The Devotion of Collecting Forrest C. Strickland,2023-01-16 The history of the Netherlands in the seventeenth century cannot be adequately told without considering ministers understanding of print and how they used print to encourage godliness and the nature of their personal libraries This study is built upon an examination of 234 auction catalogues of ministerial collections nearly all that are known to survive and the transcription of fifty five of these catalogues Libraries were possessions of central importance to the ministers who owned them Knowing the kinds of print with which ministers interacted provides us with valuable insights into the daily life of a minister and the culture of the era So what books did these central theological figures own and how did they use them

Moved by the Dead Michael Amoruso,2025-04-15 In the sprawling city of S o Paulo a weekly practice known as devotion to souls devo o s almas draws devotees to Catholic churches cemeteries and other sites associated with tragic or unjust deaths The living pray and light candles for the souls of the dead remembering events and circumstances in a rite of collective suffering Yet contemporary devotion to souls is not confined to Catholic adherents or fixed to specific locations The practice is also linked to popular tours of haunted sites in the city and it moves within an urban environment routinely marked by violence and death While based in Catholic traditions devotion to souls is as complex and multifaceted as religion itself in Brazil where African Portuguese and other cultural forms have blended and evolved over centuries Michael Amoruso s insightful work uses the methods of ethnography religious studies and urban studies to consider how devotion to souls embodies adapts and challenges conventional ideas of religion as tethered to specific sites and practices Examining devotees varied ways of ascribing meaning to their actions Amoruso argues that devotion to souls acts as a form of what he calls mnemonic repair tying the living to the dead in a struggle against the forces of forgetting
