The Emergence of a National Market in Spain, 1650-1800 Guillermo Perez Sarrion, 2016-06-16 Awarded the Jaume Vicens Vives Prize by the Spanish Association of Economic History this study analyses the development of the Spanish domestic market from 1650 to 1800 which transformed the country from a pseudocolonial territory politically and economically dependent on its European neighbours to a significant European power The Emergence of a National Market in Spain 1650 1800 places Spain firmly in a European context arguing that the origins of a sophisticated economy must be understood through the complex diplomacy of the period namely the competition between Britain and France for dominance in the Iberian peninsula It was in response to this rivalry that the Spanish state actively promoted the conditions for economic development in the 18th century aided by autonomous commercial networks of Catalan merchants Navarrese tradesmen and migrant French businessmen This original interpretation by one of Spain s leading economic historians available in English for the first time is indispensable reading for students and scholars of Spanish history silence voice and image living and thinking the self and the world while simultaneously addressing the issue of translation Each chapter demonstrates that translation itself is a way of invention rather than just a rendering of concepts from one system in terms of another This collection acts as a travelogue The journey does not follow a particular trajectory some countries are not on the map some are visited twice So there is no claim to completeness involved here it is rather an invitation to answer to the call
