Sound And The Silence:

Listening to Noise and Silence Salomé Voegelin, 2010-03-31 Listening to Noise and Silence engages with the emerging practice of sound art and the concurrent development of a discourse and theory of sound In this original and challenging work Salom Voegelin immerses the reader in concepts of listening to sound artwork and the everyday acoustic environment establishing an aesthetics and philosophy of sound and promoting the notion of a sonic sensibility A multitude of sound works are discussed by lesser known contemporary artists and composers for example Curgenven Gasson and Federer historical figures in the field Artaud Feldman and Cage and that of contemporary canonic artists such as Janet Cardiff Bill Fontana Bernard Parmegiani and Merzbow Informed by the ideas of Adorno Merleau Ponty and others the book aims to come to a critique of sound art from its soundings rather than in relation to abstracted themes and pre existing categories Listening to Noise and Silence broadens the discussion surrounding sound art and opens up the field for others to follow Sound

forgiving and not forgiving just like the occurrence of leaves of the trees falling on the soil from the trees is not something ethically bad or good The god s forgiving all does not belong to the dimension of forgivable unforgivable things But nonetheless god s this forgiving causes something in the heart of the human A sense of fairness and justness is broken by this act of forgiving by god Some souls not all of them now have to forgive god s forgiving They have to find a way to forgive something that doesn t even belong to the realm of forgivable unforgivable dichotomy They have to forgive that god doesn t hold its side of the bargain If the other side of the bargain would not follow what is required by the agreement then what was the point of keeping this side of the bargain if in the end everyone would be treated the same In the act of forgiving all there is a violence a violation a trespass This violence is two folded It is both about not keeping the requirements of the bargain and also about conflicting the content of it But how can one see a forgiving a grace an ultimate goodness and kindness as something within the realm of forgivable unforgivable The god s forgiving is so not something belongs to the realm of forgiving that it doesn t open itself to neither forgiveness nor unforgiveness But what about heart s mathematics
