Swimming For People With Disabilities:

Swimming for People with Disabilities, 1992 Disability, Sport and Society Nigel Thomas, Andy Smith, 2008-12-05

Disability sport is a relatively recent phenomenon yet it is also one that particularly in the context of social inclusion is attracting increasing political and academic interest The purpose of this important new text the first of its kind is to introduce the reader to key concepts in disability and disability sport and to examine the complex relationships between modern sport disability and other aspects of wider society Drawing upon original data from interviews surveys and policy documents the book examines how disability sport has developed and is currently organised and explores key themes issues and concepts including disability theory and policy the emergence and development of disability sport disability sport development in local authorities mainstreaming disability sport disability physical education and school sport elite disability sport and the Paralympic Games disability sport and the media Including chapter summaries seminar questions and lists of key websites and further reading throughout Sport Disability and Society provides both an easy to follow introduction and a critical exploration of the key issues surrounding disability sport in the twenty first century This book is an invaluable resource for all students researchers and professionals working in sport studies disability studies physical education sociology and social policy Nigel Thomas is Head of Sport and Exercise at Staffordshire University UK where his research focuses on the history mainstreaming and media coverage of disability sport He previously worked for ten years with young disabled people as a sports development officer in local authorities and national governing bodies Andy Smith is Lecturer in the Sociology of Sport and Exercise at the University of Chester UK He is a co editor of the International Journal of Sport Policy and a co author of Sport Policy and Development A Sociological Introduction and An Introduction to Drugs in Sport Addicted to Winning Both books are published by Routledge 2009 Swimming for People with Disabilities Association of Swimming Therapy, 1992 Disability Life Stories Annemarie Vaccaro, Adam M. Moore, Barbara M. Newman, Philip R. Newman, Ezekiel W. Kimball, Alexis Carlson, Emily Doffing, 2025-08-12 Based on a 10 year longitudinal study in the United States this much needed text offers insight into the developmental trajectories of people with disabilities from childhood through adulthood using their language and amplifying their voices Through in depth interviews with 14 disabled people the authors learned important lessons about how each individual developed and enacted a sense of life purpose Their experiences are illustrated through rich and unfiltered narratives about childhood family interactions primary and secondary education college and work experiences These life stories also illuminate growth over time capturing details of educational identity relationship and career trajectories Featuring discussion questions at the end of each chapter the book stimulates individual and group reflection and invites readers to engage in action as allies and advocates for equity and inclusion for disabled people Disability Life Stories is essential reading for everyone especially educators in service and pre service disability scholars families community organizers healthcare professionals and disabled people themselves Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,2002 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office,2009 How to Coach Disabled People in Sport Annie Kerr,Ian Stafford,2003 This resource aims to answer all the commonly asked questions about disabled participants in sport and how to set up a coaching session to suit their needs It gives advice on how to plan a session or make minor adjustments to the way you work to make coaching more effective You do not necessarily need special training to work with disabled people in sport What you do need is sport specific knowledge and skills coupled with the confidence and understanding to make any appropriate adjustments to the ways in which you already work in your own sport This book will provide all the basic knowledge you need to develop this confidence and become a good coach for every kind of participant Endorsed by the English Federation of Disability Sport Regular practical tips allow you to easily apply your knowledge in coaching sessions References throughout the text point you in the right direction for further reading Great stand alone resource but can be used in conjunction with the other books in the sports coach UK Coaching Essentials range to provide a comprehensive introduction to coaching Suitable for anyone who leads or delivers sports programmes eg coaches leaders teachers instructors development officers officials administrators volunteers parents carers AND those with responsibility for the organisation of sport eg national governing bodies local authorities centre managers sports clubs Forms part of the Coaching Essentials series which contains the titles What is Sports Coaching How to Coach Sports Safely How to Coach Sports Effectively How to Coach Children in Sport How to Coach Disabled People in Sport How the Body Works in Sport Adapted Physical Education and Sport Joseph P. Winnick,2011 This new edition is updated to keep you current with today s trends in adapted physical education and sport and new chapters major chapters revisions and an increased emphasis on best practise Sport and Physical Activity Jacqueline Merchant,Barbara Griffin,Anne Charnock,2017-09-16 This authoritative introduction to physical activity applies the main theories models and approaches in health promotion to the field of sport and exercise It draws together the disciplines of psychology sociology physiology and social policy to look at issues affecting the health of individuals of communities and of society as a whole Congressional Record United States. Congress,2012 Kinship in the Household of God Cynthia Tam,2021-10-07 This unique volume contributes a profound autism perspective to the ongoing discussion of belonging in the church By taking readers into two church communities the author explores the issues of belonging from those least welcomed by the church and consider what the church should do differently Adopting a we approach she emphasizes the unity of different members in Christ As one body in Christ all believers share Christ s sonship and become children of God The household concept invites readers to reconceptualize Christian relationships as covenantal kinship The kinship relationship is established by God s covenantal commitment fulfilled in Christ With or without autism any person who obeys God s summons is incorporated into Christ s body by the Spirit to become God s child Believers are thus siblings to one another Viewing each person this way enables us to see beyond human differences and welcome one another as God s gifts and indispensable members of the community Shifting Currents Karen Eva Carr,2022-07-18 A deep dive into the history of aquatics that exposes centuries old tensions of race gender and power at the root of many contemporary swimming controversies Shifting Currents is an original and comprehensive history of swimming It examines the tension that arose when non swimming northerners met African and Southeast Asian swimmers Using archaeological textual and art historical sources Karen Eva Carr shows how the water simultaneously attracted and repelled these northerners swimming seemed uncanny related to witchcraft and sin Europeans used Africans and Native Americans swimming skills to justify enslaving them but northerners also wanted to claim water s power for themselves They imagined that swimming would bring them health and demonstrate their scientific modernity As Carr reveals this unresolved tension still sexualizes women s swimming and marginalizes Black and Indigenous swimmers today Thus the history of swimming offers a new lens through which to gain a clearer view of race gender and power on a centuries long scale Swimming for People with Disabilities ,1992
