Amphibians and Reptiles Katharine Hall,2015-09-10 What makes a frog an amphibian but a snake a reptile Both classes may lay eggs but they have different skin coverings and breathe in different ways Pages of fun facts will help kids identify each animal in the class like a pro after reading the fourth book in Arbordale s Compare and Contrast series Similar to Polar Bears and Penguins Clouds and Trees Amphibians and Reptiles uses stunning photographs and simple non fiction text to get kids thinking about the similarities and differences between these two animal classes Understanding, Nurturing and Working Effectively with Vulnerable Children in Schools Angela Greenwood,2019-08-06 In times of increasing pressure on schools and teachers it is essential that teachers are equipped to understand the emotional and relational factors in learning and teaching Vulnerable and disaffected children need understanding and nurture rather than reactive management which can easily exacerbate their difficulties leaving them unheard and defensive and even undermine teacher confidence and effectiveness Understanding Nurturing and Working Effectively with Vulnerable Children in Schools offers a comprehensive and accessible exploration of the difficulties faced by teachers and schools from at risk and disaffected children including repeated trauma and insecure attachment patterns The book describes how a thoughtful relationship based approach can both alleviate such difficulties and offer a second chance attachment experience enabling students to discover it might be safe to let down their all consuming defences a little thus freeing them to begin to learn It offers practical suggestions in note form making them easy to use refer to and assimilate numerous case examples and teacher friendly theoretical background material a wealth of ideas for ways forward including differentiated responses to children in the light of their particular patterns developmental stages and unmet needs Written from extensive professional experience this is an essential handbook and resource book for trainers schools teachers and school staff and also for educational psychologists and those in children s services working with vulnerable children in pre and primary schools as well as those in special schools and units Angela Greenwood has produced a series of educational posters to support teachers in understanding the emotional and relational factors involved in teaching and learning freely available for download from <https://www.angela-greenwood.net/Posters.html> The Home Education Handbook Gill Hines,Alison Baverstock,2019-03-21 Home educators want to provide a high quality learning experience for their children and this handbook is an excellent resource for making this aspiration a reality Dr Adam Boddison Chief Executive of National Association of Special Educational Needs If you are thinking of home educating your child your initial surprise may be at how easy it is to turn intention into reality Once you have deregistered your child you are largely left to get on with delivering education from home as you see best This book is full of practical guidance for parents based on the authors long experience of working with children and young people their parents teachers and schools It will help you plan what is taught as well as when and how The authors not only consider how to benefit from the opportunities home education provides but also suggest creative ways to fill the potential gaps that might arise from not being part of the traditional school system The Home Education Handbook covers everything from the socialisation of home educated children to advice on supporting the motivation and resilience of all involved This is a book that every parent who is considering home education or flexi schooling or is simply keen to ensure that their child gets the best education possible needs to read Writing Ideas Ready to Use! Barbara Gruber,1983 There's a Writer in Our House! Strategies for Supporting and Encouraging Young Writers and Readers at Home Ann P. Kaganoff,2024-04-11

There s a Writer in Our House is an invitation to parents of children in first grade through fifth grade interested in actively participating in their children s early literacy learning from the very first steps Founded upon well researched literacy instructional methods that have been informed by the author s clinical perspective as well as her years of experience with many kinds of learners this book provides a valuable understanding of how both writing and reading contribute to child development in multiple areas Chapters provide background concepts regarding grammar and specific critical thinking skills in both writing and reading as well as customizable child centered activities used to practice and build writing and reading comprehension skills You will learn how to advance and encourage your child s learning and communication skills by highlighting important literacy areas such as vocabulary development background knowledge and critical thinking You will also learn to recognize and track the significant developmental achievements of your child as you proceed from the early to the more complex At Home activities as well as receive strategies for how to respond and give feedback in specific situations such as when a child writes something that makes sense to the child but not to the parent how to offer feedback that identifies and labels a child s strengths and how to collaborate effectively with a child who is just developing new interests or a new willingness to try something that previously seemed hard Practical accessible and most importantly fun this book is a must read for all parents regardless of background seeking to support their children s ongoing literacy development confidently and effectively Resources in Education ,2001 Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1970-06 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world of the Human Genome Project from its origins through the race to order the 3 billion subunits of DNA to the surprises emerging as scientists seek to exploit the molecule of heredity It s the first account to deal in depth with the intellectual roots of the project the motivations that drove it and the hype that often masked genuine triumphs Distinguished science journalist Victor McElheny offers vivid insightful profiles of key people such as David Botstein Eric Lander Francis Collins James Watson Michael Hunkapiller and Craig Venter McElheny also shows that the Human Genome Project is a striking example of how new techniques such as restriction enzymes and sequencing methods often arrive first shaping the questions scientists then ask Drawing on years of original interviews and reporting in the inner circles of biological science Drawing the Map of Life is the definitive up to date story of today s greatest scientific quest No one who wishes to understand genome mapping and how it is transforming our lives can afford to miss this book Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991 Roadblocks to Learning Lawrence J. Greene,2009-05-30 This comprehensive guide explains the symptoms and terminology associated with children who struggle in school because of underachievement and learning problems and offers parents practical solutions Over seven million children suffer from learning difficulties Most of these children are stuck in classrooms where their needs are not met or even recognized by an overcrowded school system However with the right information and diagnostic tools parents can provide life long learning skills specially targeted to their children s needs This book lays out the symptoms terms and strategies parents will encounter if their child has a learning block and explains how to convey their child s needs and condition to teachers Categorized and cross referenced for easy access ROADBLOCKS TO LEARNING covers over 70 different obstacles to learning From study skills to ADD from problem solving to teacher child conflict this indispensable guide is for all parents who want to ensure their child is learning to his her full potential Good Question Michael Emme,2017-09-14 Good Question is a textbook intended for children and youth teachers and researchers interested in doing collaborative research in their community The volume starts out as comic book research methods textbook that intends to introduce children and youth to the fundamental structure of the research process its elements and steps as well as with the research activities associated with the different aspects of research practice in general and arts based image based research in particular This unique approach allows children and youth to learn the e craft of researche in a play ful way and to become knowledgeable and competent co researchers with adults contributing to all phases of the study s design The volume encourages teachers and researchers to see the important role of play in teaching children and young people about the research process and gives them the tools to engage children and youth in playful arts based image based inquiries The complexity of exploring collaborative research required an innovative way of overcoming the linearity of a paper bound print text and the way we read it The volume is intentionally organized in three sections starting with the comic book because it invites an openness to layered non linear research literacy The volume also includes an anthology of research examples of conducting arts based image based research with children and several theoretical essays focused on play as research and collaborative arts based image based research The later sections featuring research examples and theory though heavily illustrated have been peer reviewed and formatted more in the academic tradition Thus Good Question represents an attempt to make sense of children s play ful engagement in arts based image based inquiry activities with adults as research By playing with the forms and traditions of the comic book the research methods textbook and the academic book together we have attempted to respectfully disassemble and reassemble book form We invite readers to discover those research conventions that are capable of establishing what is gathered and presented here as collaborative research with children We imagine this volume contributing to the quest e for new ways of living together of generating more and more incisive and inclusive dialogues Greene 1994 p 459 as both a personal and a collective endeavor Dimensions of Early Childhood,1992 Dimensions ,1991 Sorting and Sequencing Jo Ellen Moore,1995-04-01 How to Read with Your Children Phyllis Anderson Wilken,1996 A simple process to teach parents caregivers how to read with young children an activity on which reading readiness and school success depend Instant Science Lessons for Elementary Teachers Barbara Gruber,Sue Gruber,1986
