Athens and Limestone County Kelly Kazek, 2010 Athens and Limestone County were founded in 1818 the year before Alabama became a state making Athens one of its oldest cities The quaint picturesque downtown square in Athens the county seat is the heart of the community Athens and Limestone County are studies in the ongoing tug of war between tradition and progress Athens is traditionally a railroad and cotton town once ranking among the state's largest cotton producers but since the aerospace boom of the 1960s it has increasingly entered the orbit of the technology center of nearby Huntsville home of the U S Space and Rocket Center and Redstone Arsenal These days Athens is home to many manufacturing firms and local civic groups are focused on revitalizing downtown and bringing tourists to Limestone County My Three Lost Girls Su Anne Sherry, 2012 Growing up an orphan author Su Anne Sherry often found herself adrift in life belonging to no one As Sherry struggled to navigate the sometimes perilous waters of her life without parental guidance she just wanted to know what it felt like to be loved In her poignant memoir Sherry called Sophie in her childhood chronicles a lost and lonely little orphan's hunger for affection and her struggle to understand her world as she battled instinctively to hold onto her true self and her sense of humor in the face of institutional indifference bureaucratic foibles and human cruelty Orphaned three months after she was born due to her mother's untimely death and her father's chronic illness little Sophie began her journey through foster care and subsequently life in an orphanage where she learned to embrace random acts of kindness develop her personality and overcome daily challenges As she slowly unveils memories from her coming of age journey she illustrates the power of the human spirit to overcome even the greatest of challenges in order to realize true happiness My Three Lost Girls shares a heartrending often humorous account of one woman's pilgrimage from an unpredictable beginning in an orphanage to adolescent independence where she finally discovers what it is like to be loved The History of Big Safari Colonel Bill Grimes, USAF Retired, 2014 For more than half a century Big Safari modified aircraft have performed dangerous and essential missions to collect intelligence conduct surveillance and reconnaissance and engage in special operations missions around the globe in the interest of national security These state of the art aircraft have been flown operated and maintained by men and women whose dedication and commitment have made the world a safer place In The History of Big Safari author Colonel Bill Grimes a retired US Air Force officer presents a history of this program which has been in existence for more than sixty years Born as a special acquisition program in 1952 Big Safari has been in a unique position to save lives by rapidly fielding essential systems with a quick reaction capability to ensure decision makers on the battlefield and at the Pentagon have timely intelligence to plan and execute operations Grimes shows how without a special acquisition program such as Big Safari the nation's ability to react to evolving dangers and threats would be mired in bureaucracy when timely responses are critical With detailed cutaway illustrations revealing aircraft modifications and mission equipment The History of Big Safari also includes photographs sidebars and anecdotes It goes behind the scenes with the men and women who participated in the challenging projects and daring missions It shares the development of cutting edge technology and special mission aircraft as well as the global events that necessitated these once classified programs Finally it provides insight into long veiled projects operations and missions that comprise the world under the purview of Big Safari The One-eyed Man Larry L. King, 2001 In the 1960s when the Supreme Court rules that African Americans must be admitted to the university in an unnamed Southern state Governor Cullie Blanton is about to run for re election One of his opponents is Bayonet Bill Wooster an ex marine general who bases his campaign on fear of racial integration fear of Communists and fear of the federal government he presents himself as the leader in a holy war against the incumbent infidel The other candidate is Poppa Posey a former governor who raises hound dogs quotes Shakespeare and hopes to use Wooster s money to split support for Blanton Only Blanton understands that integration is inevitable and that his task must be to make the transition as painless and bloodless as possible That he fails may be due in part to his freewheeling power driven personality But Blanton is also defeated by inertia tradition and demagoguery He is as he once describes himself someone who just got in the way of goddamn history Is the state Texas and the governor Lyndon B Johnson King denies it arguing that there are equal parts of Huey Long Herman Talmadge and Alfalfa Bill Murray But as Erisman says in his foreword Blanton in his wheeling and dealing his crudities and profanity his ruthlessness and his compassion is a dead on portrait of LBJ in full cry The One Eyed Man presents a hauntingly clear picture of the 1960s in the South the national grief over the assassination of President John F Kennedy the racial turmoil the human dilemma faced by North and South alike And it poses haunting questions for the reader what separates the demagogue from the leader What injustices are acceptable in the name of a larger justice Who determines the greatest good for the greatest number Mission to Tokyo Robert F. Dorr, 2012-09-15 From Hell Hawks author Bob Dorr Mission to Tokyo takes the reader on a World War II strategic bombing mission from an airfield on the western Pacific island of Tinian to Tokyo and back Told in the veterans words Mission to Tokyo is a narrative of every aspect of long range bombing including pilots and other aircrew groundcrew and escort fighters that accompanied the heavy bombers on their perilous mission Several thousand men on the small Mariana Islands of Guam Saipan and Tinian were trying to take the war to the Empire Imperial Japan in B 29 Superfortresses flying at 28 000 feet but the high altitude bombing wasn t very accurate The decision was made to take the planes down to around 8 000 feet even as low as 5 000 feet Eliminating the long climb up would save fuel and allow the aircraft to take heavier bomb loads The lower altitude would also increase accuracy substantially The trade off was the increased danger of anti aircraft fire This was deemed worth the risk and the devastation brought to the industry and population of the capital city was catastrophic Unfortunately for all involved the bombing did not bring on the quick surrender some had hoped for That would take six more months of bombing culminating in the atomic bombs dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki As with Mission to Berlin Spring 2011 Mission to Tokyo focuses on a specific mission from spring 1945 and provides a history of the strategic air war against Japan in
