Orsmond Anderton, 1920 Music Trades , 1922 Outside the "Comfort Zone" Tatiana Klepikova, Lukas Raabe, 2020-07-06 Traditionally privacy studies have focused on the liberal democratic societies of the global West whereas non democratic contexts have played a marginal role in the discussion of the private and public spheres not in the least because of the political stances of the Cold War era This volume offers explorations of highly diversified performances and discourses of privacy by various actors which were embedded into the culturally economically and politically specific constructions of late socialism in individual states of the Warsaw Pact While the experience of socialism varied across the Bloc there were also some reactions to socialism and some reverse responses of socialist regimes to these reactions that one can trace through all states Contributions to this volume take us across the Eastern Bloc and beyond it from the Soviet Union into late socialist Poland Romania and East and West Germany While looking at specific countries they provide a glimpse into a broader perspective that reaches beyond the borders of individual late socialist states Together these articles document a palette of paradigms of the construction and transformation of the private spheres that overcame the national borders of individual states and left an imprint across the Eastern Bloc thereby contributing to rethinking Cold War rhetoric in regard to these states

Congress Volume Helsinki 2010 Martti Nissinen, 2012-01-05 This volume brings together the main contributions to the 20th congress of the International Organization for the Study of the Old Testament IOSOT held in Helsinki Finland in August 2010 focusing on archaeology textual history Deuteronomistic texts and Wisdom and apocalypticism
