered in the volume include story as game images myth criticism formalism and structuralism psychonalysis Marxism and more Comparisons with related genres such as gothic suspense gangster and postmodern novels illustrate similarities and differences important to the understanding of the unique components of mystery and detective fiction The guide is divided into five major sections a brief history related genres criticism authors and reference This organization accounts for the literary history and types of novels stemming from the mystery and detective genre A chronology provides a helpful overview of the development and transformation of the genre Murder at the College Library Con Lehane,2024-03-05 Crime fiction librarian and reluctant amateur sleuth Ray Ambler gets mixed up in murder once again when he s called to appraise a mystery novel collection at an exclusive New York college An invitation from a prestigious liberal arts college to buy their mystery novel collection comes as a welcome surprise for Raymond Ambler crime fiction curator at New York City s prestigious 42nd Street Library But his pleasure quickly turns sour when the collection s curator Ambler s friend Sam Abernathy tells him he plans to fight the acquisition tooth and nail The collection would make a fine addition to his holdings but Ambler s not looking for drama It s a shame then that drama s looking for him Just a couple of weeks later one of Abernathy s colleagues is shot dead from the library s roof and all signs point to the crime loving professor as the perpetrator of the violent act Why would Abernathy kill and was it for his collection for college politics or for some dark secret yet to be revealed Ambler s not sure his old friend s a killer but he is sure he wants justice for both the living and the dead Working with his son John he launches into an investigation at the college library and it s not long before he discovers missing manuscripts explosive secrets and scandals amongst the faculty staff and a cunning killer who ll stop at nothing to cover up their crimes The 42nd Street Library mystery series blends traditional mystery with a hint of noir and is a great pick for fans of quintessential New York writers like Ed McBain and SJ Rozan along with those who enjoy traditional amateur sleuths and fair play puzzles

Women of Mystery Martha Hailey DuBose, 2000-12-11 In this remarkable book Martha Hailey DuBose has given those multitudes of readers who love the mystery novel an indispensable addition to their libraries Unlike other works on the subject Women of Mystery is not merely a directory of the novelists and their publications with a few biographical details DuBose combines extensive research into the lives of significant women mystery writers from Anna Katherine Green and Mary Roberts Rinehart with critical essays on their work anecdotes contemporary reviews and opinions and some of the women's own comments She takes us through the Golden Age of the British women mystery writers Christie Sayers Marsh Allingham and Tey to the leading crime novelists of today focused on the women who have become legends of the genre And though she laments so many mysteries so little time she makes a good effort mentioning some of the best of the rest When DuBose writes of the lives of her principal players she relates them to their times their families their personal situations and above all to their books She subtly points out that Sayers whose experience with the men in her life was inevitably disastrous created in Lord Peter the ideal lover one who is all that a woman desires and needs DuBose gives us the curriculum vitae that Dorothy Sayers created to help her bring Peter Wimsey to a virtual actuality Ngaio Marsh would give up an active presence in the theatrical world she loved but she recreated it for herself as well as her readers in many of her novels The biographies of these women are as engrossing as the stories they wrote and Martha DuBose has shined a different intimate and intriguing light on them their works and the lives that informed those works This book is so full of treasure it's hard to see how any mystery enthusiast will be able to do without it And what a gift it would make for anyone on your list who has been heard to announce I love a mystery Some of the treats inside In the Beginning The Mothers of Detection Anna Katherine Green Mary Roberts Rinehart A Golden Era The Genteel Puzzlers Agatha Christie Dorothy L Sayers Ngaio Marsh Margery Allingham Josephine Tey Modern Motives Mysteries of the Murderous Mind Patricia Highsmith P D James Ruth Rendell Mary Higgins Clark Sue Grafton and more
