The Healing Power of Creative Mourning Jan Yager, Fred Yager, Scott Yager, 2000-04 Help Yourself Now Jan Yager, 2021-03-09 How to Find Help for Any Situation Although we live in the age of information and everyone is bombarded with potential sources of help sifting through those possibilities can be a chore This is where Help Yourself comes in With this useful reference author Jan Yager provides an overview of the various situations that most people have to navigate from calling customer service or reporting a crime to finding credible and reliable information about a business health or legal concern Each chapter includes a brief discussion of an issue potential scenarios and listings of relevant national and international organizations Yager also instructs readers on researching state agencies so they can contact appropriate organizations closer to home Important topics of discussion include Health insurance Personal finances Housing assistance Employment services Family planning K 12 education College selection and funding Small business development Legal services Crime victim resources Substance abuse Emergency preparedness And more The Poetry of Loss Judith Harris, 2023-05-15 The Poetry of Loss Romantic and Contemporary Elegies presents a renewed look at elegy as a long standing tradition in the literature of loss exploring recent shifts in the continuum of these memorial poems This volume investigates the tensions arising in elegiac formulations of grief through detailed analyses of seminal poets including Wordsworth Keats and Plath using psychoanalytic precepts to reconceptualize consolation through poetic strategies of inner representation and what it might mean for personal and collective experiences of loss Tracing the development of elegy beyond extant readings this volume addresses contemporary constructs of mourning and their attendant polemics within the wider culture as extensions of elegiac longings and the tendency to refuse consolation and cede to the endlessness of grief Furthermore this book concludes that contemporary elegies break with conventions of poetic structure and expression rather than the poets seeking resolution to grief through compensation they often find themselves dwelling within the loss rather than externalizing and transcending it The Poetry of Loss Romantic and Contemporary Elegies examines these developing psychoanalytic concepts pertaining to a poetics of loss providing readers with a new appreciation of mourning culture and contemporary attitudes towards grief Grief and the Expressive Arts Barbara E. Thompson, Robert A. Neimeyer, 2014-01-10 The use of the arts in psychotherapy is a burgeoning area of interest particularly in the field of bereavement where it is a staple intervention in hospice programs children's grief camps specialized programs for trauma or combat exposure work with bereaved parents widowed elders or suicide survivors and in many other contexts But how should clinicians differentiate between the many different approaches and techniques and what criteria should they use to decide which technique to use and when Grief and the Expressive Arts provides the answers using a crisp coherent structure that creates a conceptual and relational scaffold for an artistically inclined grief therapy Each of the book s brief chapters is accessible and clearly focused conveying concrete methods and anchoring them in brief case studies across a range of approaches featuring music creative writing visual arts dance and movement theatre and performance and multi modal practices Any clinician expressive arts therapist grief counselor or something in between looking for a professionally oriented but scientifically informed book for guidance and inspiration need look no further than Grief and the Expressive Arts

Writing for Wellbeing Katrin Den Elzen, Reinekke Lengelle, 2023-07-07 Writing can support our wellbeing even under the most difficult life circumstances helping us to adapt to significant change make sense of loss improve our physical and emotional resilience and foster personal growth Numerous studies of Expressive Writing have confirmed this and there are other established methodologies for practice However to date few accounts have offered detailed descriptions showing how and why putting pen to paper can be so beneficial This book delves deeply into the landscape of Writing for wellbeing and demonstrates the transformative power of writing in a wide range of contexts Topics include personal trauma narratives within the Humanities a participatory Writing for wellbeing study that demonstrates the effectiveness of writing in the context of grief and loss surprise as the hidden mainspring of poetry s therapeutic potency the empowerment and healing potential offered by Black women s blogs playwriting positioning LGBTQIA identities as positive through stories of belonging how writing workshops have helped newly literate Indigenous adults and other participants in the Australian outback and how the smuggled writings of Behrouz Boochani have enabled global witnessing of the stories of refugees held in offshore detention This resource sets out the theory and research at the foundation of Writing for wellbeing in close relation to full and engaging accounts of practice It aims to make the topic accessible and affirms its place as an effective reconstructive practice alongside other expressive arts therapies providing a holistic and inspiring resource for anyone wishing to practice teach or research Writing for wellbeing Writing the Self in Bereavement Reinekke Lengelle, 2021-01-07 Winner ICOI 2022 Outstanding Qualitative Book Award In Writing the Self in Bereavement A Story of Love Spousal Loss and Resilience Reinekke Lengelle uses her abilities as a researcher poet and professor of therapeutic writing to tell a heartfelt and fearless story about her grief after the death of her spouse and the year and a half following his diagnosis illness and passing This book powerfully demonstrates that writing can be a companion in bereavement It uses and explains the latest research on coming to terms with spousal loss without being prescriptive Integrated with this contemporary research are stories poetry and reflections on writing as a therapeutic process The author unflinchingly explores a number of themes that are underrepresented in existing resources how one deals with anger associated with loss what a healthy response might be to unfinished business with the deceased continuing conversations with the beloved even for agnostics and atheists ongoing sexual desire and secondary losses As a rare book where an author successfully combines a personal story heart rending poetry up to date research on grief and an evocative exploration of taboo topics in the context of widowhood Writing the Self in Bereavement is uniquely valuable for those grieving a spouse or other loved one those supporting others in bereavement and those interested in the healing power of poetry and life writing Researchers on death and dying grief counsellors and
