Ruth Ann Nordin

Sir Tristan Of All Time:

Legends of Arthur ,2001 The image of Arthur has haunted the poets and writers of western Europe for nearly nine centuries and there is no sign of an end to the reign of the once and future king in the world of literature The Arthurian epic is as popular a subject now as it was when it was first fashioned and the stories about Arthur and the heroes associated with him come in a bewildering number of guises The sheer variety of the legends both in style and content is extraordinary and this collection attempts to present in a small space something of this diversity Sir Thomas Malory half a millennium ago plundered a whole range of sources to create his masterpiece Le Morte Darthur but he did so to weld them together within the framework of Arthur's own career Legends of Arthur draws on different sources but emphasizes the way in which writers have created new stories around the great heroes or have told the stories in different ways So there are two versions of each hero's exploits Arthur is shown as emperor and warlord and as the triumphant and tragic king of the romances betrayed by Lancelot and Guinevere Gawain is the central figure of the wonderful adventures of a Dutch romance and the courtly and subtle hero of the English masterpiece Sir Gawain and the Green Knight Tristan appears as the single minded lover of Iseult in the original version of his story and then as a knight of the Round Table whose devotion to chivalry is almost as great as his passion for his beloved In these differing versions we can see how the Arthurian romances held the medieval world spellbound for so long in all their color and variety

Sir Tristan of All Time Sabra Holbrook,1970 Traces the origins and history of the legend of Tristan and Iseult examines its many variations and discusses its appearance in and influence on modern opera and poetry

The Reincarnation Sensation Norman L. Geisler,J. Yutaka Amano,2004-06-21 One in every four Americans believes in reincarnation according to a recent Gallup poll Why does our society have such a growing preoccupation with death and past life experiences Authors Norman L Geisler and J Yutaka Amano conclude that among the reasons for the popularity and influence of reincarnation philosophy are the rapid rise of the New Age Movement and society's fascination with Eastern thought They examine cases of spontaneous past life recall and point out alternative explanations for these phenomena Ultimately The Reincarnation Sensation shows that the doctrine of reincarnation is contrary to the Bible's teaching about eternal life and incompatible with the Christian faith

A Match Made In London Christina Britton,2019-05-21 Miss Rosalind Merriweather's life has been one of hardship and servitude since her late sister's ruination Now a paid companion her latest post brings her to London to watch over the daughter of a social climbing harridan She vows to protect her charge and her own heart from rakes and libertines the very type of man who destroyed her sister This vow proves difficult when Sir Tristan Crosby the epitome of all she despises begins to show attention to the girl Tristan has spent decades perfecting his easygoing charming persona to hide the damage done by years of abuse by his father Finding he has a talent for matchmaking he fills some of the emptiness inside him by helping the overlooked shy women of London find true love However the latest young woman has a watchdog of a companion who seems to see beyond his careful facade to the flawed uncertain soul he strives to hide from the world Even worse she affects him in ways no woman ever has But he will not give up his matchmaking even for one such as her What he does not expect is for Rosalind to be fired from her position because of it nor that she will immediately find a position in his own household When these two headstrong adversaries meet under one roof will their attraction to one another lead to heartbreak or have these two passionate souls finally met their match

Italian Literature: Il tristano panciaticchiano Gloria Allaire,2002 This is the first critical edition with English translation of the prose compilation Tristano panciaticchiano preserved in a unique manuscript in the Biblioteca Nazionale of Florence MS Panc 33 it is the first time the Italian text has been published in its entirety in any form Assembled by the mid fourteenth century the manuscript is an original compilation in Italian based on several French models the Queste del San Graal Joseph d Arimathie the Mort Artu and notably the Roman de Tristan en prose While the edition itself will be of great interest the translation into English is a major opportunity for Arthurians and other medievalists and furnishes important new evidence for the study of Arthurian material in Italy Apparatus includes a finding list of Arthurian manuscripts produced owned or read by Italians a select bibliography and an index of proper names found in the narrative

The Radiant King David Dalglish,2025-03-04 The first installment of USA Today bestseller David Dalglish s latest epic fantasy trilogy about immortal demigods civil wars and ancient evil will be irresistible to classic fantasy fans and will appeal to readers of James Islington and Anthony Ryan Six immortal siblings Five sworn to peace One demands a throne Radiance the mysterious power of life and creation is theirs to command Death cannot claim them For hundreds of years the ever living ruled with ease Yet when the world is nearly broken beneath their reign the humbled six swear a vow They will sit upon no thrones wear no crowns and no longer teach humanity the gifts of radiance But after centuries of peace Eder rejects their vow anoints himself Voice of Father and spreads a new cruel faith across the land Faron cannot allow such indiscretion Returning from a self imposed exile he swears to crush Eder s kingdom and he will not do so alone Sariel their cold and calculating brother knows all too well that an ever living s dominion is bound for brutality and destruction But to overthrow a nation they will need more than each other They will need an army and a ruler who can take the throne their own vow forbids And so they pledge themselves to the fanatical Bastard Princess a woman with incredible powers she insists were given to her by the goddess Leliel But Eder s conquest is not what it seems and it will take more than a holy war to stop an immortal who has heard the desperate plea of a god

Italian Literature IV: Il Tristano Riccardiano, MS 1729 (Parodi's Siglum 'F') Gloria Allaire,2024 A critical edition with facing page English translation of the fourteenth century Il Tristano Riccardiano MS 1729 The French prose Roman de Tristan circulated widely in medieval Italy as attested by numerous translations and adaptations in different dialects Two of these preserved in Florence s Biblioteca Riccardiana reveal important links amongst the extant Italian Tristans The longer version Tristano Riccardiano MS 2543 has been edited re edited and translated into English However its shorter sister found in the fourteenth century MS Ricc 1729 has suffered almost complete critical neglect perhaps due to its amateur production traits complex amalgam of regional dialects and idiosyncratic script While its contents Tristan s birth early adventures love affair with Yseut largely correspond to MS 2543 there are noteworthy variants For example the famous three day tournament conserved in the Tristano Panciatichiano and constituting the bulk of the Tristano Corsiniano does not appear MS 1729 also preserves the final episodes Tristan s fatal wounding the lovers deaths lamentation at Camelot which are not found in MS 2543 This volume offers the first critical edition of this Italian exemplar permitting further linguistic analysis it is accompanied by a facing page English translation which will open the text to a wider audience The full introduction considers the manuscript itself looking at such matters as its dating illustrations watermarks and contents and comparing it with other redactions whilst notes a bibliography and index of proper names complete the apparatus Music
